PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty is engaged, in concert with His Allies, in a just and necessary war against France; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that general reprisals be granted against the ships, goods, and subjects of France, subject to such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare; so that as well His Majesty's fleets and ships, as also all other ships and vessels that shall be commissioned by letters of marque or general reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all ships, vessels, and goods belonging to France, or to any persons being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories of France, saving always such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare; and bring the same to judgment in such Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions as shall be duly commissioned to take cognizance thereof; and to that end, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the draught of a commission, and present the same to His Royal Highness at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any person or persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant letters of marque and reprisals to any of His Majesty's subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the ships, vessels, and goods belonging to France, or to any person being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories of France, saving always such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare; and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said commission as have been usual; and are according to former precedents: And His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the draught of a commission, and present the same to His Royal Highness at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions, which shall be duly commissioned, to take cognizance of and judicially proceed upon all and all manner of captures, seizures, prizes, and reprisals of all ships and goods that are or shall be made; and to hear and determine the same, and according to the course of Admiralty, and the laws of nations, to adjudge and condemn all such ships, vessels, and goods as shall belong to France, or to any persons being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories of France, saving always such exceptions as His Royal Highness may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, and that such powers and clauses be inserted in the said commission as have been usual, and are according to former precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Royal Highness at this Board, such instructions as may be proper to be sent to the said several Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign governments and plantations, for their guidance herein; as also another draught of instructions for such ships as shall be commissioned for the purposes abovementioned.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes, during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the twenty-first day of June instant, We have ordered that general reprisals be granted against the ships, goods, and subjects of France, subject to such exceptions as His Majesty may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare, so that as well the fleets and ships of His Majesty as also all other ships and vessels that shall be commissioned by letters of marque or general reprisals, or otherwise by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all ships, vessels, and goods belonging to the Government of France, or to any persons being subjects of France, or inhabiting within any of the territories thereof (saving always such exceptions as His Majesty may at any time or times hereafter be pleased to declare), and bring the same to judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's dominions duly authorised and required to take cognizance thereof, We being desirous to give due encouragement to His Majesty's faithful subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council by Our Order of the twenty-first of June instant Our intentions concerning the distributions of all manner of captures, seizures, prizes, and reprisals of all ships and goods during the present hostilities (subject to the exceptions herein-before reserved), do now make known to all His Majesty's loving subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Privy Council, that Our will and pleasure is, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the net produce of all prizes taken (subject to the exceptions herein-before reserved), the right whereof is inherent in His Majesty and His Crown, be given to the takers (save also the produce of such prizes as are or shall be taken by ships or vessels belonging to or hired by or in the service of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise; the disposition of which We reserve to Our further pleasure, and also save and except as herein-after mentioned), but subject to the payment of all such or like customs and duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as merchandise, and that the same may be so given in the proportion and manner herein-after set forth; that is to say,

That all prizes taken by ships and vessels having commissions of letters of marque and reprisals (save and except such prizes as are or shall be taken by the ships or vessels belonging to or hired by or in the service of the Commissioners aforesaid), may be sold and disposed of by the merchants, owners, fitters, and others, to whom such letters of marque and reprisals are granted, for their own use and benefit, after final adjudication, and not before.

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the net produce of all prizes which are or shall be taken by any of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjunct expedition with His Majesty's land forces, in which case We reserve to Ourselves the division and distribution of all prizes and booty taken; and also save and except as herein-after mentioned) shall be for the entire benefit and encouragement of the flag officers, captains, commanders, and other commissioned officers in His Majesty's pay, and of the seamen, marines, and soldiers on board His Majesty's said ships and vessels at the time of the capture; and that such prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their agents, after the same shall have been finally adjudged lawful prize to His Majesty, and not otherwise.

The distribution shall be made as follows:—the whole of the net produce being first divided into eight equal parts.

The captain or captains of any of His Majesty's said ships or vessels of war or officer commanding such ship or vessel, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any prize, shall have two eighth parts; but in case any such prize shall be taken by any of His Majesty's said ships or vessels of war under the command of a flag or flags, the flag officer or officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the capture, shall have one third of the said two eighth parts; the said one third of such two eighth parts to be paid to such flag or flag officers in such proportions and subject to such regulations as are herein-after mentioned.

The sea lieutenants, captains of marines, and land forces, and master on board shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them: but every physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to a fleet or squadron of His Majesty's ships of war, shall, in the distribution of prizes which may hereafter be taken by the ships in which he shall serve, or in which such ship's company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the before-mentioned officers with respect to one eighth part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such physician be actually on board at the time of taking such prizes.

The lieutenants and quarter-masters of marines, and lieutenants, ensigns, and quarter-masters of land forces, secretaries of, admirals, or of commodores with captains under them, second masters of line of battle ships, surgeons, chaplains, pursers, gunners, boatswains, carpenters, master's mates, and pilots on board, shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The other four eighth parts of the prize to be divided into shares and distributed to the persons composing the remaining part of the crew, in the following proportions; videlicet, To the first class of petty officers, namely, the midshipmen, surgeons' assistants, secretaries' clerks, captains' clerks, schoolmasters, masters at arms, captains' coxswains, gunners' mates, yeomen of the powder-room, boatswains' mates, yeomen of the sheets, carpenters' mates, quarter-masters' mates, ships' corporals, captains of the fore-castle, master sail-makers, master caulkers, master rope-makers, armourers, serjeants of marines and land forces, four and a half shares each.

To the second class of petty officers; videlicet, midshipmen, ordinary captains of the foretop, captains of the maintop, captains of the after-guard, captains of the mast, sail-makers' mates, caulkers' mates, armourers' mates, ship's cook, corporals of marines and of land forces, three shares each.

The quarter gunners, carpenter's crew, sail-maker's crew, coxswain's mates, yeomen of the boat-swain's store-room, gun-smiths, coopers, trumpeters, able seamen, ordinary seamen, drummers, private marines, and other soldiers, if doing duty on board in lieu of marines, one and a half share each.

The landmen, admiral's domestics, and all other ratings not above enumerated, together with all passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries, and doing duty and assisting on board, one share each, excepting officers acting by order, who are to receive the share of that rank in which they shall be acting.

And young gentlemen, volunteers by order, and the boys of every description, half a share each.

And We do hereby further order, that in case of cutters, schooners, brigs, and other armed vessels commanded by lieutenants, the distribution shall be as follows: First, that the share of each lieutenant shall be two eighth parts of the prize, unless such lieutenants shall be under the command of a flag officer or officers, in which case the flag officer or officers shall have one third of the said two eighths to be divided amongst such flag officer or officers, in the same manner as herein directed in the case of captains serving under flag officers.

Secondly—We direct that the share of the sub-lieutenant, master, and pilot, shall be one eighth; if there be all three such persons on board, to be divided into four parts, two parts to be taken by the sub-lieutenant, one part by the master, and one part by the pilot; if there be only two such persons on board, then the eighth to be divided into three parts, of which two thirds shall go to the person second in command, and one third to the other person; if there be only a sub-lieutenant or a master, and no pilot, then the sub-lieutenant or master to take the whole eighth; if there be only a pilot, then such pilot to have one half of the eighth, and the other half, to go to Greenwich-Hospital.

Thirdly—That the share of the surgeon, or surgeon's assistant, (where there is no surgeon), midshipmen, clerk, and steward, shall be one eighth.

Fourthly—That the remaining four eighths shall be divided into shares, and distributed to the other part of the crew, in the following proportions, viz. the gunners, boatswains, and carpenter's mates, yeomen of the sheets, sail-maker, quarter-master, and quarter-masters' mates, and serjeants of marines, to receive four and a half shares each.

The corporals of marines, three shares each.

The able seamen, ordinary seamen, and marines, one and a half share each.

The landmen, together with passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries, doing duty and assisting on board, to receive one share each.

Boys of all descriptions, half a share each.

But it is Our intention, nevertheless, that the above distribution shall only extend to such captures as shall be made by any cutter, schooner, brig, or armed vessel, without any of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war being present, or within sight of, and adding to the encouragement of the captors, and terror of the enemy; but in case any such ships or vessels of war shall be present or in sight, that then the officers, pilots, petty officers, and men on board such cutters, schooners, brig, or armed vessels, shall share in the same proportion as is allowed to persons of the like rank and denomination on board of His Majesty's ships and vessels of war, the sub-lieutenant and master to be considered as warrant officers; and such cutters, schooners, brigs, or armed vessels shall not, in respect to such captures, convey any interest or share to the flag officer or officers under whose orders such cutters, schooners, brigs, and armed vessels may happen to be.

And whereas it may be judged expedient, during the present hostilities, to hire into His Majesty's service armed vessels to be employed as cruisers against the enemy, which vessels are the property of, and the masters and crews are paid by the owners of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by commissioned officers in His Majesty's pay; it is Our further will and pleasure, that the neat produce of all prizes taken by such hired armed vessels (except as hereinafter mentioned) shall be for the benefit of such commissioned officers in His Majesty's pay, and of the masters and crews on board the said hired armed vessels at the time of the capture, and that such prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their agents, after the same shall have been to His Majesty finally adjudged lawful prize, and not otherwise; the distribution whereof shall be as follows:

The whole of the neat produce being divided into eight equal parts, the officer commanding any hired armed vessel aforesaid, who shall be actually on board at the taking of any prize, shall have two eighths; but in case such hired armed vessel shall be under the command of a flag or flags, the flag officer or officers being actually on board, or directing or assisting in the capture, shall have one third of the said two eighth parts, the said one third of the two eighth parts to be paid to such flag or flag officers in such proportion, and subject to such regulations as are herein-after mentioned. In case there be acting on board such hired armed vessel, besides the officer commanding the same, one or more commissioned sea lieutenants in His Majesty's pay, such lieutenant or lieutenants shall take one eighth; one eighth shall belong to the master and mate, of which the master shall take two thirds and the mate one third; but in case there shall be acting on board such hired armed vessel one or more midshipmen, in that case the master shall take one half of the eighth, and the other shall be divided equally between the mate and midshipmen; the remaining four eighth parts shall belong to, and, being divided into shares, be distributed among the other petty officers, men, and boys, in the same proportion as herein-before directed with respect to the division of prize money in His Majesty's ships of war. And in the case of prizes taken by any hired armed vessel, not commanded by any of His Majesty's commissioned officers, one eighth shall belong to the flag officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such hired armed vessel shall be under the command of a flag: one eighth shall belong to the master and mate, of which the master shall take two thirds and the mate one third.—Four eighths shall belong to and be divided among the petty officers and crew in manner aforesaid. The surplus, the distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our disposal, and if not disposed of within a year after final adjudication, the same shall belong to and be paid to Greenwich Hospital; and in the case of prizes taken jointly by any of His Majesty's ships of war or any hired armed vessel, His Majesty's commissioned officer or officers on board such hired armed vessel shall share with the commissioned officer or officers of the same rank on board His Majesty's ship or ships of war, being joint captors; the master of such hired armed vessel shall share with the warrant officers; the mate of such hired armed vessel with the first class of petty officers; and the seamen, landmen, and boys of such hired armed vessel with persons of the same description on board His Majesty's said ship or ships of war; save and except that in case such hired armed vessel shall be commanded by one of His Majesty's commissioned officers, having the rank of master and commander, and there shall be none of His Majesty's lieutenants on board, or in case such hired armed vessel shall be commanded by the master, in both those cases the master of such hired armed vessel shall share with the lieutenants of His Majesty's ships of war, and the mate with the warrant officers; and in case any difficulty shall arise in respect to the said distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same force and effect as if herein inserted.

Provided, that if any officer being on board any of His Majesty's ships of war at the time of taking any prize, shall have more commissioned officers than one, such officer shall be entitled only to share or shares of the prizes which, according to the abovementioned distribution, shall belong to his superior commission or office.

Provided also, that in all prizes taken by any of His Majesty's squadrons, ships, or vessels, while acting in conjunction with any squadron, ship, or vessel, of any other powers that may be in alliance with His Majesty, a share of such prizes shall be set apart, and be at Our further disposal, equal to that share which the flag and other officers and crews of such squadron, ships, or vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to His Majesty.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all commanders of His Majesty's ships and vessels of war taking any prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of the Navy, a true list of the names of all the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others who were actually on board His Majesty's ships and vessels of war under their command at the time of the capture; which list shall contain the quality of the service of each person on board, together with the description of the men, taken from the description books of the capturing ship or ships, and their several ratings; and be subscribed by the captain or commanding officer, and three or more of the chief officers on board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of the Navy, or any three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such lists by the muster books of such ships and vessels of war and lists annexed thereto, to see that such lists do agree with such muster books and annexed lists, as to the names, qualities, or ratings of the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others belonging to such ships and vessels of war; and upon request, forthwith to grant a certificate of the truth of any list transmitted to them, to the agents nominated and appointed by the captors to take care and dispose of such prize; and also upon application to them (the said Commissioners) to give, or cause to be given, to the said agents, all such lists from the muster books of any such ships of war and annexed lists, as the said agents shall find requisite for their direction in paying the produce of such prizes; and otherwise to be aiding and assisting to the said agents, in all such matters as shall be necessary.

We do hereby further will and direct, that the following regulations shall be observed concerning the one third part of the two eighths hereinbefore mentioned to be granted to the flag or flag officers who shall actually be on board at the taking of any prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein.

First.—That a captain of a ship shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag, when he shall actually have received some order directly from, or be acting in execution of some order issued by a flag officer; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer from the time that he arrives within the limits of the station, and shall be considered to continue under the command of the flag officer of such station until such captain shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in execution of some order issued by some other flag officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Secondly—That a flag officer commander in chief, when there is but one flag officer upon service, shall have to his own use the one third part of the said two eighths of the prizes taken by ships and vessels under his command.

Thirdly—That a flag officer sent to command on any station, shall have a right to share as commander in chief for all prizes taken by ships or vessels employed there from the time he arrives within the limits of such station; but if a junior flag officer be sent to relieve a senior, he shall not be entitled to share as commander in chief in any prizes taken by the squadron, until the command shall be resigned to him, but shall share only as a junior flag officer until he assumes the command.

Fourthly—That a commander in chief or other flag officer, appointed or belonging to any station, and passing through or into any other station, shall not be entitled to share in any prize taken out of the limits of the station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any ship or vessel under the command of a flag officer of any other station, or under Admiralty orders.

Fifthly—That when an inferior flag officer is sent to relieve a superior flag officer on any station, the superior flag officer shall have no right to any share of prizes taken by the inferior flag officer, before the inferior flag officer shall arrive within the limits of the station, or shall actually receive some order directly from him, or be acting in execution of some order issued by him. And such inferior flag officer shall be entitled to his proportion of all captures made by the squadron, which he is sent to reinforce, from the time he shall arrive within the limits of the command of such superior flag officer.

Sixthly—That a chief flag officer quitting a station either to return home, or to assume another command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent service with the intention of returning to the station as soon as such service is performed, shall have no share of prizes taken by the ships or vessels left behind after he shall have surrendered the command to another flag officer appointed by the Admiralty to be commander in chief of such station; or after he shall have passed the limits of the station, in the event of his leaving the command without being superseded.

Seventhly—That an inferior flag officer quitting a station, when detached by orders of his commander in chief out of the limits thereof, upon a special service with orders to return to such station, as soon as such service is performed, shall have no share in prizes taken by the ships and vessels remaining on the station, after he shall have passed the limits thereof; and in like manner the flag officers remaining on the station shall have no share of the prizes taken by such inferior flag officer, or by the ships and vessels under his immediate command, after he shall have quit the limits of the station, except when detached as aforesaid.

Eighthly—That when vessels under the command of a flag, which belong to separate stations, shall happen to be joint captors, the captain of each ship shall pay one third of the share, to which he is entitled, to the flag officers of the station to which he belongs; but the captains of vessels under Admiralty orders, being joint captors with other vessels under a flag, shall retain the whole of their share.

Ninthly—That if a flag officer is sent to command in any of the out ports of this kingdom, he shall have no share of the prizes taken by ships or vessels which have sailed, or shall sail from that port by order from the Admiralty.

Tenthly—That when more flag officers than one serve together, the one third part of the two eighth parts of the prizes taken by any ships or vessels of the fleet or squadron shall be divided in the following proportions; videlicet, if there be but two flag officers, the chief shall have two third parts of the said third of two eighths, and the other shall have the remaining third part; but if the number of flag officers be more than two, the chief shall have only one half, and the other half shall be equally divided among the junior flag officers.

Eleventhly—That commodores with captains under them shall be esteemed as flag officers with respect to the one third of the two eighth parts of prizes taken, whether commanding in chief or serving under command.

Twelfthly—That the first captain to the admiral and commander in chief of His Majesty's fleet, and also the first captain to a flag officer appointed or hereafter to be appointed to command a fleet or squadron of ten or more ships of the line of battle, shall be deemed and taken to be a flag officer, and shall be entitled to a part or share of prizes as the junior flag officer of such fleet or squadron.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations, for the preservation of His Majesty's Moorings, and for the Mooring, Anchoring, and placing of all Private Ships of War, Transports, and all other private and Merchant Ships and Vessels, Lighters, Barges, Boats, and other Craft whatsoever, in the Harbour of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton, for the purpose of Insuring Free and Safe Ingress, Egress, and Regress, unto, into, to, and from the said Harbour, and to and from His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yard, Arsenals, Wharf and Moorings therein, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 54th year of His Majesty King George the Third, and intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of the several Ports, Harbours, Roadsteads, Sounds, Channels, Bays, and Navigable Rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yards, Arsenals, Wharfs, Moorings, and Stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose."

I.

IT is hereby ordered, that no owner, master, or other commanding officer, of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship, or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, nor any pilot, or other person, employed by either of them, shall anchor, or moor, or cause to be anchored, or moored, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge boat, or other craft, in the fair way or channel between the King's Moorings, fixed on the East and West sides of the said Harbour, nor across the stream of any part thereof, until they shall arrive above the North End of the Burrough Shoal, nor shall they remain in such fair way or channel of the said Harbour above such shoal, for a longer time than the weather or other circumstances may render it absolutely necessary, but shall remove and moor such private ships of war, transports, or other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, or other craft, on the outside of such King's Moorings, and between the same and the shores, or the mud's edge, near low water mark, in tiers, head and stern, as close in shore as possible, along the Gosport shore, as far as Carver's Wharf, or above the magazine at Priddy's Hard, on the West shore, and above Fountain Lake, on the East shore; nor shall they anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit any private ship of war, transport or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat or other craft, in the front of, or abreast of His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yard, Timber Pounds, or other premises belonging thereto, or in the ways or passages, leading from the said fair way or channel to such docks, dock-yard, timber pounds, and other premises belonging thereto, and between the same and the King's Moorings on the East side of the said Harbour, from the Southernmost of such moorings, to the North and East Boundaries of the said Dock-yard, nor in the ways or passages leading from the said fair way or channel, to His Majesty's victualling quays and gunwharfs, and the storehouses thereto respectively belonging, nor within the distance of thirty feet from the front of the old, or Southernmost victualling quay, and fifty feet from the South West End of the Northernmost victualling quay, lately part of the new gunwharf, nor within the buoys or piles to be fixed at, or placed in an irregular line between the North corner of the old victualling quay, and the South corner of the South West End of the said other victualling quay, nor within the distance of forty feet from the front of the Southernmost gunwharf, nor within the buoys or piles, to be fixed or placed to ascertain such distances, and continued from thence in an irregular line, until they shall meet the said Southernmost King's Mooring; nor make fast any such private ship of war, transport or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, to any part of the shore, or to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty, within the said Harbour, in the fronts of the said docks, dock-yard, timber pounds, gunwharfs and victualling quays, or other premises belonging to them respectively; nor anchor or moor, so as to swing within any of the said buoys, or piles, nor anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, between the King's moorings and the Gosport shores, on the West side of the said Harbour, from the mooring called the third or flag guard ship mooring, to the North End of the Burrough Shoal (except such as may be consigned to either of His Majesty's Arsenals, which are to anchor only in such situations as shall be directed by the Commissioner residing at such port, or the master attendant, or King's pilots, employed by them), nor in the ways or passages leading from the said fairway or channel to Stoke or Blockhouse Lake and the Royal Hospital at Haslar therein, and to His Majesty's victualling brewery, His Majesty's magazines or powder works at Priddy's Hard, Tipper, and Little Horsey Island, or to any other quays, works, or concerns of His Majesty, in the said Harbour; nor shall they anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, within the distance of ninety yards from the centre of any of His Majesty's moorings, ships, floating magazines, and hulks, on the Western side, or in any other part of the said Harbour, upon pain of the penalties in the said Act mentioned.

II.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from being breamed in any part of the said harbour of Portsmouth, except on the beach at Gosport, at a distance of at least two hundred yards from any of the said moorings or from any of His Majesty's ships of war: And from coming or entering into the said harbour, being laden with, or having on board any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole—And all such gunpowder hereby is appointed to be left and deposited at Blockhouse Fort, on the western side of the entrance of the said harbour, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of this Act.

III.

And it is hereby ordered, that no person or persons shall take any ballast, or shingle, from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of the Port of Portsmouth, between the west side of the entrance of Langston harbour, and the western extremity of His Majesty's lands, or near Brown Down, nor from the shores, or banks of any part of the said harbour of Portsmouth, on any account or pretence whatsoever, without being duly authorised by us, or other sufficient authority of His Majesty's Government, upon pain of the penalties in this Act mentioned.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN BARROW

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations, for the preservation of His Majesty's Moorings, and for the Mooring, Anchoring, and placing of all Private Ships of War, and Transports, and all other private and Merchant Ships and Vessels, Lighters, Barges, Boats and other Craft whatsoever, in the Harbour of Hamoaze, in the County of Devon, for the purpose of insuring free and safe Ingress, Egress, and Regress, unto, into, to, and from His Majesty's Docks, Dock Yard, Arsenal's Wharfs, and Moorings therein, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Third, and intitled, "An Act for the better Regulation of the Several Ports, Harbours, Roadsteads, Sounds, Channels, Bays, and Navigable Rivers in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's Docks, Dock Yards, Arsenal's, Wharfs, Moorings, and Stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose."

I. That no owner, master, or super-commanding officer, of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship, or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, nor any pilot, or other person, employed by either of them, shall anchor or moor, or cause to be anchored or moored, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, in the said Harbour, or in the King's moorings in the said Harbour, or in the said Dock Yards, or in the said Arsenal's, Wharfs, or Moorings, within fifty fathoms of the centers of any of the said moorings, or of His Majesty's ships, floating magazines, and hulks lying thereat, or in the front or abreast of His Majesty's Docks, dock yard, or gunwharf, and between the same and the Eastern line of hulks, or even to drop an anchor within such space and situations, except in case of necessity to prevent damage to herself, or that of the King's ships which may be at the contiguous mooring, and then to remove as soon as possible thereafter: except also in cases where any of the said ships, vessels, or craft, may be consigned to the dock yard, or gunwharf, and must, therefore, necessarily anchor contiguous thereto till they can come to the cranes and wharfs for delivery of their cargoes, and then to be placed in such situations as the Commissioner residing at the port, or the masters attendant, or King's pilots by whom they are conducted, shall direct.

Nor shall any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, be anchored or moored, between the island and main, at a less distance than fifty fathoms to the Southward of the transporting buoy within the said island, or in any place off the East end of the island near the buoy of the Asia Shoal, or between it and the buoy of the Wipier, or near the Fall Way or other transporting buoy in the Sound, neither shall any be made fast to, or be moored, or secured by any of the mooring anchors, or chains to which access can be had when the tide is out, either on the Easttern or Western shore of the said harbour of Hamoaze, or be made fast to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty: within the said Harbour, in the fronts of the said docks, dock yard, or gunwharf, or other premises belonging to them respectively, nor anchor or moor so as to swing within any of the said buoys or piles, upon pain of the penalties for such offences, and all other prohibitions and restrictions herein contained, as the said Act of Parliament directs.

Nor, under pain of the penalties before referred to, shall any private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, be anchored or moored in any place or places within the port of Hamoaze, except on the Eastern side of Stonehouse-Pool, and in extent not coming further to the westward than the King's Slaughterhouse, and in that range to the northward at the mouth of entrance of Milbrook Lake, or to the northward of all His Majesty's moorings. This restriction in regard to the anchorage of merchant-ships, transports, &c. is, however, not intended to exclude such as, trading to the port, must necessarily have admission to the several wharfs, docks, &c. at Matten Cove, North Corner, New Passage, and elsewhere, for loading and unloading their cargoes, and which are generally grounded for such purposes; but all such merchant ships, vessels, lighters, barges, boats, or other craft, are to continue to enjoy their accustomed privileges in this respect, in as full and effectual a manner as if these regulations had not taken effect.

II. All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships, or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from being beached in any part of the said Harbour of Hamoaze, except on the shores of Stonehouse-Pool aforesaid, at Branks Quarry, or to the Northward of the King's moorings; and from coming, or entering, into the said Harbour, being laden with, or having on board, any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight, in the whole. And all such gunpowder is hereby appointed to be left and deposited at a depot established for that purpose on St. Nicholas's Island, at the entrance of the said Harbour, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of the said Act.

III. And it is hereby ordered, that no person or persons shall take any ballast, or shingle, from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of the port and harbour of Hamoaze, on any account or pretence whatsoever, without being duly authorised by us, or other sufficient authority of His Majesty's Government, upon pain of the penalties in this Act mentioned: observing, however, that this regulation is not meant to restrict the raising of the sea sand, for agricultural or other purposes, in the shoal water to the northward of Saint Nicholas Island aforesaid, by the barges and craft which have hitherto been employed thereon, or any other.

By command of their Lordships,
JOHN BARROW.

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations, for the preservation of His Majesty's Moorings, and for the mooring, anchoring, and placing of all private Ships of War, Transports, and all other private and Merchant Ships and Vessels, Lighters, Barges, Boats, and other Craft whatsoever, in the Harbour of Chatham, in the River Medway, in the County of Kent, for the purpose of insuring free and safe ingress, egress, and regress, unto, into, to, and from the said Harbour, and to and from His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yard, Arsenals, Wharfs, and Moorings therein, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Third, and intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of the several Ports, Harbours, Roadsteads, Sounds, Channels, Bays, and Navigable Rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yards, Arsenals, Wharfs, Moorings, and Stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose."

I.

IT is hereby ordered, that no owner, master, or other commanding officer of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, nor any pilot, or other person, employed by either of them, shall anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit, or cause to be anchored, moored, grounded, stranded, run on shore, or deposited, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, within the following limits in the said harbour, viz. "A line from the south point of Limehouse-Reach, across the river, to the south west point of the New Gun Wharf, and a line, from the northern boundary of the Ordnance Land at Upnor, near the New Powder Magazines, in an east direction to the opposite shore;" nor in front of, or abreast of, His Majesty's docks, dock-yard, timber pounds, gun or ordnance wharfs, victualling yard, or other premises or storehouses belonging thereto, unless laden with or going for stores to His Majesty's dock-yard, gun or ordnance wharfs, powder magazines, or victualling yard; nor within the distance of ninety yards from the centre of any of His Majesty's moorings, ships, floating magazines, and hulks, in any part of the said River Medway; nor make fast, or cause to be made fast, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, to any part of the shore, within the limits aforementioned; nor to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty, within the said river, excepting they should be forced so to do, by stress of weather, or other unavoidable accident; in which case they are to remove from thence as soon as possible, upon pain of the penalties in the said Act mentioned.

II.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from being breamed afloat, in any part of the said River Medway, or on the shores of the same, at a less distance than two hundred yards from any of His Majesty's moorings, or ships of war, or within the following limits; viz. "A line from the south point of Limehouse-Reach, across the river, to the south west point of the New Gun Wharf; and a line from the boundary stone, which marks the jurisdiction of the city of London, in a south east direction to the opposite shore. The said boundary stone is situated about six hundred yards northward from the New Powder Magazines at Upnor."

III.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from coming, or entering into the said River Medway, higher than Long-Reach (unless employed and ordered so to do by the Department of the Ordnance, and having a red flag flying), being laden with, or having on board, any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole; and all such gunpowder is hereby appointed to be left and deposited on board the powder ship, lying in Long-Reach, in the said River Medway, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of this Act. A red flag is hoisted on board the said powder ship, thereby signifying to all private ships and vessels, and other craft, that such ship is appointed for the reception of their gunpowder; and the words, "Appointed for the Reception of Gunpowder," are painted in large letters in a conspicuous part of both sides of the said ship.

IV.

And it is hereby ordered, that no person or persons shall take any ballast, or shingle, belonging to His Majesty, from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of the said harbour of Chatham, on any account or pretence whatsoever, without being duly authorised by his or other sufficient authority of His Majesty's Government, upon pain of the penalties in this Act mentioned.

By command of their Lordships,

JOHN BARROW.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

Rules, Orders, and Regulations, for the preservation of His Majesty's Moorings, and for the mooring, anchoring, and placing of all private ships of war, transports, and all other private and Merchant Ships and Vessels, Lighters, Barges, Boats, and other Craft whatsoever in the Harbour at Sheerness, at the Mouth of the River Medway, in the County of Kent, for the Purpose of insuring free and safe ingress, Egress, and Regress, unto, into, to, and from the said Harbour and River, and to and from His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yards, Arsenals, Wharfs, and Moorings therein, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty-Fourth Year of His Majesty King George the Third, and intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of the several Ports, Harbours, Roadsteads, Sounds, Channels, Bays, and navigable Rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's Docks, Dock-Yards, Arsenals, Wharfs, Moorings, and Stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose."

I.

IT is hereby ordered, that no owner, master, or other commanding officer, of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship, or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, nor any pilot, or other person, employed by either of them, shall anchor or moor, or cause to be anchored or moored, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, in the fair way or channel in Sheerness harbour, at the mouth of the river Medway, excepting above the westernmost part of the King's moorings, and below the moorings in Standgate Creek, on the southern shore, and the moorings in Saltpan Reach on the northern shore, and between Cockle-Shell Hard, upon the Island of Grain, and the shore opposite, in a south by west, and north by east direction, where beacons, to mark the line, will be placed on each shore, in those bearings: nor shall they anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit any private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, in the front of, or abreast of His Majesty's docks, dock-yard, timber-pounds, or other premises belonging thereto, or in the ways or passages leading from the fair way or channel to such dock, dock-yard, timber-pounds, and other premises belonging thereto; nor make fast any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, to any part of the shore, or to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty, within the said harbour, in the front of the said docks, dock-yard, timber-pounds, gun-wharfs, or other premises belonging to them respectively; nor anchor or moor so as to swing within any of the said buoys or piles, nor anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, between the King's moorings, except such as may be consigned to either of His Majesty's arsenals, which are to anchor only in such situations as shall be directed by the Commissioner residing at such port, or the Master-Attendant, or King's pilots, employed by them, nor in any of the ways or passages before-mentioned, or to any other quays, works, or concerns of His Majesty, in the said harbour; nor shall they anchor, moor, ground, strand, run on shore, or deposit any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, in any other part of the said harbour, upon pain of the penalties in the said Act mentioned.

II.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from being breamed in any part of the said harbour of Sheerness in the mouth of the river Medway, except on the beach at Cockle-Shell Hard, upon the island of Grain; and from coming or entering into the said harbour, being laden with, or having on board, any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole: and all such gunpowder is hereby appointed to be left and deposited in a magazine in the Sheerness garrison, at the eastern part of the entrance of the said harbour, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of this Act.

III.

All ships, vessels, lighters, or other craft, discharging their ballast, are to deposit the same at Sheerness Town Pier, at Cockle-Shell Hard, on the island of Grain, or wherever else they may be directed by the Commissioner or Master-Attendant of the dock-yard.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN BARROW.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, assembled pursuant to notice by the High Sheriff of the said County.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Anglesey, convened by the High Sheriff of the said County, humbly beg permission to renew our assurances of attachment to your royal person, and respectfully to tender to your Royal Highness our heartfelt congratulations on the splendid and decisive victory gained by the Allies, on the eighteenth of June, over a selected army of the French, greatly exceeding them in number, and led by the conqueror of Marengo, Austerlitz, and Jena. To overcome numbers so superior, so well organized, and headed by such a leader, was no ordinary triumph, and, from the desperate resistance of the enemy, it is evident that their defeat could have been accomplished only by the consummate skill and unconquerable mind of the British General, the conduct and gallantry of his Officers, the courage, perseverance, and devotion of his troops, seconded by His Majesty's Belgian and German Allies, and supported by the powerful well-timed and cordial co-operation of the Prussians, under their most valiant and veteran Commander. Great as is our admiration of the matchless valour by which the victory of Waterloo was achieved, our gratitude cannot be less for its immediate results, and for the security which it will insure to legitimate government and social order. It saved one of His Majesty's Allies from impending spoil, and has dissolved the league of revolutionary anarchy and military despotism, so recently formed in hostility to the repose, liberty, and independence of the European States. France, by this league, became incapable of entering into relations of amity, and from its extinction alone are any rational hopes revived of a secure and permanent peace. To our congratulations on the glorious eighteenth of June, and its results, we are grieved at the lamentable necessity of adding our sympathy with the sorrow which your Royal Highness must so deeply feel for the affliction, public and domestic, which has shaded with cypress the imperishable laurels of that day, and, from our more immediate connection with the gallant Marquess of Anglesey, we hope to be excused for expressing to your Royal Highness our most sincere concern for the unfortunate casualty which has for the present deprived the King of his invaluable services, formerly so conspicuous in the Peninsula, and so distinguished on the eighteenth of June by the brilliant manner in which his Lordship successfully led the cavalry through that arduous and ever-memorable day.

Signed, at the request of the Meeting,

Robert Hughes, Sheriff.

Foreign-Office, July 18, 1815.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are extracts, have been received at this Office.

Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Stewart to Lord Castlereagh, dated from the Head-Quarters of Field-Marshal Prince Schwartzberg, Troyes, July 12, 1815.

PRINCE Schwartzberg's head-quarters were on the 10th at Doulevant, the 11th at Dienville, and on the 12th were established at this place.

His Imperial Highness the Archduke Ferdinand, who had his head-quarters on the 9th at Joinville, reported to the Prince a successful attack made by Marshal Count Colloredo upon the fortified position of General La Courbe, in his entrenched camp before Befort. This exploit completed the close investment of the fortress. It would have been impossible to carry this position but for the judicious arrangements of the General commanding, and the bravery of the troops employed on this service.

According to the accounts of the prisoners and deserters from the enemy, their loss in this affair amounted to seven officers killed, ten officers wounded, and one thousand men.

Blamont has surrendered to a corps of Austrian and Swiss troops.

A reconnoissance which was sent towards Rouge fell in with a party of armed peasantry, which they drove back as far as Sardoye. It is reported, that in part of the Vosges there are above fifteen hundred men of the above description, with some field-pieces.

Effectual measures, however, have been adopted to put an end to this species of warfare, which has been attended with much inconvenience to the regular communication of couriers and detached officers.

Prince Hohenzollern reports from Stutzheim, on the 9th of July, that the garrison of Strasbourg made a sortie on the morning of that day on his position, with several columns, near Oberkambetgen. The troops under Field-Marshal Mazzuchelli, and the Baden troops under General Schäser, however, repulsed the enemy, and drove him back under the guns of the fortress. It is said that a French General was killed on this occasion.

The Baden General Le Roche has been severely wounded; and great praise is given to the cavalry of this contingent, who charged the enemy's squares with great resolution.

General Baron Frimont reports, on the 5th of July, that after having forced the passes of the Jura, he gave directions for the investment of Fort l'Ecluse.

The regiment Esterhazy carried a redoubt by assault, which commanded the high road from Geneva to Lyons, and took four guns, one standard, and considerable stores of every description; many prisoners also fell into their hands.

General Frimont continues his march by Bourgenbresse towards Lyons, where it is supposed Marshal Suchet will collect all his corps.

With regard to the movements of the army, His Royal Highness the Crown Prince of Wurtemberg halts on the 13th at Neuchateau, and on the 14th takes the direction of Vandoeuvres, Troyes, Villeneuve, towards Sens.

Count Colloredo marches towards Visoul, Chaumont, and Bar-sur-Seine, blockading Langres with two divisions, and leaving General Wimpfen with a sufficient force before Befort.

The reserve marches by Troyes, Pont-sur-Yonne, to Fontainebleau; the division of the Archduke Maximilian, will be to-morrow at Fontainebleau, forming the advance guard.

Head-quarters of Prince Schwartzberg are the 13th at Sens, the 14th at Fontainebleau. With the blockades of the fortresses, which I have already detailed to your Lordship in former dispatches, the Austrians will have nearly 100,000 men disposable on the Upper Loire, exclusive of General Frimont's army of Italy, and it has afforded me singular satisfaction to witness the high state of perfection of his army, the mass of which is now assembled here; notwithstanding their very arduous marches, no troops can be in a finer state for immediate service.

Extract of a Dispatch from George Henry Rose, Esq. His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Bavaria, to Lord Castlereagh, dated Munich, July 5, 1815.

NO accounts have been received here of any progress made by Prince Wrede's army, beyond Nancy and Toul. This government is employed in what is most important at this moment, the formation of the reserves; a part of the Horse Guards will march to join the army in the field in a few days. The armament of the third class, or Local Volunteers, has been continued so effectually, that in two of the circles, where they amount to above one hundred thousand men, full one half are armed, and at their own expence.

Extract of a Dispatch from Brook Taylor, Esq. His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Stutgard, to Lord Castlereagh, dated Stutgard, July 6, 1815.

THE last accounts received from the Prince Royal of Wurtemberg, of the 2d instant, state the arrival in the neighbourhood of Strasburg of the corps d'armee of Prince Hohenzollern, intended to relieve His Royal Highness from the blockade of that place, in consequence of which he had begun his march from thence for Luneville and Nancy. The additional force which the King of Wurtemberg has sent into the field consists of the second battalion of the line, one regiment of cavalry, and four Landwehr regiments, which have been ordered to Kehl to assist in the blockade of Strasburg, and particularly for the protection of the right bank of the Rhine, against any sallies which General Rapp may be disposed to make on that side. The strength of the garrison of Strasburg is said to amount at present to thirty-five thousand men.

Whitehall, July 18, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto the following Noblemen, and the respective heirs male of their bodies lawfully begotten, viz.

The Right Honourable John Earl of Strathmore, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Bowes, of Streatham-Castle, in the county of Durham, and of Lunedale, in the county of York.

The Right Honourable Lieutenant-General George Earl of Dalhousie, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Dalhousie, of Dalhousie-Castle, in the county of Edinburgh.

The Right Honourable George Earl of Aboyne, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Meldrum, of Morven, in the county of Aberdeen.

The Right Honourable George Earl of Glasgow, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Ross, of Hawkhead, in the county of Renfrew.

The Right Honourable John Willoughby Earl of Enniskillen, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Grinstead, of Grinstead, in the county of Wilts.

The Right Honourable Edmund Henry Earl of Limerick, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Foxford, of Stackpole-Court, in the county of Clare.

The Right Honourable Peniston, Viscount Melbourne, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Melbourne, of Melbourne, in the county of Derby.

Also to Francis Almaric Spencer, Esq. commonly called Lord Francis Almaric Spencer, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Churchill, of Sandridge, in the County of Hertford.

And to George Harris, Colonel of the 73d Regiment of Foot, and General of His Majesty's Forces, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Harris, of Seringapatam and Mysore, in the East Indies, and of Belmont, in the county of Kent.
