AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of June 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that every Minister or Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion, protected and allowed by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, cap. 7, intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy of the Church of England, and for repealing an Act, passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled An Act against irregular baptisms and marriages," do at some time during the exercise of the divine service in such respective church, congregation, or assembly, on Sunday the ninth day of July next, or on the Sunday next after notice hereof shall have been received, put up prayers and thanksgivings to Almighty God for the glorious victory obtained over the French, on Sunday the eighteenth day of this instant June, at Waterloo, by the allied armies, under the command of Field-Marshal the Most Noble Arthur Duke of Wellington, and Field-Marshal His Highness Prince Blucher.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of June 1815,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty is engaged, in concert with His Allies, in a just and necessary war against France; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that
