

SUPPLEMENT

TO

The London Gazette

Of SATURDAY the 1st of JULY.

Published by Authority.

MONDAY, JULY 3, 1815.

Downing-Street, July 3d, 1815.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, was last night received, addressed to Earl Bathurst, by His Grace the Duke of Wellington, dated Orville, June 29, 1815.

MY LORD,

BEING aware of the anxiety existing in England to receive the returns of killed and wounded in the late actions, I now send lists of the officers, and expect to be able to send this evening returns of the non-commissioned officers and soldiers. The amount of non-commissioned officers and soldiers, British and Hanoverian, killed, wounded, and missing, is between 12 and 13,000.

Your Lordship will see in the inclosed lists the names of some most valuable officers lost to His Majesty's service.—Among them I cannot avoid to mention Colonel Cameron of the 92d, and Colonel Sir H. Ellis of the 23d regiments, to whose conduct I have frequently drawn your Lordship's attention, and who at last fell distinguishing themselves at the head of the brave troops which they commanded.

Notwithstanding the glory of the occasion, it is impossible not to lament such men, both on account of the public and as friends.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WELLINGTON.
