AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of June 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty is engaged, in concert with His Allies, in a just and necessary war against France; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that general reprisals be granted against the ships, goods, and subjects of France, subject to such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, so that as well His Majesty's fleets and ships, as also all other ships and vessels that shall be commissioned by letters of marque or general reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all ships, vessels, and goods belonging to France, or to any persons being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories of France, saving always such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, and bring the same to judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions as shall be duly commissioned to take cognizance thereof; and to that end, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the draught of a commission, and present the same to His Royal Highness at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any person or persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant letters of marque and reprisals to any of His Majesty's subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the ships, vessels, and goods belonging to France, or to any person being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories of France, saving always such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare; and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said commission as have been usual; and are according to former precedents: And His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the draught of a commission, and present the same to His Royal Highness at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions, which shall be duly commissioned, to take cognizance of and judicially proceed upon all and all manner of captures, seizures, prizes, and reprisals of all ships and goods that are or shall be made; and to hear and determine the same, and according to the course of Admiralty, and the laws of nations, to adjudge and condemn all such ships, vessels, and goods as shall belong to France, or to any persons being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories of France, saving always such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said commission as have been usual, and are according to former precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Royal Highness at this Board, such instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign governments and plantations, for their guidance herein; as also another draught of instructions for such ships as shall be commissioned for the purposes abovementioned.

REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes, during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the twenty-first day of June instant, We have ordered that general reprisals be granted against the ships, goods, and subjects of France, subject to such exceptions as His Majesty may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, so that as well the fleets and ships of His Majesty as also all other ships and vessels that shall be commissioned by letters of marque or general reprisals, or otherwise by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all ships, vessels, and goods belonging to the Government of France, or to any persons being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories thereof (saving always such exceptions as His Majesty may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare), and bring the same to judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions duly authorised and required to take cognizance thereof, We being desirous to give due encouragement to His Majesty's faithful subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council by Our Order of the twenty-first of June instant Our intentions concerning the distributions of all manner of captures, seizures, prizes, and reprisals of all ships and goods during the present hostilities (subject to the exceptions herein-before reserved), do now make known to all His Majesty's loving subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Privy Council, that Our will and pleasure is, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the neat produce of all prizes taken (subject to the exceptions herein-before reserved), the right whereof is inherent in His Majesty and His Crown, be given to the takers (save also the produce of such prizes as are or shall be taken by ships or vessels belonging to or hired by or in the service of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the disposition of which We reserve to Our further pleasure, and also save and except as herein-after mentioned), but subject to the payment of all such or like customs and duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as merchandise, and that the same may be so given in the proportion and manner herein-after set forth; that is to say,

That all prizes taken by ships and vessels having commissions of letters of marque and reprisals (save and except such prizes as are or shall be taken by the ships or vessels belonging to or hired by or in the service of the Commissioners aforesaid), may be sold and disposed of by the merchants, owners, fitters, and others, to whom such letters of marque and reprisals are granted, for their own use and benefit, after final adjudication, and not before.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the net produce of all prizes which are or shall be taken by any of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjoint expedition with His Majesty's land forces, in which case We reserve to Ourselves the division and distribution of all prizes and booty taken; and also save and except as herein-after mentioned) shall be for the entire benefit and encouragement of the flag officers, captains, commanders, and other commissioned officers in His Majesty's pay, and of the seamen, marines, and soldiers on board His Majesty's said ships and vessels at the time of the capture; and that such prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their agents, after the same shall have been finally adjudged lawful prize to His Majesty, and not otherwise.

The distribution shall be made as follows:—the whole of the net produce being first divided into eight equal parts.

The captain or captains of any of His Majesty's said ships or vessels of war or officer commanding such ship or vessel, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any prize, shall have two eighth parts; but in case any such prize shall be taken by any of His Majesty's said ships or vessels of war under the command of a flag or flags, the flag officer or officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the capture, shall have one third of the said two eighth parts; the said one third of such two eighth parts to be paid to such flag or flag officers in such proportions and subject to such regulations as are herein-after mentioned.

The sea lieutenants, captains of marines, and land forces, and master on board shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them: but every physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to a fleet or squadron of His Majesty's ships of war, shall, in the distribution of prizes which may hereafter be taken by the ships in which he shall serve, or in which such ship's company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the before-mentioned officers with respect to one eighth part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such physician be actually on board at the time of taking such prizes.

The lieutenants and quarter-masters of marines, and lieutenants, ensigns, and quarter-masters of land forces, secretaries of admirals, or of commanders with captains under them, second masters of line of battle ships, surgeons, chaplains, pursers, gunners, boatswains, carpenters, master's mates, and pilots on board, shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The other four eighth parts of the prize to be divided into shares and distributed to the persons composing the remaining part of the crew, in the following proportions; videlicet, To the first class of petty officers, namely, the midshipmen, surgeons' assistants, secretaries' clerks, captains' clerks, schoolmasters, masters at arms, captains' coxswains, gunners' mates, yeomen of the powder-room, boatswains' mates, yeomen of the sheets, carpenters' mates, quarter-masters' mates, ships' corporals, captains of the fore-castle, master sail-makers, master caulkers, master rope-makers, armourers, serjeants of marines and land forces, four and a half shares each.

To the second class of petty officers; videlicet, midshipmen, ordinary captains of the foretop, captains of the maintop, captains of the after guard, captains of the mast, sail-makers' mates, caulkers' mates, armourers' mates, ship's cook, corporals of marines and of land forces, three shares each.

The quarter gunners, carpenter's crew, sail-maker's crew, coxswain's mates, yeomen of the boatswain's store-room, gun-smiths, coopers, trumpeters, able seamen, ordinary seamen, drummers, private marines, and other soldiers, if doing duty on board in lieu of marines, one and a half share each.

The landsmen, admiral's domestics, and all other ratings not above enumerated, together with all passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries, and doing duty and assisting on board, one share each, excepting officers acting by order, who are to receive the share of that rank in which they shall be acting.

And young gentlemen, volunteers by order, and the boys of every description, half a share each.

And We do hereby further order, that in case of cutters, schooners, brigs, and other armed vessels commanded by lieutenants, the distribution shall be as follows: First, that the share of each lieutenant shall be two eighth parts of the prize, unless such lieutenants shall be under the command of a flag officer or officers, in which case the flag officer or officers shall have one third of the said two eighths to be divided amongst such flag officer or officers, in the same manner as herein directed in the case of captains serving under flag officers.

Secondly—We direct that the share of the sub-lieutenant, master, and pilot, shall be one eighth; if there be all three such persons on board, to be divided into four parts, two parts to be taken by the sub-lieutenant, one part by the master, and one part by the pilot; if there be only two such persons on board, then the eighth to be divided into three parts, of which two thirds shall go to the person second in command, and one third to the other person; if there be only a sub-lieutenant or a master, and no pilot, then the sub-lieutenant or master to take the whole eighth; if there be only a pilot, then such pilot to have one half of the eighth; and the other half to go to Greenwich-Hospital.

Thirdly—That the share of the surgeon, or surgeon's assistant (where there is no surgeon), midshipmen, clerk, and steward, shall be one eighth.

Fourthly—That the remaining four eighths shall be divided into shares, and distributed to the other part of the crew, in the following proportions, viz. the gunners, boatswains, and carpenter's mates, yeomen of the sheets, sail-maker, quarter-master, and quarter-masters' mates, and serjeants of marines, to receive four and a half shares each.

The corporals of marines, three shares each.

The able seamen, ordinary seamen, and marines, one and a half share each.

The landmen, together with passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries, doing duty and assisting on board, to receive one share each.

Boys of all descriptions, half a share each.

But it is Our intention, nevertheless, that the above distribution shall only extend to such captures as shall be made by any cutter, schooner, brig, or armed vessel, without any of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war being present, or within sight of, and adding to the encouragement of the captors, and terror of the enemy; but in case any such ships or vessels of war shall be present or in sight, that then the officers, pilots, petty officers, and men on board such cutters, schooners, brigs, or armed vessels, shall share in the same proportion as is allowed to persons of the like rank and denomination on board of His Majesty's ships and vessels of war, the sub-lieutenant and master to be considered as warrant officers; and such cutters, schooners, brigs, or armed vessels shall not, in respect to such captures, convey any interest or share to the flag officer or officers under whose orders such cutters, schooners, brigs, and armed vessels may happen to be.

And whereas it may be judged expedient, during the present hostilities, to hire into His Majesty's service armed vessels to be employed as cruisers against the enemy, which vessels are the property of, and the masters and crews are paid by the owners of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by commissioned officers in His Majesty's pay; it is Our further will and pleasure, that the neat produce of all prizes taken by such hired armed vessels (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall be for the benefit of such commissioned officers in His Majesty's pay, and of the masters and crews on board the said hired armed vessels at the time of the capture, and that such prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their agents, after the same shall have been to His Majesty finally adjudged lawful prize, and not otherwise; the distribution whereof shall be as follows:

The whole of the neat produce being divided into eight equal parts, the officer commanding any hired armed vessel aforesaid, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any prize, shall have two eighths; but in case such hired armed vessel shall be under the command of a flag or flags, the flag officer or officers being actually on board, or directing or assisting in the capture, shall have one third of the said two eighth parts, the said one third of the two eighth parts to be paid to such flag or flag officers in such proportions, and subject to such regulations as are herein-after mentioned. In case there be acting on board such hired armed vessel, besides the officer commanding the same, one or more commissioned sea lieutenants in His Majesty's pay, such lieutenant or lieutenants shall take one eighth; one eighth shall belong to the master and mate, of which the master shall take two thirds and the mate one third; but in case there shall be acting on board such hired armed vessel one or more midshipmen, in that case the master shall take one half of the eighth, and the other shall be divided equally between the mate and midshipmen; the remaining four eighth parts shall belong to, and, being divided into shares, be distributed among the other petty officers, men, and boys, in the same proportion as herein-before directed with respect to the division of prize money in His Majesty's ships of war. And in the case of prizes taken by any hired armed vessel, not commanded by any of His Majesty's commissioned officers, one eighth shall belong to the flag officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such hired armed vessel shall be under the command of a flag: one eighth shall belong to the master and mate, of which the master shall take two thirds and the mate one third—Four eighths shall belong to and be divided among the petty officers and crew in manner aforesaid. The surplus, the distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our disposal, and if not disposed of within a year after final adjudication, the same shall belong to and be paid to Greenwich Hospital; and in the case of prizes taken jointly by any of His Majesty's ships of war or any hired armed vessel, His Majesty's commissioned officer or officers on board such hired armed vessel shall share with the commissioned officer or officers of the same rank on board His Majesty's ship or ships of war, being joint captors; the master of such hired armed vessel shall share with the warrant officers; the mate of such hired armed vessel with the first class of petty officers; and the seamen, landmen, and boys of such hired armed vessel with persons of the same description on board His Majesty's said ship or ships of war; save and except that in case such hired armed vessel shall be commanded by one of His Majesty's commissioned officers, having the rank of master and commander, and there shall be none of His Majesty's lieutenants on board, or in case such hired armed vessel shall be commanded by the master, in both those cases the master of such hired armed vessel shall share with the lieutenants of His Majesty's ships of war, and the mate with the warrant officers; and in case any difficulty shall arise in respect to the said distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same force and effect as if herein inserted.

Provided, that if any officer being on board any of His Majesty's ships of war at the time of taking any prize, shall have more commissioned officers than one, such officer shall be entitled only to share or shares of the prizes which, according to the abovementioned distribution, shall belong to his superior commission or office.

Provided also, that in all prizes taken by any of His Majesty's squadrons, ships, or vessels, while acting in conjunction with any squadron, ship, or vessel, of any other powers that may be in alliance with His Majesty, a share of such prizes shall be set apart, and be at Our further disposal, equal to that share which the flag and other officers and crews of such squadron, ships, or vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to His Majesty.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all commanders of His Majesty's ships and vessels of war taking any prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of the Navy, a true list of the names of all the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others who were actually on board His Majesty's ships and vessels of war under their command at the time of the capture; which list shall contain the quality of the service of each person on board, together with the description of the men, taken from the description books of the capturing ship or ships, and their several ratings; and be subscribed by the captain or commanding officer, and three or more of the chief officers on board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of the Navy, or any three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such lists by the muster books of such ships and vessels of war and lists annexed thereto, to see that such lists do agree with such muster books and annexed lists, as to the names, qualities, or ratings of the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others belonging to such ships and vessels of war; and upon request, forthwith to grant a certificate of the truth of any list transmitted to them, to the agents nominated and appointed by the captors to take care and dispose of such prize; and also upon application to them (the said Commissioners) to give, or cause to be given, to the said agents, all such lists from the muster books of any such ships of war and annexed lists, as the said agents shall find requisite for their direction in paying the produce of such prizes; and otherwise to be aiding and assisting to the said agents, in all such matters as shall be necessary.

We do hereby further will and direct, that the following regulations shall be observed concerning the one third part of the two eighths hereinbefore mentioned to be granted to the flag or flag officers who shall actually be on board at the taking of any prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein.

First—That a captain of a ship shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag, when he shall actually have received some order directly from, or be acting in execution of some order issued by a flag officer; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer from the time that he arrives within the limits of the station, and shall be considered to continue under the command of the flag officer of such station until such captain shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in execution of some order issued by some other flag officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Secondly—That a flag officer commander in chief, when there is but one flag officer upon service, shall have to his own use the one third part of the said two eighths of the prizes taken by ships and vessels under his command.

Thirdly—That a flag officer sent to command on any station, shall have a right to share as commander in chief for all prizes taken by ships or vessels employed there from the time he arrives within the limits of such station; but if a junior flag officer be sent to relieve a senior, he shall not be entitled to share as commander in chief in any prizes taken by the squadron, until the command shall be resigned to him, but shall share only as a junior flag officer until he assumes the command.

Fourthly—That a commander in chief or other flag officer, appointed or belonging to any station, and passing through or into any other station, shall not be entitled to share in any prize taken out of the limits of the station to which he is appointed or belongs; by any ship or vessel under the command of a flag officer of any other station, or under Admiralty orders.

Fifthly—That when an inferior flag officer is sent to reinforce a superior flag officer on any station, the superior flag officer shall have no right to any share of prizes taken by the inferior flag officer, before the inferior flag officer shall arrive within the limits of the station, or shall actually receive some order directly from him, or be acting in execution of some order issued by him. And such inferior flag officer shall be entitled to his proportion of all captures made by the squadron, which he is sent to reinforce, from the time he shall arrive within the limits of the command of such superior flag officer.

Sixthly—That a chief flag officer quitting a station either to return home, or to assume another command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent service with the intention of returning to the station as soon as such service is performed, shall have no share of prizes taken by the ships or vessels left behind after he shall have surrendered the command to another flag officer appointed by the Admiralty to be commander in chief of such station; or after he shall have passed the limits of the station, in the event of his leaving the command without being superseded.

Seventhly—That an inferior flag officer quitting a station, when detached by orders of his commander in chief out of the limits thereof, upon a special service with orders to return to such station as soon as such service is performed, shall have no share in prizes taken by the ships and vessels remaining on the station, after he shall have passed the limits thereof; and in like manner the flag officers remaining on the station shall have no share of the prizes taken by such inferior flag officer, or by the ships and vessels under his immediate command, after he shall have quitted the limits of the station, except when detached as aforesaid.

Eighthly—That when vessels under the command of a flag, which belong to separate stations, shall happen to be joint captors, the captain of each ship shall pay one third of the share, to which he is entitled, to the flag officers of the station to which he belongs; but the captains of vessels under Admiralty orders, being joint captors with other vessels under a flag, shall retain the whole of their share.

Ninthly—That if a flag officer is sent to command in any of the out ports of this kingdom, he shall have no share of the prizes taken by ships or vessels which have sailed, or shall sail from that port by order from the Admiralty.

Tenthly—That when more flag officers than one serve together, the one third part of the two eighth parts of the prizes taken by any ships or vessels of the fleet or squadron shall be divided in the following proportions; videlicet, if there be but two flag officers, the chief shall have two third parts of the said third of two eighths, and the other shall have the remaining third part: but if the number of flag officers be more than two, the chief shall have only one half, and the other half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers.

Eleventhly—That commodores with captains under them shall be esteemed as flag officers with respect to the one third of the two eighth parts of prizes taken, whether commanding in chief or serving under command.

Twelfthly—That the first captain to the admiral and commander in chief of His Majesty's fleet, and also the first captain to a flag officer appointed or hereafter to be appointed to command a fleet or squadron of ten or more ships of the line of battle, shall be deemed and taken to be a flag officer, and shall be entitled to a part or share of prizes as the junior flag officer of such fleet or squadron.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS divers marines, now serving in His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited period of seven years, provided His Majesty should so long require their service, and also for such further term, not exceeding six months, as should be directed by the Commanding Officer on any foreign station, and not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty, provided always, that in the latter case the additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any Definitive Treaty, should have elapsed subsequent to the expiration of the said seven years; and whereas the recommencement of hostilities renders it expedient to exercise the power vested in His Majesty of enlarging such limited period of service, We have therefore thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, direct, that all marines now serving in His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, who have been enlisted as aforesaid, shall continue to serve therein for the term of three years after the expiration of such limited period of seven years; provided always, that the said additional period shall determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any Definitive Treaty, shall have elapsed subsequent to the expiration of such limited period of service.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-first day of June, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

Carlton-House, July 5, 1815.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common-Council and Officers of the Corporation of London, waited upon the Prince Regent with the following Address, which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, of the city of London in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the sincerest affection to your Royal Person, and with the warmest congratulations upon the glorious victory obtained by the Allied army on the 18th of June, under the command of Field-Marshal the Duke of Wellington.

At a period when the tumults of war had subsided and peace had begun to shed invaluable blessings over long contending and hostile nations, it was with indignation and horror we beheld the return of that person who had been the dreadful scourge of Europe, from an obscurity, in which the stipulations of a solemn treaty, had bound him to continue.

We observed with grief that on his re-appearance the lawful Sovereign of France was compelled by a rebellious and faithless soldiery to leave his capital and to take refuge in the Netherlands.

We felt assured that the relations of peace and amity which had been so recently entered into by your Royal Highness, in the name of our beloved Sovereign, could not be maintained with this daring Usurper, who had repeatedly manifested, that no treaty was held sacred by him longer than suited the purposes of his ambition or revenge, who had constantly evinced the deepest hatred of the British name and character; and with whom His Majesty's allies had unanimously declared the impossibility of making any engagements in the relations of peace and concord.

Under these difficult circumstances we beheld with the highest satisfaction the wisdom of your Royal Highness, in appointing to the chief command of His Majesty's armies on the continent, that Illustrious Hero who had so often led them to conquest and to glory.

It is with the most heartfelt joy we contemplate the late victory, as affording another leaf to the page of history, by recording further magnificent deeds to enhance the honour and grandeur of the British empire, in which will be seen that a greatly superior force of the veteran armies of France, commanded by Napoleon Buonaparte, could not withstand the irresistible bravery of British heroes, when guided by a Wellington, aided by a Blücher.

It is with the deepest sorrow we lament the fall of a large portion of these brave defenders of the liberties of Europe, and particularly of an Illustrious Member of Your Royal Highness's family, who had ever evinced the characteristic gallantry of a Prince of the House of Brunswick; but we trust the issue of this great event affords a well-grounded hope, that the power of the Usurper will be destroyed, and the peace of Europe established upon the most solid foundation.

We shall continue to place our humble reliance on the Divine goodness, that these results may speedily take place, and that the glory, the peace, and the prosperity of this united kingdom, under the government of Your Royal Highness, and a long line of succeeding Princes of Your Royal Highness's Illustrious House, may endure until the latest period of time.

We have only further to entreat your Royal Highness to be assured of the continued zeal, loyalty and affection of His Majesty's faithful Citizens of London, to support your Royal Highness in bringing this great contest to a speedy and happy termination.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe:

To which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I receive, with the greatest satisfaction, this loyal and dutiful Address.

"By the favour of Divine Providence, the first operations of the Allied Armies on the Continent have been attended with the most signal and decisive success, and we may confidently trust that the high military reputation which this country has acquired by the undaunted valour and consummate discipline of our troops, and the transcendent genius and heroic example of the great Commander who has constantly led them to victory, will afford one of the most important securities for the future tranquillity and independance of Europe.

"I deeply lament with you the extent of private calamity occasioned by the loss of many valuable officers and men in the late unexampled contest, and I feel most sensibly the manner in which you have adverted to an illustrious Member of the House of Brunswick, who closed, on that memorable occasion, a career of honour with a death of glory.

"To the surviving relatives of those who have fallen, it must be a soothing reflection, that they have perished in a just and noble cause, and that the memory of their splendid and inestimable services will be cherished with admiration and gratitude to the latest posterity.

"I have a perfect reliance on the steadfast loyalty and public spirit of the Citizens of London, and on your assurance of support in such exertions as may be necessary to bring this most important contest to a speedy and happy termination."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing the hand of His Royal Highness.

PROCLAMATION

FROM

HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, May 20, 1815.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are, at this time, several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land services who might be induced to return to their duty, by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and, that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour; His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 20th day of July next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field-Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof, or, to the Commandant of

Newcastle-under-Line.
Nottingham.
Gloucester.
Aylesbury.
Chelmsford.
Taunton.
Andover.
Edinburgh.
Glasgow.
Aberdeen.

Albany Barracks in the Isle of Wight, or, to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain.

Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as

His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps, to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and are now serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers on or before the said 20th day of July next, and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate, to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness, such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate, or, to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself, if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those, who have already committed that offence, ought to feel, that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

War-Office, June 13, 1815.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, doth hereby require and command, that all the out-pensioners of Chelsea-Hospital, residing in Great Britain, including Wales, who were discharged from their respective corps as privates, whether from the Regular Cavalry, Foot Guards, or Infantry of the Line, or from the Militia or Fencibles, do personally appear at the places and on the days hereinafter mentioned (with the exception of those resident in London, or within twenty-five miles thereof, who have already been ordered to appear before the Commissioners of the said Hospital), in order that such of them, as on examination shall be found fit, may be appropriated to a Royal Veteran Battalion. His Royal Highness is, however, pleased to direct, that the present order shall not be considered as extending to the out-pensioners from the late Horse Guards and Horse Grenadier Guards, the Life Guards, and Royal Regiment of Horse Guards; nor to such men as, by the Hospital books, are now more than fifty-five years of age, or had served twenty-four years in the cavalry, or twenty-one years in the infantry, previous to their discharges; nor to those whose pensions are above one shilling per diem each; nor to those who have lost a limb or their eye-sight, or are cripples, or who received a certificate of their total unfitness for further service from any of the Officers employed at the last general examination of out-pensioners in the year 1813; nor to such out-pensioners as are now serving in the Regular Militia or Local Militia as Non-Commissioned Officers.

Alderney, Guernsey—At St. Peter's, Guernsey, 9th and 10th July 1815.

Jersey—At St. Helier's, 9th and 10th July 1815.

North Britain—At such places, and on such days, as shall be prescribed by the General Officer commanding His Majesty's forces in that country.

His Royal Highness is at the same time graciously pleased to declare, that the said private men who, upon examination, shall be found fit for service, shall receive the sum of one shilling and ten pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes until their arrival at the examining station, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, and be afterwards subsisted until allotted to a veteran battalion, at the rate of one shilling per diem for pay, one penny per diem for beer-money, and one penny per diem in lieu of the extra price of bread and meat.

His Royal Highness is also pleased to order, that every man found fit for duty shall, on his joining the veteran battalion to which he shall be appointed, receive a bounty of one pound five shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper necessaries; and it is His Royal Highness's gracious intention, that every such man whose pension is now less than nine-pence per diem, shall be entitled, when discharged, to that increased rate of out-pension, provided he be recommended by his Colonel or Commanding Officer as an object deserving of His Majesty's royal bounty.

It is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the men who, upon examination, shall be found unfit for any duty, shall be dismissed, and be settled with at the rate of one shilling and ten-pence per diem each, from the time of their leaving their respective homes, until their arrival at the examining stations, calculating the same at the rate of ten miles for a day's march, receiving also the like allowance to carry them back to their homes; and that while detained for examination, they shall receive the same pay and allowances as the men found fit for duty.

And it is hereby notified, that all the out-pensioners hereby called upon to attend, who shall not appear at the times and places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as dead, and will accordingly be struck off the books of the out-pension of the said Hospital, without any prospect of being restored thereto.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

Whitehall, July 8, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to order a congé d'elire to pass the Great Seal, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Gloucester, to elect a Bishop to that see, void by the translation of the Right Reverend Father in God George Isaac, late Bishop thereof, to the see of Hereford; and His Royal Highness has also been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter the Honourable Henry Ryder, Doctor in Divinity, to be by them elected Bishop of the said see of Gloucester.

Whitehall, July 7, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, taking into His royal consideration, the signal services of Sir John Byng, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Major-General in the Army, on divers important occasions during the recent arduous operations in the Peninsula and in France, and being desirous of conferring upon him such a mark of His Majesty's royal favour as may, in an especial manner, evince His royal approbation of the signal intrepidity, and heroic valour displayed by him, in the action fought at Mouguerre, near Bayonne, on the 13th December 1813, wherein he led his troops, under a most galling fire, to the assault of a strong height occupied in great force by the enemy, and having himself ascended the hill first, with the colour of the 31st regiment of foot in his hand, he planted the colour upon the summit and drove the enemy (far superior in numbers) down the ridge to the suburb of St. Pierre, hath been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto the said Major-General, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he and his descendants may bear the following honourable augmentation, viz. "over the arms of the family of Byng, in bend sinister, a representation of the colour of the 31st regiment of foot," and the following crest of honourable augmentation, viz. "out of a mural crown an arm embowed, grasping the colour of the aforesaid 31st regiment, and pendent from the wrist by a ribband the gold cross presented to him by His Majesty's command, as a mark of His royal approbation of his distinguished services," and in an escrol above "MOUGUERRE;" provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and especial mark of His Majesty's favour, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 1, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Sir John Campbell, Knight, a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army and Colonel of the 4th Regiment of Portuguese Cavalry, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince of Brazil Prince Regent of Portugal, has been pleased to honour the said Sir John Campbell, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by him in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that His Majesty's concession and especial mark of the royal favour, may, together with the relative documents, be registered in the College of Arms.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 6, 1815.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are copies, have been this day received by Earl Bathurst, from Field Marshal His Grace the Duke of Wellington, dated Louvres, 30th June, and Gonnasse, 2d July 1815.

MY LORD, Louvres, June 30, 1815.

I HAVE now the honour of inclosing to your Lordship, the returns of killed and wounded of the army, on the 16th, 17th, and 18th; lists of officers, &c.

Brigadier-General Harding, who was employed by me with the Prussian army, is not included in these returns; but he received a severe wound in the battle of the 16th, and has lost his left hand. He had conducted himself during the time he was so employed, in such a manner as to obtain the approbation of Marshal Prince Blucher and the officers at the Prussian head-quarters, as well as mine, and I greatly regret his misfortune.

I have the honour to be, &c. &c.

(Signed) WELLINGTON.

JOHN WATERS, Lieut.-Col. and Assistant Adjutant-General.

MEM. The names of the officers killed and wounded, were inserted in the Supplement to the London Gazette, of the 1st of July, published the 3d July 1815.

The men returned missing had gone to the rear with wounded officers and soldiers, and the greatest number have since joined. The officers are supposed killed.

ERRATA in the Supplement to the London Gazette, published on Monday July 3, 1815.

Omitted in the return of officers killed, Captain Newton Chambers, 1st Foot Guards, A. D. C. to Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Picton.

Omitted in the return of officers wounded, Lieutenant Colonel Lord Fitzroy Somerset, Military Secretary to the Duke of Wellington, severely, right arm amputated.

MY LORD, Gonaese, July 2, 1815.

I HAVE the honour to inclose the report of Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Colville, upon his attack of Cambray, which affords a strong proof of the gallantry and exertions of our troops.

I have the honour to be, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) WELLINGTON.

MY LORD, Gony, June 26, 1815.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL Sir N. Campbell (Major of 54th regiment) having asked my leave to go to head-quarters to request your Grace's permission to return to England, I beg leave to take the opportunity of mentioning, that I feel much obliged to him for his conduct in closing, in the town of Cambray, with the light companies of M. General Johnson's brigade, and in leading one of the columns of attack.

The one which he commanded escalated, at the angle formed (on our right side) by the Valenciennes gateway, and the curtain of the body of the place.

A second, commanded by Colonel Sir William Douglas, of the 91st regiment, and directed by Lieutenant Gilbert, Royal Engineers, took advantage of the reduced height in that part of the escarpe (which, on an average, is on that side about fifty-five feet) by placing their ladders on a covered communication from this place, to a large ravelin near the Amiens road.*

The Valenciennes gate was broken open by Sir N. Campbell, and draw bridges let down in about half an hour, when on entering the town, I found that the attack made by Colonel Mitchell's brigade, on the side of the Paris gate had also succeeded; the one directed by Captain Sharpe, Royal Engineers, forced the outer gates of the Corre Port in the Horn work and passed both ditches, by means of the rails of the draw bridges, which they scrambled over by the side, not being able to force the main gate they escalated by the breach (the state of which your Grace had observed) in the morning, and before which, although the ditch was said to have twelve feet water, a footing on dry ground was found, by wading through a narrow port in the angle of the gate, within the rampart. I have every reason to be satisfied with the light infantry of the division, who, by their fire, covered the attacks of the parties, of sixty men each, which preceded the column.

The three brigades of artillery of Lieutenant Colonel Webber Smith, and Majors Knott and Browne, under the direction of Lieutenant-Colonel Hawker, made particularly good practice, and immediately silenced the fire of the enemy's artillery, except from two guns on each flank of the citadel, which could not be got at, and two field pieces on the ramparts of the town, above the Valenciennes gate, and which played upon the troops as they debouched from the cover they had been posted in. Twenty prisoners were made at the horn work of the Paris gate, and about an hundred and thirty altogether in the town. Their fire was very slack, and even that, I foresaw, they were forced to, by the garrison of the citadel. I left the 23rd and 91st regiments in town, with two guns and a troop of Ensdorff hussars, and am much indebted to Sir William Douglas and Colonel Dalmer for their assistance in preserving order.

Some depredations were committed, but of no consequence, when the circumstances we entered by are considered.

From the division as well as my personal staff, I received every assistance in the course of the three days operations.

I am, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES COLVILLE.

MY LORD, Gonaese, July 2, 1815.

I HAVE the honour to enclose the returns of the killed and wounded in the assault and taking of the towns of Cambray and Peronne.

I am, &c. &c.

(Signed) WELLINGTON.

July 3, 1815.

Irish Life Annuity-Office, No. 15, Bridge-Street, Blackfriars.

Notice is hereby given, that payment of the half-yearly dividends, due at Midsummer last, together with all arrears due to that period, will commence on Tuesday the 18th instant, from which day the Office will continue open for payment of the same, from the hour of ten in the forenoon to the hour of two in the afternoon, on every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday (Bank holidays excepted). The debentures are to be produced, and also certificates of the lives of the nominees, containing the names and descriptions of the nominees as in the debentures, and their present residence, otherwise a personal appearance of the nominee will be required. And it is particularly requested, that, on the demise of the nominee, the debentures may be delivered in, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the lists of deaths complete, for the future benefit and regulation of each class; and, as it is expedient that the earliest information should be obtained of the occurrences which affect a reversionary property, where so many individuals are concerned, it is further requested of all persons, who may discover any fraud or imposition on these annuities, to give notice thereof with all convenient speed. The public are requested to take notice, that, by the Act of Parliament providing for the payment of these annuities, all persons neglecting to demand the same for the space of three years, shall forever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective nominees had been dead at the commencement of the said three years.

Exchequer Bill Office, July 6, 1815.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Months of May and June 1814, viz. Supply 1814, £5,600,000, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 39; on the Credit of Aids 1814, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 39.

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Wednesday the 26th day of July instant, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Thursday the 20th of July instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 26th of July instant inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 20th day of July instant, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and Leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Thursday the 20th instant, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 26th day of July instant, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Thursday the 27th day of July instant, and the following days.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to May 1814, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.
