

Mortality (except the City of London), or residing within ten miles of the City of London, shall, within ten days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with the Magistrates at one of the under-mentioned public offices, in the District of which office such Alien shall then reside; that is to say, the police office, Queen-square, Westminster, Great Marlbro'-street, Hatton Garden, Lambeth-street, Whitechapel, Worship-street, Shore-ditch, High-street, Shadwell, and Union Hall, Southwark.

All such Aliens residing out of the districts aforesaid, and within any cities or corporate towns, or within the jurisdiction of the Magistrates of such cities or corporate towns respectively, shall, within fourteen days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of such cities or corporate towns respectively.

And all such Aliens residing in other places in Great Britain shall, within eighteen days from the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, so register themselves with some Magistrate of the county or place where such Aliens respectively shall reside.

And We do further require and command all Aliens who shall come into Great Britain, after the publication of this Our Proclamation in the London Gazette, to register themselves in the manner herein-after mentioned, with the Lord Mayor, Mayors, or other Magistrates as aforesaid, within two days after every such Alien shall have arrived within any such city, town, district, or other place to which he shall be allowed to proceed, by passport granted for that purpose, except Aliens who are required by our Proclamation of this day's date, to land at no other port than the ports of Harwich, Dover, Newhaven, Southampton, Falmouth, and at Gravesend, whom We hereby require and command to register themselves in manner hereinafter mentioned, at the Alien Office, in Crown-Street, Westminster.

And We do further require and command every Alien, for the purpose of obtaining such licence as aforesaid, to deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the person or persons with whom such Alien is hereby required to register himself or herself as aforesaid, a full and true declaration or account in writing of his or her name, age, place of birth, dence occupation, profession, the place of residence, when last in his or her own country, together with the last and principal place of residence before his or her arrival in this kingdom, the name or names of some person or persons in this country to whom known, the reason or purpose for which he or she came to this kingdom, the time when and the place at which such Alien last arrived in Great Britain, and where his or her actual residence has been since such last arrival, and is at the time of giving in such declaration, which said declaration or account shall be signed by such Alien with his or her name or mark.

And We do hereby authorize and appoint the said Lord Mayor, Mayors, and other Magistrates as aforesaid respectively, to receive such accounts as aforesaid, and do require and command them respectively to cause the original account to be transmitted within two days to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for the purpose of such Alien obtaining His Majesty's Royal licence to reside within Great Britain from the said Secretary, whom We do hereby authorize and appoint to grant such licences, or from such other person or persons who now are, or who shall from time to time be authorized and appointed by Us to grant such licences.

And We do further authorize and require the said Lord Mayor, Mayors, and other Magistrates as aforesaid, to whom any such accounts shall be delivered as aforesaid, to grant under his hand and seal to the Alien delivering such account, a provisional licence to reside within Great Britain, under such restrictions as shall appear fit, during the time that shall be therein allowed to such Alien for obtaining His Majesty's Royal licence as aforesaid.

And We do further declare, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to require any Alien to obtain such licence as aforesaid, who shall have obtained, under any former Act relating to Aliens, His Majesty's Royal licence to reside in any part of this kingdom.

And We do further direct, That every Alien who shall have obtained any licence under any former Act, the term of which licence has expired, shall transmit the same to the Alien office in Crown-street, Westminster, for the purpose of being renewed or exchanged for such other licence as may be granted by our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or by such other person or persons appointed by us to grant the same.

And We do further direct, That every Alien upon every change of residence, shall give notice thereof to the Alien office in Crown-street, Westminster.

And We do further declare, That no Foreign Ambassador, or other public Minister duly authorized, nor the domestic servants of any such Foreign Ambassador or public Minister, registered according to the directions of the laws in force for that purpose, and being actually attendant upon such Ambassador or Minister; nor any Alien not above the age of fourteen years, shall be deemed within the meaning and intent of this Proclamation.

And We do further declare, that all such licences, and provisional licences, as aforesaid, shall be given without fee or reward, and shall be subject to no duty or charge whatsoever.

And We do further declare and make known, that every Alien who shall be found at large in Great Britain after the time by this Our Proclamation limited, for registering and thereupon obtaining licences as aforesaid, such Aliens not having obtained such licence respectively, and not being exempted as aforesaid, will be liable on conviction to suffer imprisonment for any time not exceeding six months, according to the provisions of the said Act.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.
