Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1815.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of August next), presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom; or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or have any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to enable His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition:" But it is

His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to the coast of Africa, under the conditions contained in the said Order. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of February last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth, or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet-copper excepted), will expire on the thirteenth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosoever do, at any time for the space of six months, to commence from the said thirteenth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted); or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted); on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted); to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd,

Whitehall, July 27, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been graciously pleased to order a writ to be issued, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for summoning Sir Cecil Bishopp, of Parham-Park, in the county of Sussex, Baronet, up to the House of Peers, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Zouche, of Haryngworth, he being lineally descended from the eldest of the two daughters of Edward the last Lord Zouche, of Haryngworth, who died without issue male in 1625, and one of the rightful heirs of the said Barony, which was created by writ of summons in the reign of King Edward the Second.

Whitehall, July 24, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable William Carr Beresford, Lord Beresford, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, &c. His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the Grand Cross of the Royal Spanish Military Order of San Fernando, with which His Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain, hath been pleased to honour his Lordship, in testimony of the high sense which His Catholic Majesty entertains of the signal services rendered by him in the field, as a Captain-General of the Spanish armies during the Peninsula war: And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

C. GRANT, jun.

To the Managers and Directors of the Lottery.

Navy-Office, July 31, 1815.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers from the 1st April to the 30th June 1815, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 14th and Tuesday the 15th of August, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Wednesday the 16th and Thursday the 17th, to Lieutenants and their Attornies.

On Friday the 18th and Monday the 21st, to Masters, Pursers, and Surgeons, and their Attornies.

After which the list will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test; and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1815, will commence paying on the 14th instant; and all persons desirous of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for watching and lighting that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, called Kentish-Town; and for graveling, repairing, or paving the foot and other ways in the said town, and for preventing nuisances and obstructions therein.—August 1, 1815.

Denton and Barker, Solicitors, Gray's-Inn-Square.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE, August 1, 1815.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £56 and under £57 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Matt. Winter, Secretary.

And in the several Counties in North Britain;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of September next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Friday the 25th day of August; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day, and, if sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender, as also must the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be stationed or supplied in the county, the expence of the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, to be refunded to him by the Commissary in Chief.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five; and at the Office of Deputy Commissary-General Young, Edinburgh.

CONTRACT FOR TAKING DIRT AND RUBBISH OUT OF DEPTFORD YARD.

Navy-Office, July 20, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 2d of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Taking Dirt and Rubbish out of His Majesty's Yard at Deptford.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 100*l*. for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, July 27, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 9th day of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-Place, His Majesty's ships hereunder mentioned, and which are lying at the Yards against the same expressed, viz.

Lying at Deptford.

Thisbe, of 28 guns and 596 tons; Franchise, of 36 guns and 898 tons.

Lying at Woolwich.

Venus, of 36 guns and 953 tons; Hamadryad, of 36 guns and 951 tons.

Lying at Plymouth.

Trompe, of 66 guns and 1040 tons; Amsterdam, of 32 guns and 849 tons; Mermaid, of 32 guns and 693 tons; Clara, of 36 guns and 998 tons.

The purchaser of each of the said ships is to give a bond, with two sureties, not to sell or otherwise dispose of the ship, but to break her up within twelve months from the day of sale.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yards.

Persons wishing to view the ships, must apply to the Commissioners of the Yards for notes of admission for that purpose. G. Smith.

Office of Ordnance, July 26, 1815.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 11th of August next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of Accoutrements,

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office at the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, day day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Accoutrements;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 11th of August, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Trinity College, Dublin.

July 19, 1815.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the fortieth year of His present Majesty's reign, the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, Dublin, do hereby publish and declare their direction, that William Allman, M. Marshal's Office, Barbice.

Sales by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency J. Murray, Brigadier-General and Acting Governor of the colony Barbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. given upon a petition presented for that purpose by Archibald Macrae, qq. Colin Macrae, under date of 16th January 1813, versus the proprietor or proprietors, representative or representatives of plantation Palmyra, east coast;

Notice is hereby given to the public, at the instance of Evan Fraser, surviving partner of the house of Evan and Angus Fraser, Merchants of this colony, and which House of Commerce are now possessing, through deed of assignment, the right and interest before possessed by Colin Macrae in the debt for which plantation Palmyra is now under execution and sequestration; that I the undersigned intend to sell, at public execution sale, in the presence of two Counsellor's Commissioners, and their Secretary, in the month of December 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the cotton estate called Palmyra, situate on the east coast of this colony, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, the property of R. P. Broom, all conformable to an inventory formed thereof, and now laying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest on the abovementioned estate called Palmyra, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office, declaring their reason for so doing, in due time and form, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claims heard before the Court, and farther act thereon as the law directs.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum, from the Court-House of this colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, 21st May 1815.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

SOMERSET.

TO be sold by auction, in pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt against Thomas Young and Robert Young, Bankers, at the Castle Inn, in Taunton, on Tuesday the 8th of August next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, the following dwelling houses, lands and hereditaments, Seven new built copyhold dwelling houses, of the tenure of Taunton late Priory, situate in St. James's-Street, in the Town of Taunton, forming an entire court, now in the several occupations of Henry Trood, William Richards, John Squire, John Priest, William Hawkins, Hannah Massey, and Sarah Gilbert, as tenants from year to year.

Also two unfinished cottages with gardens adjoining, lately called the Willow-Bed, situated at Bath Pool, in the Parish of West Monkton.

Also a cottage in the occupation of John Wood, and a cottage, with a garden adjoining, in the occupation of Ann Kingdon, both situate in North-Street, in the Town of Milverton.

These last premises are freehold, and are subject to a yearly conventional rent of 12s.

Also a dwelling house and shop, with a garden and an orchard adjoining, containing one acre, more or less, situate also in North-Street, in Milverton, with a warehouse on the opposite side of the same Street, lately occupied by the said Thomas Young.

Parts of the last mentioned premises are held for the lives of the said Thomas Young, aged 68, and the said Robert Young, aged 37, under the yearly conventional rent of 4s.; other parts thereof, for the life of the said Thomas Young, under the like rent, and the remainder for the residue of a term of 1000 years.

For viewing the respective premises, apply to Mr. Bunter, of Taunton; or to Mr. Richard Young, at Milverton; and for other particulars to Mr. Scott, Solicitor, St. Mildred's-Court, London; or to Messrs. Flood and Mules, Solicitors, Honiton.
