SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1815.

India-Board, Whitehall, Jane 15, 1815.

THE following statement of the operations of the second division of the field army, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Mawby, of His-Majesty's 53d regiment, before Kalunga, has been this day received from India.

Fort William, Dec. 13, 1814.

HIS Excellency the Vice President in Council is pleased to publish the following statement of the operations of the 2d division of the field army, under the command of Colonel Mawby, of His Majesty's 53d regiment, before Kalunga, which terminated in the evacuation of the Fort on the 30th of

The battering train from Delhi, having arrived in Camp on the 24th ultimo; the operations of the army against the fort of Halungs, were resumed on the morning of the 25th. At one o'clock P. M. on the 27th, the breach was reported completely practicable by the officers in charge of the engineer and artillery departments. Colonel Mawby having also satisfied himself of the fact from personal observation, and being auxious to avoid any delay which should afford the enemy sufficient time to strengthen his internal defence, either by cutting up the breach, or erecting works so as to command the entrance into it, ordered the storming party instantly to advance. The storming party, consisting of all the grenadiers of the division, and one battalion company of the 53d, with the light infantry company of that corps, was led by Major Ingleby, and after being exposed till 3 o'clock, an interval of two hours, to a most galling and destructive fire, of musketry and matchlocks, they found their efforts opposed by insuperable obstacles, and were in consequence ordered to abandon the attack.

In this arduous and gallant but unsuccessful struggle, many brave Officers and men were killed and wounded.

The most honograble testimony is borne by Colonel Mawby to the zeal and courage displayed by the officers and men engaged in the assault, and although their brave efforts were not crowned with to convince the enemy of the inutiltiy of further resistance; accordingly on the 30th, at 4, A. M. the Napaulese garrison abandoned the Fort of Kalunga, to the British troops.

The following is the Official return of the killed, wounded, and missing, in the assault on the 27th of

To Lieutenant-Colonel Fagan, Adjutant-General. (((trap ()

I HAD the honour to acquaint you on the 4th instant, of my preparatory arrangements, and by express informed you of the surrender of Nalagurh about noon.

In my letter of the 4th instant, above alluded to, I had the honour to express my hope that a breach would be soon effected, but the wall, though not thicker than had been represented, required more battering than was expected. . About nine o'clock a. m. when it was thought that the breach would be rendered practicable in a few hours, two men, Brakmins, came out of the fort and intimated the wish of the garrison to surrender, of which I received immediate notice from the Field Officer Commanding at the batteries, and desired him to assure them of security and protection to their lives and property, and of such attention-as-they-might-require - according to their own customs, on any trifling point of etiquette.

I followed these instructions immediately in person, to obviate all necessary delay, and found that the Subadar in Command required to be allowed to join Umer-Sing, and to march out with his arms.

I told him, through an under: Moonshee, whom I had taken down thing the first was positively inadmissible, and the llutter to me a point of no consequence if it was important to him he have no

After a considerable time spent in parley, which induced me at length to apprehend something wrong, I desired him to give a positive answer by marching out, or the fire should recommence on the return of the messenger, and they accordingly moved out on a platform spot of ground in front of the breach, where they deposited their arms, and I received the customary compliments from the Subadar, to whom, and to whose men, I said every thing that suggested itself as likely to satisfy their minds of their personal safety, and every thing that could conciliate and reconcile them to their captors.

In this course of conduct, I hope I should have been influenced by humanity, but in the present instance, it seemed to me to be suggested by policy. · I have the honour to transfer herewith a return of the killed and wounded during our operations, and also of the Goorkah's who surrendered.

He have, also the honour to send a copy of my Orders of yesterday, which speak my sentiments of the general conduct of the detachment, but I have feebly expressed my sense, of Lieutenant Lawtie's services, whose pouthful energy carried him to points which I could not have ascended, and whose active and intelligent mind furnished me with the most useful information.

on Though not mentioned in orders, I feel myself compelled to mention, that Major of Brigade Cartbinight's assistance and exertions were very useful.

Detachment: Orders, by Brigadier Ochterlony, com-manding. Camp before Nalagurh, Saturday, 5th November 1814.

THE commanding officer congratulates the detachment on the surrender of Nalagurh and its de-pendent post of Tarragurh. He begs the troops will be assured, that he has not been insensible of the fatigues to which they have been exposed, or to the cheerfulness with which they have been borne, and whilst he considers it as a happy presage of future exertion and perseverance, it is a certain proof that had the garrison stood a storm, their courage would have been as conspicuous as the other qualities they have displayed.

To those qualifications which are as essential as valour, the commanding officer will not fail to call the attention of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, but it becomes his more particular duty to express his obligations to Major M'Leod, and the officers and men of the artillery, who manned the batteries; and to the companies of the 1st battalion of the 19th, whose great exertions have been most particularly reported to him, Colonel Arnold is requested to offer the Brigadier's most marked thanks and approbation.

To Lieutenant Lawrie, he feels himself under the greatest obligations, and shall not fail to report his high sense of the tealous dervices of that officer to the Commander in Oldeft strages of heat with Captain Baines and Lieutenant Armstrong, of the pioneers, are requested to decept his thanks; and to express to the corps also Brigadier's just sense to their unwearled exortions and perseverance.

Extra batta to be served out immediately to the European detail of artillory, who assisted in dragging up the guns, as also to the Buropean; detail which relieved and manned the battery until the surrender of Najagorh (1) nounced, and the detailed particulars of which, owing to some irregularity in the Dawks, only reached head quarters this morning, with your dispatch of the 6th instant.

3. Lord Moira desires me to convey to you his entire and unqualified approbation of the whole of your measures and proceedings since you quieted your cantonments, to the period of the fall of Nalagurh and Tarragurh. The acquisition of these places is important in itself, but the circumstances under which it is made, give it an additional and peculiar value, and constitute it a most seasonable service rendered to the public interests, by your able and prudent direction of the operations entrusted to you, and entitle you to the cordial thanks of the Government and the Commander in Chief, and fully justifies the high confidence that has been reposed in you.

4. The Right Honomable the Commander in Chief desires you will be pleased to express to the division, in public orders, the high sense His Ex-cellency entertains of their exertions and conduct at the siege of Nalagurh, and the peculiar approba-tion with which His Excellency has viewed the display of those qualities of zealous persevening labour, and endurance of fatigue, which, as you justly observe, are as essential as valour at a siege. To the continued and unwearied exercise of those qualities, and the judicious application of that superiority of means which our discipline and science confer on us, no less than to that gallantry for which our troops are distinguished, the Commander in Chief looks for a speedy and honourable-termination of the present service.

5. To Major Macleod, and the officers and menof the artiflery, to Captain Baynes and, Lieutenant Armstrong, and the Companies of Pioneers, of all whose conduct and exertions you report so favour-ably, the Commander in Chief desires his particular acknowledgments may be made.

6. To Lieutenant Lawtie, field engineer and surveyor with the division, His Excellency also desires his particular thanks may be offered. The Commander in Chief considers the approbation you have expressed of the conduct of Lieutenant Lawtie, as stamping high credit' on his character; and his Lordship regards the services which Lieutenant Lawtie has rendered on this occasion, as an earnest. of the future and more important benefits which may be expected from the talents and zeal of that young officer.

7. The Commander in Chief is gratified by your mention of the useful exertions of Brigade Major Cartwright. Published by command of His Excellency the Vice-President in Council.

The taut success, which your express of the bill and attack of the enemy's posted. To C. W. Gardiner, Esq. Secretary to Government, Military Department. SIR

I AM directed by the Commander of the Forces to request you will lay before His Excellency the Honourable the Vice President in Council, the accompanying Copies of a dispatch from Major P. Bradshaw, commanding on the frontier of Sarun and Tirhoot, detailing the progress and successful result of an attack made by the detachment under his command on the enemy's post of Burhurna, on the morning of the 25th ultimo, and which in its immediate consequence appears to have led to the complete possession of the Teraiec, and the subjection of its inhabitants to the authority of the Brititish Government. On this gratifying occasion the Commander of the Forces anticipates the cordial concurrence of the Honourable the Vice President in Council in those sentiments of approbation with which His Excellency regards the conduct of Major Bradshaw in the direction of the present enterprise, which appears to His Excellency to have been planned with a degree of judgment and ability no less creditable to the professional talents of that officer, than the steadiness and gallantry subsequently displayed in the execution of his orders were honourable to the officers and troops under his command.

I have the honour to be, &c. J. GORDON, Deputy Adj.-Gen. Adjutant-General's Office, Presidency of Fort William, December 6, 1814.

To Major Gordon, Deputy Adjutant-General. SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward to you, for the information of His Excellency the Commander of the Forces, a copy of a Letter, which I addressed to the Adjutant-General on the 25th instant, announcing the surprise of the Nipaulese post of Burharwa, by the detachment of Ghoraschun, under my direction. The distance between these places is 6 coss.

2. A dispatch from Captain Hay, just received, reports the capture on the same day by that officer, of the Fort of Baragurhee, which the enemy evacuated on preparations being made to assault it.

3. No Nipaulese force is now in the Teraice of Chumpatun; and the military occupation of it being completed, I have proclaimed its subjection, and called upon the inhabitants to manifest their allegizance to the British power. Every symptom of a willing obedience to this notification appears in the surrounding villages, and the principal persons are, coming in to give the necessary security for entitling them to trust and protection.

4. Lists of the killed and wounded on the part of the detachment, and on that of the enemy, subsequently corrected, are herein inclosed.

To Licetenant-Colonel Fogun, Adjutant, General, " Head Quarters.

I HAVE the Bondus to report to you, for the 1 lieutenant, 1 havildar, 5 sepoys, 14 troopers, 7 information of the Mylle Honourable the Com shrings.

Interior in Cliff, that the troops upon the bunn Lieutenant Boildean, in command of Major Braddaty, under my stiders, inoved turward at twelve o'clock last night to occupy the Nipaulese Teraice. on this frontier, along the advance line, prescribed in your instructions. No account has yet reached me of the operation of Captain Hay's division. But I lose no time in apprising you that the result of the movement of the detachment, under Captain Sibley, was every way successful. An attack was made by it on the post of Burhurwa, in three divisions of ninety Sepoys each, led respectively by Captain Sibley, Lieutenant Boileau, and Lieutenant Thompson; and the Rissaleh of irregular horse, under Cornet Hearsay, formed into two parties, covered the flanks. Puirsaram Thapa, the Nepaulese Subah of the Teraiee, he who occupied this position with about four hundred men, was completely surprised: he himself was killed; one of his chief Sirdars severely wounded, was found among the slain, which is stated to amount to about fifty-one mountaineer The exact number of the wounded is not yet ascertained, nor can it be immediately estimated what number of the enemy were drowned on being driven into the river Bagmuttee. The route of the fugitives cut off by the north, was directed for refuge to the south in Kurrurbunna Garbee; but being pursued to that place, three miles from the siege of attack, it was evacuated, and they were chased across the Bagbuttee, where those who escaped being drowned or sabred, threw down their arms, and begged for quarter: among this number is the fate commander of the Gurhee. Two standards of the enemy have been taken in the attack. I have the honour to transmit a return of the casualties of the detachment. Lieutenant Boileau, commanding my escort, is the only European Officer wounded. He received a deep sabre cut in a personal contest with the Nipaulese Subdah, whom he slew, and whose death hastened the success of the general attack; being myself an eye witness of the conduct of the officers and men on this occasion, and having every reason to be pleased and satisfied with the execution of their service, I beg leave to present, for the favourable notice of the Right Honourable the Commander in Chief, the testimony which I can thus bear to the zeal, courage and effort, which distinguished the exertions of the leaders of divisions, and of the Rissallah of irregular horse, and of the other officers and men, in the progress of this alert. The Subadar, whose death in the service of Government has occurred, was an officer of bravery, experience and merit. He has left a wife and two sons, whom I trust to be indulged with permission to recommend to His Excellency's consideration.

I have, &c. P. BRADSHAW, Major, Com-(Signed) manding on the frontier of Sarun and Tirhoot.
