Ratubonze, March so.

MOnfieur Verjus, the French Minifter, has prefented a Memorial to the States of the Empire Affembled here, in which he tellis them, That the King his Mafter defired nothing more than to continue in peace and rriendhip with the Empire ; That in order thereunto he Commanded nis Ambaffadors upon their fifl arrval at Francfort, to Declare, That his Majeffy upon the departure of bis faid Ambaffadors for tholic Confercnces, had given Orders to the Sovereign Chambers of Brifac and Metz, not to proceed any farther in thomatter of Dependencies. That his Majelly tor manifeft his defires of Peace, was willing to quit alt the pretenfions which he had, by virtue of the Treaties of Weffpkalia and Nimeguen, upon any Lands or places in the Empire, upon condition, he was left in the quiet enjoyment of what he was pofefed of at the atime of the departure of his faid Ambalfadors, the City of 5 trasbourg being comprchended therein. And Lafl y; That his Majelly was willing to domolifh Fribourg, and to reftore itto the Emperor, upon condition, the Emperor did likewife demolifh Pbilipsburg, and reftore it to the Bilhop of spire. This Memorial was read in the Dyet the ; th Inftant, but being a matter of great moment, the feveral Depaties defired time to communicate the fame to the Princes their Mafters, and to receive their Inffructions thereupon. And without all doubi, this Memorial will occafion very ferious Debates in the ${ }^{1}$ Dect.

- $\operatorname{strasbourg,~March~13,~The~Batallion~of~Enguyen~}$ marched from hence on Monday latt for Metz; and that of Navarre is to follow, in order to their joyn. -ing the Troopswhich the French are drawing together on the Mofelle; what their defign is, we cannot Learn.

Hamburgh, March is. There is a great conteft vetween the Duke of Ssxe Lavenburg, and the City of Lubeck, concerning a fmail Fort which the firit was about Building near that City; and which the Magiftrates of Lubeck fent a party of Soldiers to demoijilb, and they have chofen the Duke of $\mathrm{Lu}-$ nenburg Zell, to be the Mediator for the compofing this dilpute. It is faid that a Defenfive Alyance is concluded between the King of Sweden, and the Dukes of Lunenbirg.
Brufits, March 24. On Wednefday laft 200 Trigh Recruits Landed at oplend; and the fame day we rectived the bad news that the Veffels that were bound thither wish bet ween three and 400 Italians, w.re call away in the Cbannel. Monfieur Agurie is made Mailrse de Camp General ; and the, Duke of Holfeim, and the Marquirs de Bedmar are in competition for his Command of Ge. eral of the Arfillery. We have an Account of the Marquifs de Grana sarrival in England, fo that we are now every hour expecting himi on this fide. In the meafin time all publick Affairs are here very muchata fland.

Hague, Marcb 24. The States of Holland have bad long and ferious Confuitations concerning the prefent Affairs: on Sacurday laft, after having been feveral hours together, the Deputies of fome of the nearelt Towns went home to confult their Priucipals, and recrund this Morning, when the Debate of tho'e Matters was agin refinmed; ln the mean time the difoofition here feems to be to forb:ar making any teps that may bring on a new War, and to endeavour an amicable compofure of the differences between the twq Crowns. From Francfort they write, that all the Preliminary Points were adjufted, fo that it was expected the Conferences would now very quickly be opened.

Hague, March 2y. The States-General have, as we are informed, anfwered to the Mcmorial of the Spanilh Envoye, Don Batitbafar de Fuen Mayor, that they will give his Catholick Mbjefty the affitance of 8000 Men; but that they think, purfuant to the Treaty between His Majelly and this State, endeavours oughe firft to be ufed amicably to determine by Conferences the Matters in difference; That they will do what in them lies to induce the moft Chriftian King tu Grant, during the faid Conferences, a liberty of fupplying the City of Luxemburg with Provifionsand other Neceffaries; and that in cafe the faid King fhall refufe to enter in o fuch Conferences, or that they fhall be unfuces Ge- $^{\text {- }}$ ful; the Stares Declare, they will without delay, give the King of spain the faid affifance of 8000 Men

And to the Memorial of the French Ambaffador, the States have anfwered, That they defire no thing mare fincerely then oto Preferve the Peace of Europe; and that jt will be a great trouble to them to fee it again difurbed; That they will ufe their utmoft Endeavours to periwade the King of Spain to enter into Corferences, in order to an amicable compofire of the ditterences between the two Crowns. But feeing the repofe of Chriftendom cannot be obtainsd as long as there remain on foot differences betweenthe Emperor and fome Princes of the Empire, and his moft Chriftian Majefty; they defire the Conferences may be general; and Dcclare, they will employ their urmoft Endeavours joyncly sith the King of England, for the compon fing the faid differences. Ard Lally, they pray the raid moft Chrifian King, to Grant during the faid Conferences, a liberty of tranfportiog Provifions, and cther necefldaries to Luxemburg.
Paris, Marctr 25. The King has writ à Letter to the Marefchal de Crequi, wherein he Declares, That having received Advice from confantinople, that the Grand Signior was preparing to enter fn Perfon at the head of a great Army into Flungaty: he had taken therupon a Refolution to remove the Bloquade of Luxemburg, that he might not divert the Ferces of thenEmpire, but leave them entirely at libcrty; to act againf the Common Enemy of Chrittendom; and accordingly Commands him to withdraw his Trqeps from before Lu*emburg and to leave that Toun fres to Trade, and to be lutiplyet wwith Provifonedind att Neceflariest and we are farther told, that His Majefly has Declared that"he will refer the differences befween "him and the ki g of Spain, to the Arbicrage of his Majeity of Great Brittain.
