

Whitehall, July 7, 1815.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Brown, of the town of Brecon, in the county of Brecon, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Navy-Office, July 8, 1815.

BY His Majesty's Order in Council, dated 20th September 1809, a plan of education was established at the Royal Naval College at His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, for a superior class of apprentices to shipwrights, and it being determined that two more students shall be admitted; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that the examination of candidates will take place in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, on the 1st November next, at eight o'clock in the morning; and that such persons as may be desirous of becoming candidates for admission, are required to send notice of their intention to the Navy Board, or the Commissioner of the aforesaid Yard, on or before the 27th day of October.

The candidates must be at least fifteen, and not more than seventeen years of age.

The plan of education may be obtained on application at the Navy-Office, or the Office of the Commissioner of any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards; where also information may be obtained as to the nature of the qualifications required of the candidates, the documents they are to produce on the day of examination, the salaries they will be allowed on being admitted students, and of the offices to which they will be eligible after they have served the term of apprenticeship.

J. W. Morton, for the Secretary.

Shoreham Bridge Tolls or Life Annuities, with benefit of Survivorship, granted pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the Twenty-first Year of His present Majesty, for building a Bridge over the River Adur, at or near Old Shoreham, in the County of Sussex.

NOtice is hereby given, that the subscribers to the said bridge may receive their dividends arising from the tolls up to the 24th day of June last, by applying to the Treasurer, William Goringe, Esq. of Kingston, near New Shoreham, or at the Old Bank, Brighton, on or after the 29th day of September next.

A certificate of the life of the nominee must be produced at the time of receiving the dividend, unless the nominee appear in person.

The subscribers are desired to take notice, that if any person entitled to receive any share of the said dividends neglects to demand the same for three years or more, next after the same shall become due, every such person forfeits the arrears of the share so neglected to be demanded, and the same is to be divided amongst the persons entitled to the dividends in the same class.

By order of the Trustees,

T. Attree, Clerk.
