Marshal's Office, Barbice.

Sales by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency J. Murray, Brigadier-General and Acting Governor of the colony Barbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. given upon a petition presented for that purpose by Archibald Macrae, qq. Colin Macrae, under date of 16th January 1813, versus the proprietor or proprietors, representative or representatives of plantation Palmyra, east coast;

Notice is hereby given to the public, at the instance of Evan Fraser, surviving partner of the house of Evan and Angus Fraser, Merchants of this colony, and which House of Commerce are now possessing, through deed of assignment, the right and interest before possessed by Colin Macrae in the debt for which plantation Palmyra is now under execution and sequestration; that I the undersigned intend to sell, at public execution sale, in the presence of two Counsellor's Commissioners, and their Secretary, in the month of December 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the cotton estate called Palmyra, situate on the east coast of this colony, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, the property of R. P. Broom, all conformable to an inventory formed thereof, and now laying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest on the abovementioned estate called Palmyra, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office, declaring their reason for so doing, in due time and form, as hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claims heard before the Court, and farther act thereon as the law directs.
