The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1815.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS divers Soldiers now serving in His Majesty's Army, under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, passed in the 46th year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter 66, and of another Act passed in the 47th year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter 32, and of another Act passed in the 48th year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter 15, and of another Act passed in the 49th year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter 12, and of another Act passed in the 50th year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter 7, and of another Act passed in the 51st year of His Majesty's Reign, Chapter 8, and of another Act passed in the 52nd year of His Majesty's Reign, chap. 22, and of another Act passed in the 53rd year of His Majesty's Reign, chap. 17, and which said several Acts are severally and respectively entitled, "An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters," did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited periods therein respectively expressed; provided His Majesty should so long require the same, and for such further term, not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty; provided always, that in case of such direction, the said additional period should determine, whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive Treaty, should have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods as aforesaid: And whereas the recommencement of hostilities renders it expedient to exercise the power vested in His Majesty, of enlarging such limited periods of service; we have therefore thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation; and we do hereby direct, that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's army (the veteran battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, shall continue to serve therein for the term of three years, after the expiration of such limited periods respectively; provided always, that the said additional period shall determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive Treaty shall have elapsed, subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods respectively.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the second day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act "to repeal an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for establishing regulations respecting "Aliens arriving in this kingdom, or resident "therein; and to establish, for twelve months, "other regulations respecting Aliens arriving in "this kingdom, or residing therein, in certain "cases;" It is enacted, that when and so often as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall think it necessary for the safety and tranquillity of the kingdom, by His or Their Proclamation, or Order in Council, to direct that Aliens of any description in the said Proclamation or Order mentioned, shall not be landed in this kingdom, except at such places and under such regulations as shall be in such Proclamation or Order expressed, then and in every such case, the master or commander of every ship or vessel, or boat having any such Alien or Aliens on board, shall not suffer any such Alien or Aliens to land within any part of this kingdom contrary to such Proclamation or Order in Council, unless by His Majesty's express permission, signified under the hand of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and every such master or commander, wilfully neglecting to conform to any of the directions or regulations contained in such Proclamation or Order, shall forfeit Forty Pounds, for every Alien so landed, to be recovered as therein mentioned; and such ship or vessel, from on board of which any such Alien or Aliens shall so land, shall be detained till such penalty shall be paid; and every other vessel or boat used in landing such Alien or Aliens, shall and may be seized by the Inspector of Aliens, or by any officer or officers of the Customs or Excise, as the case may be; and the same respectively shall, on proof that such offence was wilfully committed, contrary to the provisions of this Act, be forfeited, together with all tackle, apparel, ammunition, and furniture thereunto respectively belonging: now We, being desirous of carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act in manner hereafter expressed, do, by this Our Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, order and direct, That from and after the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, no Alien or Aliens on board of any ship or vessel, or boat, coming or arriving, directly or immediately from any port or place in France, or any port or place under the dominion of the persons exercising the powers of Government in France, or from any port or place of, or in, or belonging to any country or territory at war with Great Britain, shall (until Our Royal pleasure concerning such Aliens shall be further expressed) be landed or be suffered by the master or commander of any such ship, vessel, or boat, to land at any port or place within Great Britain, except at the ports of Harwich, Dover, Newhaven, Southampton, Falmouth, and at Gravesend, unless by Our express permission signified under the hand of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: And We do further order and direct, by and with the advice aforesaid, That notice of this Our Proclamation shall be printed in different languages, and shall be affixed in public places in the different ports of this kingdom, and shall also be delivered by the Custom-house officers to the master of every such ship, vessel, or boat arriving at any port or place in this Kingdom, except as aforesaid, and to all foreigners arriving in any such ship, vessel, or boat: provided always, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to any Foreign Ambassador or other public Minister duly authorized, or the servants actually attendant upon any such Ambassador or public Minister, or any domestic servant of any of His Majesty's natural-born subjects, or of any subject to whom letters of denization have been, or shall be hereafter granted, or any domestic servant of any of His Majesty's subjects, who now are or shall hereafter be naturalized by Act of Parliament, such servants respectively being actually and bonâ fide employed in the service of their respective masters, and actually at the time attendant upon their respective masters; nor to any mariner actually engaged and employed in the navigation of any ship or vessel, during the time that such mariner shall remain so actually engaged and employed, and certified in the manner in the said Act mentioned to be such mariner, by the master or commander of such ship or vessel, upon his arrival in any such port or place as aforesaid. And We do hereby require and command the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the second day of June, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "an Act to repeal an Act of the last Session of "Parliament for establishing regulations respecting "Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident "therein; and to establish for twelve months "other regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this "Kingdom, or residing therein, in certain cases;" His Majesty is authorised by His Royal Proclamation, from time to time, to require and command every Alien who now is in, or who shall hereafter come into Great Britain, except as therein excepted, to register himself or herself, and thereupon to obtain His Majesty's Royal Licence to reside within this Kingdom, as therein mentioned: Now We, being desirous of carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, do, by this our Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, require and command every Alien who shall have arrived in this Kingdom, since the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and shall be resident in this Kingdom, on the day of the date of this our Proclamation, except as herein-after excepted, to register himself or herself, in the manner herein-after mentioned; that is to say,

All such Aliens residing in the City of London shall, within ten days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with the Lord Mayor of the said City.

All such Aliens residing in the City and Liberties of Westminster, or elsewhere within the Bills of Mortality (except the City of London), or residing within ten miles of the City of London, shall, within ten days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with the Magistrates at one of the under-mentioned public offices, in the District of which office such Alien shall then reside; that is to say, the police office, Queen-square, Westminster, Great Marlbro'-street, Hatton Garden, Lambeth-street, Whitechapel, Worship-street, Shoreditch, High-street, Shadwell, and Union Hall, Southwark.

All such Aliens residing out of the districts aforesaid, and within any cities or corporate towns, or within the jurisdiction of the Magistrates of such cities or corporate towns respectively, shall, within fourteen days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of such cities or corporate towns respectively.

And all such Aliens residing in other places in Great Britain shall, within eighteen days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with some Magistrate of the county or place where such Aliens respectively shall reside.

And We do further require and command all Aliens who shall come into Great Britain, after the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, to register themselves in the manner herein-after mentioned, with the Lord Mayor, Mayors, or other Magistrates as aforesaid, within two days after every such Alien shall have arrived within any such city, town, district, or other place to which he shall be allowed to proceed, by passport granted for that purpose, except Aliens who are required by our Proclamation of this day's date, to land at no other port than the ports of Harwich, Dover, Newhaven, Southampton, Falmouth, and at Gravesend, whom We hereby require and command to register themselves in manner hereinafter mentioned, at the Alien Office, in Crown-Street, Westminster.

And We do further require and command every Alien, for the purpose of obtaining such licence as aforesaid, to deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the person or persons with whom such Alien is hereby required to register himself or herself as aforesaid, a full and true declaration or account in writing of his or her name, age, place of birth, dence occupation, profession, the place of resirank, when last in his or her own country, together with the last and principal place of residence before his or her arrival in this kingdom, the name or names of some person or persons in this country to whom known, the reason or purpose for which he or she came to this kingdom, the time when and the place at which such Alien last arrived in Great Britain, and where his or her actual residence has been since such last arrival, and is at the time of giving in such declaration, which said declaration or account shall be signed by such Alien with his or her name or mark.

And We do hereby authorize and appoint the said Lord Mayor, Mayors, and other Magistrates as aforesaid respectively, to receive such accounts as aforesaid, and do require and command them respectively to cause the original account to be transmitted within two days to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for the purpose of such Alien obtaining His Majesty's Royal licence to reside within Great Britain from the said Secretary, whom We do hereby authorize and appoint to grant such licences, or from such other person or persons who now are, or who shall from time to time be authorized and appointed by Us to grant such licences.

And We do further authorize and require the said Lord Mayor, Mayors, and other Magistrates as aforesaid, to whom any such accounts shall be delivered as aforesaid, to grant under his hand and seal to the Alien delivering such account, a provisional licence to reside within Great Britain, under such restrictions as shall appear fit, during the time that shall be therein allowed to such Alien for obtaining His Majesty's Royal licence as aforesaid.

And We do further declare, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to require any Alien to obtain such licence as aforesaid, who shall have obtained, under any former Act relating to Aliens, His Majesty's Royal licence to reside in any part of this kingdom.

And We do further direct, That every Alien who shall have obtained any licence under any former Act, the term of which licence has expired, shall transmit the same to the Alien office in Crown-street, Westminster, for the purpose of being renewed or exchanged for such other licence as may be granted by our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or by such other person or persons appointed by us to grant the same.

And We do further direct, That every Alien upon every change of residence, shall give notice thereof to the Alien office in Crown-street, Westminster.

And We do further declare, That no Foreign Ambassador, or other public Minister duly authorized, nor the domestic servants of any such Foreign Ambassador or public Minister, registered according to the directions of the laws in force for that purpose, and being actually attendant upon such Ambassador or Minister; nor any Alien not above the age of fourteen years, shall be deemed within the meaning and intent of this Proclamation.

And We do further declare, that all such licences, and provisional licences, as aforesaid, shall be given without fee or reward, and shall be subject to no duty or charge whatsoever.

And We do further declare and make known, that every Alien who shall be found at large in Great Britain after the time by this Our Proclamation limited, for registering and thereupon obtaining licences as aforesaid, such Aliens not having obtained such licence respectively, and not being exempted as aforesaid, will be liable on conviction to suffer imprisonment for any time not exceeding six months, according to the provisions of the said Act.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of April 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the "trade between the subjects of His Majesty's "colonies and plantations in North America and "in the West India Islands and the countries be-"longing to the United States of America, and "between His Majesty's said subjects and the "Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects; and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

PROCLAMATION

PARDONING DESERTERS

FROM HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, May 20, 1815.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are, at this time, several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land service, who might be induced to return to their duty, by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and, that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour; His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 20th day of July next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field-Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof, or, to the Commandant of Albany Barracks in the Isle of Wight, or, to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain.

Leeds.
Newcastle-under-Line.
Nottingham.
Gloucester.
Aylesbury.
Chelmsford.
Taunton.
Andover.
Edinburgh.
Glasgow.
Aberdeen.

Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps, to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and are now serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers on or before the said 20th day of July next, and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate, to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness, such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate, or, to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself, if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those, who have already committed that offence, ought to feel, that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

War-Office, June 10, 1815.

To Officers of the Land Forces.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, having taken into consideration the great convenience that would result to Officers on the Half-Pay, or on the Retired List, and to General Officers, entitled to the pay of their army rank, if they were allowed to receive their pay or half-pay from the establishment of that country in which they shall actually reside, without regard to the establishment upon which the pay or half-pay was originally allowed, has been pleased to direct, that in future all such Officers shall, from the 25th December 1814, inclusive, or from such subsequent date to which their pay or half-pay shall have been issued, receive payment of the same in the country in which they shall reside; and that the following rules be observed in this respect:

Any Officer residing in Great Britain, whose pay or half-pay is now issued in Ireland, should notify his place of residence to the War-Office in Dublin, in order that an official communication may be made from thence, for the transfer of the payment of his pay or half-pay in Great Britain.

In like manner any Officer residing in Ireland, whose pay or half-pay is now issued in Great Britain, should make a similar report to the War-Office in London, when instructions will be given for the payment of his pay or half-pay in Ireland.

If any Officer should afterwards be desirous of changing his place of residence, he is to give two months previous notice of his intention to the War-Office of the country in which he shall then be resident.

Carlton-House, June 8, 1815.

This day John Quincy Adams, Esq. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America, had his first private audience of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to deliver his credentials; to which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

This day Monsieur de Freudenreick, accompanied by Monsieur de Haller, charged with a special mission to the Prince Regent, from the Canton of Berne, had a private audience of His Royal Highness, to deliver his letter of recall; to which he was introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, June 7, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Admiral the Right Honourable James Baron Gambier, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the said Most Honourable Military Order, vice Vice-Admiral Sir Samuel Hood, Baronet, deceased.

His Royal Highness hath also been pleased to nominate and appoint Vice-Admiral David Gould to be a Knight Commander of the said Most Honourable Military Order, vice Admiral Lord Gambier.

Carlton-House, June 8, 1815.

This day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to invest Major-General Sir Thomas Bradford, Major-General Sir Manley Power, Rear-Admiral Sir Pulteney Malcolm, and Major-General Sir John Keane, with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Prince Regent, Major-General Sir Thomas Bradford was conducted with the usual reverences to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion, the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The Sword of State was thereupon delivered to the Prince Regent by General Sir John Francis Cradock, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, and Sir Thomas Bradford kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand.

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms, the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented them to the Prince Regent, who was pleased to invest Sir Thomas Bradford with the same. The Major-General having again had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, and having received from His Royal Highness the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

Major-General Sir Manley Power, Read-Admiral Sir Pulteney Malcolm, and Major-General Sir John Keane, were severally introduced, knighted and invested with the same ceremonies.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was also pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to confer the honour of knighthood upon the following Officers, Knights Commanders of the said Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath:

Captain Sir William Hoste, Bart. R. N.
Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Alexander Dickson.
Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Frederick Stovin.

Whitehall, June 10, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John M'Mahon, of Thornhill, in the county of Dorset, Esq. a Captain in the West Regiment of Local Militia of the said county, eldest son of Terence M'Mahon, of Cullen's-Wood, in the county of Dublin, Esq. who was the brother of John M'Mahon, alias Cree, late of Thornhill aforesaid, Esq. both deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with the will of his late paternal uncle John M'Mahon, alias Cree, assume and take the surname of Cree only, and also bear the arms of Cree only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissary in Chief's-Office, Great George-Street, May 26, 1815.

NOtice is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the undermentioned Counties and Islands,

Berwick-upon-Tweed, Jersey,
Guernsey, Kent;

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the undermentioned Isle,

Isle of Man;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry in Barracks, and Oats in Cantonments and Quarters, in the under-mentioned Counties in South Britain,

Berks, Kent;

As also Forage to all Horses kept for His Majesty's Service in the Islands of

Guernsey, Alderney;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of July next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 27th day of June; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day, and, if sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the supply of forage in the island of Guernsey, which must include Alderney; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be stationed or supplied in the county, the expence of the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, to be refunded to him by the Commissary in Chief.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five; at the Office of Deputy Commissary-General Coope, Guernsey; and at the Office of Deputy Commissary-General Wright, Jersey.

Notice to the Creditors of James Macfarlane, Vintner, Coach-Master, and Bank-Agent, in Linlithgow.

Edinburgh, June 3, 1815.

SEQUESTRATION, under the Bankrupt statute, was this day awarded by the Second Division of the Court of Session of the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of the said James Macfarlane, whose creditors, by deliverance of Court, were appointed to meet in the Crown Inn, Linlithgow, upon Saturday the 10th day of June current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of choosing an Interim Factor; and to meet again, in the same place, at the same hour, upon Saturday the 24th day of June current, for the purpose of electing a Trustee on the said sequestrated estate.

Notice to the Creditors of William Farries, Merchant, in Ecclefechan.

Annan, May 29, 1815.

JOHN HILL, of Longdike, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said William Farries, hereby requests a general meeting of the creditors of the Bankrupt, or agents duly authorised to act for them, within the Bankrupt's house at Ecclefechan, on the 21st day of June next, at Noon, for the purpose of inspecting and deciding upon a final scheme of division of the Bankrupt's means and estate then and there to be exhibited by him; and also, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from an application by the Bankrupt to the Court of Session for a discharge.

And it is hereby intimated to such of the creditors of the said William Farries as have not already lodged their claims, that unless their grounds of debt, with oaths to the verity thereof, shall be lodged with the Trustee on or before the 11th day of July next, being twenty-two months from the date of the sequestration, they will not be held as entitled to any dividend or share of the Bankrupt's effects.

Leith, May 31, 1815.

AT the meeting of the creditors of William Allan, Merchant, in Leith, held this day, in terms of this statute, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners on his sequestrated estate, an offer of composition was made by him of 6s. 3d. in the pound of the principal sums of all debts due by him at and previous to the sequestration, payable as follows, viz. 6s. 3d. per pound fourteen days after the composition shall have been approved of by the Court, and the remaining 1s. per pound at twelve months from same date. The meeting unanimously found this offer, and the caution proposed for the same, to be just and reasonable, and appointed another meeting of the creditors to be held in the Exchange Tavern, Leith, on Wednesday the 21st of June next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of deciding thereon; of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the statute.

Notice to the Creditors of John M'Grigor, Merchant-Taylor, Athol-Street, Perth.

Perth, May 31, 1815.

ALL persons having claims against the said John M'Grigor are requested to lodge the same, with the oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of Mr. Malcolm Stewart, Merchant, Perth, on or before the 1st day of August next, otherwise they can receive no part of the funds.
