TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1815.

In the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

GEORGE, P. R.

OUR will and pleasure is, that all French vessels and cargoes that may have been captured or detained by reason of the late declaration of hostilities against France, on any voyage to or from Martinique or Marseilles, and also all vessels and cargoes captured on a voyage from any French port at which the white flag was hoisted at the time when the vessel sailed from her port of lading, shall be released forthwith, on payment of such expences as have been duly incurred in consequence of such capture or detention.

Given at the Palace of Carlton-House, this twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-fifth year of Our reign.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, (Countersigned) BATHURST.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of August 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty, until six weeks after the commencement of the next session of Parliament, to regulate the trade and commerce carried on between His Majesty's subjects and the inhabitants of the United States

" of America," His Majesty in Council is authorised, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations with respect to duties, drawbacks, or otherwise for carrying on the trade and commerce between the people and territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain and the people and territories of the said United States, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, until six weeks after the commencement of the next session of Parliament, there shall be paid on the importation into this kingdom from the territories of the United States of America, in vessels of the said States, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, being of the growth, production, or manufacture of the said territories, the same duties of Customs that are by them payable on such goods, wares, or merchandise when imported from the United States in British vessels, and no other or higher duties of Customs; and it is hereby further ordered, that on the exportation of any goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, production, or manufacture of His Majesty's territories in Europe from this kingdom to the territories of the United States, in vessels of the said States, there shall be paid the same duties as are by law payable on such goods, wares, or merchandise when exported to the said States in British vessels, and none other or higher duties; and it is hereby further ordered, that, on the exportation from this kingdom to the United States, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, of the growth, production, or manufacture of His Majesty's territories in Europe, in vessels of the said States, there shall be paid and allowed the same bounties as are paid and allowed on such goods, wares, and merchandise when exported to the said States in British vessels: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, August 29, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous letter has been received by the Reverend Reginald Bligh, Rector of Romaldkirk, near Barnard Castle, threatening to assassinate his family and burn his dwelling house. And whereas between the 8th and 9th instant, a barn, containing a considerable quantity of hay, belonging to the said Mr. Bligh, was burned and destroyed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felonious acts abovementioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually sent the letter abovementioned, and the person who set fire to the said-barn), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Anthony Harrison, Esq. of Barnard Castle.

Whitehall, September 1, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some short time since an anonymous letter was received by Mr. Painter, of Mixbury, in the county of Oxford, threatening to burn his house, &c.; and whereas it has been represented to the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday last, the barns and ricks belonging to the said Mr. Painter, were set on fire and consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in setting fire to the said barns and ricks, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the same on fire) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by J. J. Barber Beaumont, Esq. Managing Director of the County Fire-Office, Southampton-Street.

Whitehall, September 4, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, between the hours of ten o'clock on the night of Monday the 28th, and two o'clock on the morning of Tuesday the 29th ultimo, the dwelling-house of Jane Smith, of Herrington, in the county of Durham, spinster, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, and Isabella Young, the servant girl, barbarously murdered;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious acts, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said dwelling-house on fire, and perpetrated the said murder) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Jane Smith to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

To the Managers and Directors of the Lottery.

Adelphi-Terrace.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for repairing the piers, buildings, houses, tenements, and premises, on, of, and belonging to, and commonly called the Adelphi-Terrace, within the parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the city and liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and for raising, by equal rates, assessments, or otherwise, a sufficient sum of money for that purpose on the several owners or proprietors, lessees or occupiers of such piers, buildings, houses, tenements, and premises, on, of, or belonging to the said terrace; and for other purposes.

G. and R. W. Clarkson, Essex-Street, Strand, 4th September 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, the ensuing session, to obtain an Act to enable the United Company of Proprietors of the Ellesmere and Chester Canal, to erect a new weir across the River Tannatt, at or near to a certain place called Carreghova Hall, in the county of Denbigh; and to make a cut or feeder from the said weir, and to take the water of the River Tannatt into such cut or feeder, for the purpose of supplying the said canal with water. Which said cut or feeder is intended to pass or be carried through the several parishes of Llanyrnich and Llanyblodwell, in the county of Salop, and the several townships of Aber-tannant and Carreghova, in the counties of Denbigh and Salop, to, and to communicate with, the Llanyrnich branch of the said Ellesmere and Chester Canal, immediately above the uppermost lock of the Montgomeryshire Canal, at or near to a certain place called Carreghova, in the township of Carreghova, in the said county of Denbigh, also for the purpose of obliging the said United Company of Proprietors of the Ellesmere and Chester Canal, for ever hereafter, to maintain the said weir, cut or feeder, at their own expence, and for varying and increasing the rates of tonnage at present authorised to be taken upon the said canal between a certain Lock called Aston Lock, near Maesbury, in the said county of Salop, and the junction with the Montgomeryshire Canal, at Carreghova aforesaid, and for altering and amending, the powers contained in the several Acts of Parliament relating to the said Ellesmere and Chester Canal. Leeke and Potts's, Solicitors. Chester August 28, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the twenty-second and twenty-third years of the reign of His late Majesty, King Charles the Second, "For making the Manor of Paris Garden a parish, and to enable the parishioners of St. Saviours, Southwark, to raise a maintenance for Ministers and for the repair of the church," and for altering or increasing the rate or rates granted or directed to be levied by the said Act.—Dated this 26th day of August 1815.

Aubrey and Curtis, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, explain, enlarge, and extend the powers contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually supplying with water the inhabitants of the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and also in another Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for supplying with water the towns of Manchester and Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster.

Henry Wright, Solicitor, Temple, September 1, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, explain, enlarge, and extend the powers contained in an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for building a Bridge over the river Thames, from the Precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore; and for making convenient roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the county of Surrey;" and also the powers contained in an Act passed in the fifty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for altering, enlarging, and extending the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for building a Bridge over the river Thames, at the Precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto; and making roads and avenues to communicate therewith in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey;" and also to vary or alter the line of part of the road or street called Narrow-Wall, in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and to stop up part of the said road or street; and also to make, in the said parish, a new line, street, or road, in lieu of such part of the said street or road called Narrow-Wall, as may be stopped up, and to make an archway over part of such street or road; which said street or road, called Narrow-Wall, and the intended new street or road, are situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, aforesaid.
