SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1815.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of August 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-second day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Thursday the second day of November next.

In the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

GEORGE, P. R.

MOST Reverend Father in God, Our Right, Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Councillor, We greet you well! Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that many of Our subjects have entered into subscriptions, for the relief and benefit of the families of the brave men killed, and of the wounded sufferers, under the command of Field-Marshal the Duke of Wellington, and Field-Marshal His Highness Prince Blucher, in the signal victory of Waterloo, on the eighteenth day of June last, and in the several battles which have been or may be fought in the present campaign. And whereas many of the said Subscribers have most humbly prayed Us to grant them Our royal letters, directed to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and the Lord Archbishop of York, authorising them to promote contributions within their several provinces for the same benevolent purpose. We taking the premises into Our royal consideration, and being always ready to give the best encouragement and countenance to such humane and patriotic undertakings, are graciously pleased to condescend to their request; and We do hereby direct you, that these Our letters be communicated to the several Suffragan Bishops within your province, expressly requiring them to take care that publication be made hereof on such Sunday, and in such places within their respective dioceses, as the said Bishops shall appoint; and that upon this occasion the Ministers in each parish do effectually excite their parishioners to a liberal contribution, which shall be collected the week following at their respective dwellings by the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor in each parish, and the Ministers of the several parishes are to cause the sums so collected to be paid immediately to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the Committees appointed to conduct the said subscriptions in the cities of London or Westminster, to be accounted for by him or them, and applied to the carrying on, and prosecuting the above-mentioned good designs. And so We bid you very heartily farewell.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twentieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-fifth year of Our reign.

By the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty,

SIDMOUTH.

Addressed to the Most Reverend Father in God, Our Right, Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Councillor, Charles, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan.

Similar letter addressed to the Most Reverend Father in God, Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Councillor, Edward, Lord Archbishop of York, Primate of England and Metropolitan.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of July 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirteenth of February last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth, or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet-copper excepted), will expire on the thirteenth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do, at any time for the space of six months, to commence from the said thirteenth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chatwynd.

Whitehall, August 15, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about three o'clock of the afternoon of Tuesday the 3th instant, a smuggling boat, with thirteen men, full of goods and armed, run on board the eight-oared boat belonging to the Fox cutter, in the service of the Revenue of Excise, on the coast of Kent; that the crew of the smuggler shot four of the boatmen, and, in the most brutal manner, threw them overboard, and beat, bruised, and wounded the other boatmen, and left them for dead on the wreck of the boat;

His Royal Highness, in order to bring these atrocious offenders to justice, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person having the command or direction of the said smuggling boat), who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person making such discovery of any of the offenders as aforesaid, to be paid by their Secretary upon the conviction.

By order of the Board,
Tho. Burton, Secretary.

NEW STAMP DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, July 20, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that two Acts were passed in the late Session of Parliament, for repealing the Stamp Duties on Deeds, Law Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Fire Insurances and on Legacies and Successions to personal Estate upon Intestacies, and also the Duties on Advertisements, Almanacks, Newspapers, Pamphlets, Gold and Silver Plate, Stage Coaches, and Licences for keeping Stage

Coaches, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof; and that the new Duties are to commence upon the 1st of September next; except the Duty on Fire Insurances, which is to commence on the 29th September; and the Duties on Stage Coaches and Stage Coach Licences, which are to commence on the 5th September.

A very general increase of the present duties is enacted; and some Instruments are subjected to ad valorem Duties which are not so at present, such as Deeds of Exchange and Partitions, Leases, Settlements of Money and of Shares in the public Stocks or Funds, whether voluntary or upon Marriage, and Warrants of Attorney to confess Judgment, when given as a security for money instead of bonds or mortgages. And Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes at more than two months after date, or sixty days after sight, are charged with higher Duties than those payable at shorter periods.

The new Duties are contained in Schedules, in which the instruments and things charged are classed and alphabetically arranged, so as to afford a complete Table of Duties, in the most convenient and practical form, and to supersede any occasion for those compilations, published by private individuals, to which the profession of the law and the public have formerly found it convenient to resort. And as the Schedules will not admit of an abridgment that can be safely relied upon, the Commissioners recommend it to the profession and others not to trust to any thing else in matters of importance.

The Acts contain various provisions for securing the Duties, which are material to be attended to by those who wish to avoid penalties. And the provisions of former Acts are to be enforced, in regard to those Duties, concerning which no new provisions are enacted. With respect to the

it is to be observed, that not only formal Receipts, but all Notes and Memorandums, whether signed or not, which shall import any acknowledgment, that a sum of £2, or upwards, has been paid, settled, balanced, or otherwise discharged or satisfied, are liable to these Duties; and that all persons paying money are intitled to have stamped Receipts, at the expence of the persons receiving it, and on tendering a proper Stamp, may insist on having a Receipt written thereon, and on being paid for the Stamp; and that all persons refusing to give such Receipt and pay for the Stamp, as well as all persons giving a Receipt, or any such Note or Memorandum as aforesaid, without a Stamp, or upon a Stamp of insufficient value, will incur a penalty of ten pounds for every offence, which will be strictly enforced on every occasion.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for repairing and altering the parish church of Saint

George the Martyr, in the county of Middlesex, and for raising money by rates upon the inhabitants of the said parish towards defraying the expences thereof; and for increasing the income of the Rector of the said parish.—Dated this 16th day of August 1815.

Thos. Farrar, Solicitor, Queen-Square, Bloomsbury.

Harbour of Whitehaven, &c.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for a Bill for continuing, amending, altering, and extending the powers and authorities of several Acts of Parliament relating to the harbour and town of Whitehaven, in the county of Cumberland, and to the roads leading to the said harbour and town of Whitehaven, and to other roads in the said county, and supplying the same with water, and for more effectually repairing, widening, and improving the said roads, and diverting part thereof, and altering and increasing the tolls arising therefrom, and for extending, paving, and lighting, and otherwise improving the said town, and for preventing disputes between the masters of vessels trading to and from the said harbour, and the crews of such vessels; and for regulating the hire and wages of labourers, carriers, and other persons employed by such masters of vessels, and the merchants and traders within the said town; and that such roads and waterworks will pass, and be carried through, the parishes and townships of Saint Bees, Rottington, Sandwith, Preston Quarter, Clifton, Workington, Winscales, Distington, Parton, Moresby, Saint Bridget's, Calder, Haile, Saint John's, Egremont, Cleator, Hensingham, Weddekar, Frizington, and Aslecdon, or some of them.

Peter How, younger, Solicitor, Whitehaven.

Queen Anne's Bounty-Office, Dean's-Yard, Westminster, August 14, 1815.

THE Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, having one hundred thousand pounds granted in the last session of Parliament, to dispose of for increasing that maintenance, do give this public notice, that they will apply it for the augmentation of livings which, by the rules of this Corporation, are fitly qualified to receive it; and that to encourage benefactions, they will give three hundred pounds to any particular cure, where any person, in order to obtain the bounty, will give two hundred pounds, or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent charge or annuity of fifteen pounds; that the Governors will receive proposals for benefactions till Christmas next, and then proceed, in the first place, to augment such livings as shall have benefactions offered and accepted, and afterwards proceed to augment in due course, by lot, such livings as are fitly qualified, until the whole sum shall be exhausted; that if any living augmented under this regulation appears to have no incumbent resident or doing the duty in person, the interest of the augmentation money is to accumulate for the benefit of the living, until there is an incumbent resident or doing the duty in person.

By order of the Governors,

Richard Burn, Secretary.
