TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1815.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of August 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

A New Great Seal for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland having been prepared by His Majesty's Chief Engraver of Seals, in pursuance of a warrant to him for that purpose under His Majesty's royal signature, and the same having been this day presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, and approved by His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty; and the old Great Seal being delivered up to His Royal Highness by the Right Honourable John Lord Eldon, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the same was defaced in His Royal Highness's presence; and His Royal Highness was thereupon pleased to deliver to his Lordship the said new seal, and to direct, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the same shall be made use of for sealing all things whatever which pass the Great Seal. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Maesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of August next), presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to enable His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition:" But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to the coast of Africa, under the conditions contained in the said Order. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.
