War-Office, July 24, 1815.

THE Prince Regent, as a mark of His high approbation of the distinguished bravery and good conduct of the 1st and 2d Life Guards at the battle of Waterloo, on the 18th ultimo, is pleased to declare Himself Colonel in Chief of both the Regiments of Life Guards.

War-Office, July 25, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of all the British regiments of cavalry and infantry which were engaged in the battle of Waterloo, being permitted to bear on their colours and appointments, in addition to any other badges or devices that may have heretofore been granted to those regiments, the word "Waterloo," in commemoration of their distinguished services, on the 18th of June 1815.

Admiralty-Office, July 25, 1815.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Maitland, of His Majesty's Ship, Belcherophon, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated in Basque Roads, the 14th instant.

FOR the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, I have to acquaint you that the Count Las Casses and General Allemand, this day came on board His Majesty's ship under my command, with a proposal for me to receive on board Napoleon Buonaparte, for the purpose of throwing himself on the generosity of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

Conceiving myself authorised by their Lordships' secret order, I have acceded to the proposal, and he is to embark on board this ship to-morrow morning.

That no misunderstanding might arise, I have explicitly and clearly explained to the Count Las Casses, that I have no authority whatever for granting terms of any sort; but that all I can do is to convey him and his suite to England, to be received in such manner as His Royal Highness may deem expedient.

Admiralty-Office, July 25, 1815.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Viscount Keith to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on-board His Majesty's Ship, the Ville de Paris, in Hamoaze, the 21st instant.

Ville de Paris, in Hamoaze, July 21, 1815.

SIR,

CAPTAIN Knight, of the Falmouth, arrived last night from the Gironde, bringing the satisfactory intelligence of that river having been successfully entered without loss on the 13th instant, by the Pactolus, Hebrus, and Falmouth.

I inclose, for their Lordships information, a copy of the Honourable Captain Aylmer's letter, reporting his proceedings in the execution of this service, in which both Captain Palmer and he have shewn a commendable zeal.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) KEITH, Admiral.

J. W. Croker, Esq.

P. S. I also inclose a copy of a letter from Captain Palmer, of the Hebrus.

His Majesty's Ship Pactolus, in the Gironde, July 14, 1815.

MY LORD,

I ARRIVED off this port on the 3d instant, and, in compliance with the wishes of General Donnadieu, sent in a flag of truce, with an Aide-de-Camp of the General's, for the purpose of communicating with the General, Clausel, commanding at Bourdeaux; but as two days more elapsed without any answer or news of the Aide-de-Camp, I sent another flag into a corvette lying in the river; and I learnt from her Commander that he had received the most positive orders from General Clausel not to hold any kind of communication with us. In addition to this we received a proclamation, signed by that General, declaring Bourdeaux and its whole vicinity in a state of siege, and threatening with military execution any who manifested signs of disaffection to his Government. The Aide-de-Camp, it appeared, was detained.

While this negotiation was attempting, the Hebrus arrived with the charge of a small expedition, with arms and supplies for the Royalists, and when it became evident, that no good could arise out of any attempt to conciliate General Clausel, Captain Palmer made me a very strong representation upon the necessity which he conceived there was for his attempting to enter the Gironde and open a direct communication with the Royalist party. After weighing the circumstances, I thought it my duty to accede to the proposal, and I united the ships for the prosecution of the service.

The General Donnadiou being anxious to pursue his mission on the coast, I dispatched the Larne with him to Passages.

On the 11th the squadron weighed from an outer anchorage we had taken, and formed for the purpose of entering the river; but, as we stood in, the enemy's corvette was perceived to weigh and manoeuvre in the north entrance, while five sail pushed out through the southern passage to sea. Under these circumstances it became necessary for the intercepting those vessels that the squadron should separate for the time; and in consequence the forcing the river was obliged to be given up for that day; during the night the squadron united again, after having examined the vessels which it appeared had sailed in so suspicious a manner, which circumstance was developed by the embargo having been that morning discontinued in the river.

Yesterday, the wind being favourable, the squadron again weighed, and formed in a close line for entering the Gironde: the Pactolus led, the Hebrus followed, and the Falmouth brought up the rear; the two former had transports in tow; as we proceeded, a person came off with a message from the people of the town of Royan, saying that they would not fire at us, provided we did not assail them. We passed on with the royal colours of France at the mast-head; the tri-coloured flag flew along the batteries, which were all in preparation, but no act of hostility occurred until we reached the heavy battery at Verdun, which opened its fire upon us, and continued it until the ships reached the anchorage. No injury, however, was sustained, and the squadron did not return a gun, for I was unwilling to disturb the feeling which appeared so generally and so happily to prevail. Directly the ships were secured, a communication was sent up with a flag of truce to General Clausel by the Comte de Lasteur, deputed by M. La Duchesse D'Angouleme, and we are in expectation of his answer. In the meantime nothing can wear a more favourable aspect than the face of things in this river.

I beg to assure you, that every measure shall be adopted, in conjunction with the Baron Montalembert, to arm and organise the royal party, and establish the power of predominance of His Majesty the King of France, in the vicinity of wherever our means can operate.

I lose no time in dispatching the Falmouth to your Lordship, and Captain Knight will explain our situation, as well as that we are taking every precaution in respect to the defence of that river, in the event of General Clausel sending down any strong force to stifle the spirit of the people. I shall also write to Rear-Admiral Sir Henry Hotham, and perhaps the Rear-Admiral may strengthen our means here, so that we may fully avail ourselves of such opportunity of pushing the royal cause with vigour and celerity, and of cherishing the excellent disposition with which all here seem inspired. I have just learnt that the enemy evacuated the fort of Verdun last night, and retired with his garrison. We have sent a force on shore to dismantle and destroy the guns, &c. This is the fort which disputed our entrance, and it is a very strong work.

I have also the pleasure to add, that the propositions of the Baron Montalembert, and his mission, have hitherto been every where attended with success. The forts and the positions are gradually pulling down their tri-coloured flags, and hoisting that of their legitimate Sovereign; and several of them have saluted the squadron upon their hoisting the white flag. While writing this letter, another battery has hoisted the white flag, and there now remains only the fort at Méche with the tri-coloured flag.

Captain Palmer, who was entrusted with the service, has throughout directed it, and the accident alone of my being the senior Officer, induces me to give the account to your Lordship.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) F. W. AYLMER, Captain,
To Admiral Lord Viscount Keith,
&c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Hebrus, in the Gironde, July 14, 1815.

My Lord,

I HAVE the honour to state to you, that I arrived off this port on the 6th, where I found His Majesty's ship Pactolus, and I learnt from Captain Aylmer that General Donnadiou (the French officer he had on board) was endeavouring to open a communication with the Commandant at Bourdeaux, General Clausel, and that an Aid-de-Camp had been dispatched in for that purpose. But as General Clausel thought proper to detain the messenger, and also to adopt the most decided measures to prevent any kind of intercourse, there appeared no prospect of any accommodation from any further attempts to conciliate him.

From the nature of this coast, and the complete military possession which the enemy had of it, it seemed impossible that any free communication could be opened with the Royalists, unless I could effect an entrance into the river; and as the Baron de Montalembert expressed the greatest anxiety upon the subject, and I possessed a discretionary power of passing into the Gironde, should I be of opinion that circumstances justified me in doing so, I decided, after the best consideration I could give the matter, that it was the most proper course I could pursue for the good of the cause I was employed on.

As I felt, that the committing the transports and their lading in the river, at a time it was in full possession of the enemy, was a strong measure, and as there were serious obstacles to overcome, in a well defended entrance and a hazardous navigation, I considered it my duty to render our means as effective as possible before the attempt was made, and as the Pactolus was on the spot, I stated my opinion fully to Captain Aylmer, requesting the junction of his ship to those under my orders. Captain Aylmer having acceded to the request, and being the Senior officer, of course the command of the squadron devolved on him, and your Lordship will learn from that officer the further proceedings of the expedition.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 23, 1815.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received by Earl Bathurst, addressed to his Lordship by Colonel the Baron de Montalembert, dated in the Gironde, July 13, 1815.

MY LORD,

WITH the greatest satisfaction I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that the ships with the arms, equipments, and ammunition, placed under my charge, entered the Gironde this morning, protected by His Majesty's ships Pactolus, Hebrus, and Falmouth. On our approach near the fort of Royan, which commands the entrance of the river, Captain Palmer, of the Hebrus, hoisted the white flag at the main. The effect produced by this emblem of loyalty and honour was instantaneous. Not a gun was fired from the batteries, the Verdun one excepted, and we were received as friends and deliverers.

The communications we have had with the inhabitants during the few hours we have been at anchor, are of the most favourable nature, and such as might have been expected from their well known attachment to the cause of their legitimate Sovereign. General Clausel still occupies Bourdeaux with some force. Our appearance, in this river, and the means we will immediately pursue to arm the population, will produce the double effect of paralyzing his measures to keep possession of the town, and of preventing his sending any reinforcement to the French army behind the Loire.

I cannot close this communication, without stating to your Lordship, that to Captain Palmer's zeal for the cause and indefatigable exertions, we are entirely indebted for our present advantageous position in this river.

I have, &c.

(Signed) Le Baron de MONTALEMBERT.

Marseilles, July 11, 1815.

COLONIAL DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 24, 1815.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received from Lieutenant-General Sir J. Leith, commanding His Majesty's forces in the Leeward Islands, addressed to Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Head-Quarters, Fort-Royal, Martinique,

MY LORD, June 10, 1815.

I AM happy to inform you, that I have occupied the military points of Martinique by a British auxiliary force, which landed here on the morning of the 5th instant.

The situation of Martinique was, indeed, critical; for the troops of the line, consisting of thirteen hundred men, who possessed the forts, shewed too much of the same disposition which has manifested itself in France. The majority of the officers were decidedly for Buonaparte, some putting up the tri-coloured cockade, and others, with similar sentiments, less avowed, pretending that they only wished to return to France. The soldiers were chiefly refractory conscripts, who had never served, and had no attachment to Buonaparte, but having escaped from the army under his severe system, finding themselves expatriated under the King's Government, was not likely to create an attachment to the Bourbon cause, they generally wished to return home.

Le Comte de Vaugiraud acted with much good sense in anticipating the mischief which might have arisen, and which he had not the power to have controuled, by assembling the troops, and releasing those of the Officers who desired it from their obligations, informing them at the same time, that they must quit Martinique, and declaring that any attempt to raise the standard of rebellion would be repelled by force, and punished as an act of mutiny, in defiance of the oaths of fidelity which they had taken to Louis the Eighteenth.

I had desired Le Comte de Vaugiraud to give it to be understood, that the white flag was the only permanent security of the troops, or of the colony, and I immediately assembled the force now in possession of the island, in Gros Islet Bay, St. Lucia, within four hours sail of Fort Royal, to give effect to the Comte de Vaugiraud's measures.

This fine colony was several times on the point of being thrown into a state of revolutionary convulsion, by the conduct of the troops, all of whom, with the exception of the remainder of the 26th regiment, amounting to four hundred and fifty men, including Officers, who remain under the white flag, have been permitted to depart, unarmed, and are actually gone.

The militia of Martinique amount to about six thousand men, who are well disposed; one half only have arms; one hundred and fifty are mounted.

Immediately after the occupation of the military points, by the troops under my command, the Government of the colony published a decree by which British vessels are received on the same footing as French. This act was perfectly spontaneous, and indeed has been marked by the same spirit of cordiality which has actuated the Comte de Vaugiraud in every part of the intercourse which I have had with him.

It would be unjust to Comte de Vaugiraud not to express my sense of the honourable devotion which he has uniformly shewn to the zealous performance of his duty to his Sovereign, of his dignity and good sense, under very critical circumstances, and of his grateful attachment to the Prince Regent, the British Government and nation, for the assistance which has saved Martinique. The gratitude, indeed, of the colony at large, has been most unequivocally testified.

I shall be happy to find that the steps I have taken have been such as may be approved by the Prince Regent.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JAMES LEYTH, Lieut.-Gen.
Commanding the Forces.

Earl Bathurst, &c. &c. &c.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

SIR,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned, Roman Catholic Peers and Commoners of Great Britain, most humbly beg leave to offer your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations upon the recent triumph of His Majesty's arms, and those of his august Allies; an event, which has elevated the dignity of His Majesty's crown, illustrated the splendour of the British name; and we trust laid a sure foundation for the establishment of Europe's peace and independence.—We at the same time beg leave to offer your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the loss sustained by your Royal Highness, in the death of His Serene Highness the Duke of Brunswick, who, treading in the paths of his fathers, has fallen in the glorious cause of the liberties and honour of Europe.

To the transcendent genius and brilliant heroism of Field-Marshal His Grace the Duke of Wellington; to the unconquerable valour and discipline of his troops, we must look as Britons with peculiar sentiments of national exultation; and we with confidence appeal to the blood shed by our brethren in faith on this memorable occasion, as an additional proof of our undivided allegiance and disinterested devotion to the cause of our Sovereign and our Country.

We implore the continuance of the Divine protection on Your Royal Highness, and every branch of His Majesty's august house; under the auspices of Your Royal Highness, may the British arms ever prosper; may general tranquillity be soon established by an honourable and lasting peace, and may the Almighty preserve the grandeur and dignity to which, during Your Royal Highness's exercise of the functions of government, he has been pleased to raise the British Empire.

Foreign-Office, July 25, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint George Henry Rose, Esq. to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Berlin.

His Royal Highness has also been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Honourable Frederick Lamb to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Munich.

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

I. It is hereby ordered, that no owner, master, or other commanding officer of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship, or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, nor any pilot, or other person, employed by either of them, shall anchor or moor, or cause to be anchored or moored, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, in the fair way or channel between the King's moorings in the said harbour, or in Barnpool, within fifty fathoms of the centers of any of the said moorings, or of His Majesty's ships, floating magazines, and hulks lying thereat, or in the front or abreast of His Majesty's Docks, dock yard, or gunwharf, and between the same and the Eastern line of hulks, or even to drop an anchor within such space and situations, except in case of necessity to prevent damage to herself, or that of the King's ships which may be at the contiguous mooring, and then to remove as soon as possible thereafter; except also in cases where any of the said ships, vessels, or craft, may be consigned to the dock yard, or gunwharf, and must; therefore, necessarily anchor contiguous thereto till they can come to the cranes and wharfs for delivery of their cargoes, and then to be placed in such situations as the Commissioner residing at the port, or the masters attendant, or King's pilots by whom they are conducted, shall direct.

Nor shall any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, be anchored or moored, between the island and main, at a less distance than fifty fathoms to the Southward of the transporting buoy within the said island, or in any place off the East end of the island near the buoy of the Asia Shoal, or between it and the buoy of the Winter, or near the Fair Way or outer transporting buoy in the Sound: neither shall any be made fast to, or be moored, or secured by any of the mooring anchors or chains to which access can be had when the tide is out, either on the Easttern or Western shore of the said harbour of Hamoaze, or be made fast to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty within the said harbour, in the fronts of the said docks, dock yard, or gunwharf, or other premises belonging to them respectively, nor anchor or moor so as to swing within any of the said buoys or piles, upon pain of the penalties for such offences, and all other prohibitions and restrictions herein contained, as the said Act of Parliament directs.

Nor, under pain of the penalties before referred to, shall any private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, be anchored or moored in any place or places within the port of Hamoaze, except on the Eastern side of Stonehouse-Pool, and in extent not coming further to the westward than the King's Slaughterhouse, and in that range to the northward at the mouth or entrance of Milbrook Lake, or to the northward of all His Majesty's moorings. This restriction in regard to the anchorage of merchantships, transports, &c. is, however, not intended to exclude such as, trading to the port, must necessarily have admission to the several wharfs, docks, &c., at Mutton Cove, North Corner, New Passage, and elsewhere, for loading and unloading their cargoes, and which are generally grounded for such purposes; but all such merchant ships, vessels, lighters, barges, boats, or other craft, are to continue to enjoy their accustomed privileges in this respect, in as full and effectual a manner as if these regulations had not taken effect.

II.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from being breamed in any part of the said Harbour of Hamoaze, except on the shores of Stonehouse-Pool aforesaid, at Franks Quarry, or to the Northward of the King's moorings: and from coming, or entering, into the said Harbour, being laden with, or having on board, any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole. And all such gunpowder is hereby appointed to be left and deposited at a depot established for that purpose on St. Nicholas's Island, at the entrance of the said Harbour, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of the said Act.

III.

And it is hereby ordered, that no person or persons shall take any ballast, or shingle, from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of the port and harbour of Hamoaze, on any account or pretence whatsoever, without being duly authorised by us, or other sufficient authority of His Majesty's Government, upon pain of the penalties in this Act mentioned: observing, however, that this regulation is not meant to restrict the raising of the sea sand, for agricultural or other purposes, in the shoal water to the northward of Saint Nicholas' Island aforesaid, by the barges and craft which have hitherto been employed thereon, or any other.

By command of their Lordships,

JOHN BARROW.

By the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

"A line from the south point of Limehouse-Reach, across the river, to the south west point of the New Gun Wharf, and a line, from the northern boundary of the Ordnance Land at Upnor, near the New Powder Magazines, in an east direction to the opposite shore;" nor in front of, or abreast of, His Majesty's docks, dock-yard, timber pounds, gun or ordnance wharfs, victualling yard, or other premises or storehouses belonging thereto, unless laden with or going for stores to His Majesty's dock-yard, gun or ordnance wharfs, powder magazines, or victualling yard; nor within the distance of ninety yards from the centre of any of His Majesty's moorings, ships, floating magazines, and hulks, in any part of the said River Medway; nor make fast, or cause to be made fast, any such private ship of war, transport, or other private ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, to any part of the shore, within the limits aforementioned; nor to any of the buoys or piles of His Majesty, within the said river, excepting they should be forced so to do, by stress of weather, or other unavoidable accident; in which case they are to remove from thence as soon as possible, upon pain of the penalties in the said Act mentioned.

"A line from the south point of Limehouse-Reach, across the river, to the south west point of the New Gun Wharf; and a line from the boundary stone which marks the jurisdiction of the city of London, in a south east direction to the opposite shore. The said boundary stone is situated about six hundred yards northward from the New Powder Magazines at Upnor."

III.

All private ships of war, transports, and other private ships or vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft, are hereby expressly prohibited, under the penalties of the said Act, from coming, or entering into the said River Medway, higher than Long-Reach (unless employed and ordered so to do by the Department of the Ordnance, and having a red flag flying), being laden with, or having on board, any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding five pounds weight in the whole; and all such gunpowder is hereby appointed to be left and deposited on board the powder ship, lying in Long-Reach, in the said River Medway, where the same will be taken and received according to the provisions of this Act. A red flag is hoisted on board the said powder ship, thereby signifying to all private ships and vessels, and other craft, that such ship is appointed for the reception of their gunpowder; and the words "Appointed for the Reception of Gunpowder," are painted in large letters in a conspicuous part of both sides of the said ship.

IV.

And it is hereby ordered, that no person or persons shall take any ballast, or shingle, belonging to His Majesty, from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of the said harbour of Chatham, on any account or pretence whatsoever, without being duly authorised by us, or other sufficient authority of His Majesty's Government, upon pain of the penalties in this Act mentioned.
