

the Town of Cambridge, Lynne Regis, Eye, and New Woodstock, which could not then be Published for want of Room; they here follow.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and whole Corporation of Your Majesties Loyal Town of Cambridge, being sensible of the great Blessings which we enjoy under Your Majesties Gracious Government, and heartily resenting the frequent and subtle Contrivances of a wicked Generation of Men; who under specious pretences make way to the most execrable Villanies, who put on the Masque of Religion to destroy the Church, who vow and profess to maintain Your Majesties Royal Person and Estate, when they design to extirpate Monarchy; and who by that once experimented Engine of Association, would again endeavour the Subversion of the Government, and the Ruine and Desolation of the whole Kingdom; as is most palpably notorious from that Treasonable Model of Union and Association, late found among the Earl of Shaftesburys Papers: Which notwithstanding all colours and pretences to the contrary, appears abominably Traiterous and Detestable to all Men, but packed Juries, and designing Rebels; Do therefore according to our Allegiance and bounden Duty, Protest and Declare, that we do from our Souls abhor the before-mentioned Treasonable Association, and all other Compacts and Confederacies of like nature; together with the Authors, Favourers, and Abettors of such wicked Designs, as being pernicious Enemies to the Establishd Government, a scandal to the true Protestant Religion, and the Breakers and Underminers of the Known Laws of the Nation. And in confidence of Your Majesties Gracious Acceptance of the expression of our Fidelity and Loyalty; We do again Declare and Assure Your Majesty, that we will be always ready with our Estates and Persons, to Defend Your Majesties Sacred Person, Your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as by Law established, against all Rebellious Associates, Covenanters, Conventiclers, and Conspirators whatsoever. And with all our hearts, we pray Almighty God to Grant unto Your Majesty, a long and prosperous Reign over us, to the Joy and Comfort of all Your Majesties Loyal and Dutiful Subjects. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the Fifteenth day of March, in the Four and thirtieth year of Your Majesties Gracious Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Principal Inhabitants of Your Majesties Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Lynne-Regis in Norfolk, with all Humility beg leave to repeat our due Acknowledgments of Your Royal Grace and Goodness; and Your Princely Care in the preservation of the Religion and Government, established by Law among us; and to renew our protestation of Loyal Duty and Obedience. We cannot but with gladness of Heart take notice of the Blessed unalterable Amity between Your Sacred Majesty, and the most Illustrious Prince Your Royal Brother; and with all cheerfulness rejoyce in his safe Return to Your Royal Presence, and think it our Duty to Declare and Testify to Your Majesty, our utter Detestation of all manner of Illegal and Traiterous Conspiracies; and particularly, that Horrid and Treasonable Association, late discovered at the Old-Bailey: being an hellish Design to destroy Monarchy, (the happiest of Governments.) And do most Humbly Present to Your Majesty our sincere and firm Resolutions. That we will never depart from our Allegiance; but to our utmost Abilities will assist and defend Your Royal Person; and assert and vindicate the Regal Prerogatives of Your Majesty and Your Heirs, and the rightful Succession in Your Royal Line against all Seditious Practices and Oppositions whatsoever. And when it shall be Your Royal Pleasure to require our Representatives, shall endeavour to Elect such as shall have Loyalty and Courage suitable to these Ends.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, and Subscribed our Names the Thirteenth day of March, in the Four and thirtieth year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Bayliffs, Principal Burgeses, Common-Council, and Free Burgeses of Your Majesties Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Fry, beg leave to Introduce this our Humble Address, with a most Thank'ul Acknowledgment of those unparallel'd Advantages we enjoy, by the wise Conduct of Your Majesties most Gracious Government; under which we have fallen short of no Blessing that might make us incomparably the happiest People in the World. But after this short and Dutiful Representation of our Happiness, we cannot, without astonishment, deplore those unworthy Returns Your Majesty have met with from some ill Men, whom no Favours can oblige, nor any Concessions satisfy; from whom the highest Pledges of Royal Faith can gain no Confidence, and whose restless Pride and Malice can never permit them to cease from disordering all manner of Governments: And rather then not confound the best in the World, will leave no Methods, how shameful and unworthy soever, unattempted, to court the ungrateful and discontented to confederate with them; and thereby to engage the Ignorant and Seditious to the pretended fear of those Evils, which only their own disloyal practices can possibly introduce. But among all the contrivements for Mischief which have been so popularly endeavoured in Your Majesties days, to disturb Your Royal Government; None can come in competition for the most amazing Villanies with the late horrid Conspiracy, call'd an ASSOCIATION; a Name so odious to Your Majesties Loyal Subjects of these Eastern Counties, as it's wofully remembered, that that Project did principally contribute to Your Majesties Royal Fathers, and His Kingdoms ruine. And If this last had arrived at it's designed success, it must have necessarily turned the whole Constitution of Church and State, into an Anarchical Chaos; and brought this flourishing Nation into such a Tragick Scene of Blood and Tyranny, that a Banishment from our Native Soil into the most barbarous Clime, had been an eligible refuge to retire to. This (Dread SIR,) had been the fatal consequence of that most Traiterous Confederation, of which we here profess from our Souls, to have so perfect a Detestation and Abhorrence, as may answer the endeared value we have for the security of Your Majesties Person and Government, and for the Churches and Nations universal Peace and Safety. And here we Bless the infinite Almighty, for your Sacred Majesties Care and Wisdom, in making a timely discovery of that deep and infernal Design: And if, for the further disappointment of that, and the like Treasonable Projections, our Lives and Fortunes can any way be made Instrumental, they shall ever be a ready Sacrifice for the preservation of Your Majesties Person and maintaining the Succession in its due Course. Which avowed promise, we engage our Selves to keep inviolably, as we hope ever to enjoy the Blessing of Your Majesties Royal Protection.

And all this is Agreed and Declared by, unanimous Consent, at a great Court holden at our Common Hall, the Eleventh day of March, in the Four and Thirtieth year of Your Majesties most Gracious Reign, and attested under our publick Seal.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Freemen, whose Names are hereunto Subscribed, of Your Majesties Ancient Borough of New Woodstock in the County of Oxon having read a horrid and damnable Association, which tends to Sedition and Rebellion, and an absolute Destruction of Monarchy, and the Government Established, both in Church and State: And being willing upon all Occasions to manifest our Loyalty, do declare to Your most Sacred Majesty, and the whole World, that we do absolutely Renounce, Abominate, and Abhor, that Cursed Association: And will with our Lives and Fortunes, defend Your Majesties Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, against all Papists

Papists and Phanaticks. and other Opposers whatsoever. And when Your Majesty, out of Your Princely Wisdom, shall call a Parliament, we will endeavour to choose such Men for our Representatives, as shall Maintain and Defend Your Royal Prerogative the Protestant Religion, as by Law Established, stand up for Your Lawful Successors; and give Your Majesty such just and reasonable Supplies, which we too much fear, are wanting to support the Crown. The Memory of that blessed Martyr, Your Royal Father, is daily before our Eyes; and we too plainly see the restless endeavours of the Fanaticks, and Men of Commonwealth Principles, to play their accursed (yet beloved) Game of Rebellion over again. The Great God grant Your Majesty a long, Prosperous, and Peaceable Reign; and that Your Enemies may be Confounded, and put to Shame; is the hearty Prayer of your Majesties most Faithful and Loyal Subjects. Dated under our Common Seal, the Thirtieth Day of March, in the Four and Thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

Newmarket, March 21. This day the following Address was presented to His Majesty, by the most considerable Gentlemen of Norfolk; and on this occasion, there appeared at Court above 100 Gentlemen, the best Estates in that County.

There was likewise presented to His Majesty, an Address from the County of York, and another from the Youngmen of Cambridge.

Newmarket, March 25. Yesterday were presented to His Majesty, Addresses from the County of Gloucester, Lincoln, and Suffolk, and from the City of Worcester,

His Majesty received all the above mentioned Addresses very kindly, and was pleased to assure the Gentlemen that presented them, of His Gracious acceptance thereof.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of Your Majesties County of Norfolk, at the Assizes held for the said County, at Thetford, on Friday the 17th of March, 1681. in the behalf of themselves and the Body of the said County.

May it please Your Most Excellent Majesty,

WE are so sensible of our Happiness under the best of Monarchies, and the best of Princes, and of our late Miseries under Anarchy and Phanatick Tyranny, that we think it our Duty and Interest to Declare our utmost Abhorrence of all those Republican Plots, and Traiterous Artifices, that would deprive us of the one, and reduce us to the other. In particular, we utterly Detest that Mystery of Iniquity, the late pernicious Association, seized amongst the Papers of the Earl of Shaftesbury, designed for the Destruction both of Your Majesties Person and Government; for we cannot understand how those peridious Designers of that Association should intend to preserve the Person of their Prince, and yet in the same Paper contrive the Ruine of the Monarchy: And we hope Your Majesties most eminent Wisdom, will discover some Method, to obviate the Mischief of such partial Grand Jurors as can violate their Oaths, to procure Impunity for Treason, and think it Merit to Afront and Oppose the Government.

Great Sir, we do assure you that we will faithfully Adhere to Your Majesty, for the defence of your most Sacred Person, the Execution of Your Laws, the Preservation of our Established Religion, and for the continuance of the Glory and Lineal Succession of this now flourishing Monarchy: And we would not have Your Enemies to mistake our Address for empty Compliments; for we are ready at Your Majesties first Command, to signalize our Promises, with the most resolute hazard of our Lives and Fortunes

And while we thus humbly offer to Your Majesty our serious Thoughts of what our Allegiance binds us to, we cannot but admire that great Example of Obedience, your Royal Brother, and most heartily Congratulate his safe Return to Your Majesty.

In fine, we own our selves in this County, from the civility and effectual Management of Publick Affairs, by Your most Loyal and thoroughly well Affected Lord Lieutenant, under Your Sacred Majesty, most signally happy.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects of Your Town of Cambridge, who have ever took the Oath of Allegiance; and at this time think themselves highly concerned, to enter into Vows to God and Your Majesty, against the late wicked Association.

Dread Sovereigne,

WE that in all Humility prostrate our selves in the Ocean of that Mercy and Goodness, from whence we bear of innumerable instances of Pardon to the most obnoxious; presume no less for this our early Address, which we are so forward, with all sincerity to present as a tender of our Loyalty, being sensible the youngest of us cannot hasten fast enough, under the protection of so Gracious a Prince; to whom we are obliged by the Duties of the first Breath we drew, under which, the sway of your Majesties Scepter entitles us to infinite more advantages, than any Free-born Subjects in the known World: And since our younger years; nor Implies both favoured us so far, as to bind us with the desired Oath of Allegiance, we come with as much cheerfulness of Heart, and sense of Duty, to offer and testify our Loyalty, as the most Loyal do, to repeat theirs.

Great Sir,

We concern not our selves to meddle, or advise in your State; but demonstrate our readiness to defend it, in opposition to this damnable Association, or designed Union for Rebellion, which endeavours flattery to your Majesty, but proclaims War against your nearest and dearest Relations, with animadversions upon your particular Ministers, and Persons of Trust.

And therefore (with such indignation against such abominable Proceedings) we Declare to your Majesty, in the presence of God, Angels, and Men our Abhorrence and Detestation of this Factious Covenanting Association, and do firmly Promise and Vow, with our Lives and Fortunes, to Defend your Majesties Royal Person, Crown and Dignity, and Legal succession thereof, against all Enemies whatsoever. Always praying to Almighty God to send your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, in the Defence of the best of Governments, and the Faith which we profess in the Church of England, by Law established.

In Testimony whereof, we have herunto Subscribed our Names.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Protestation of the County of Gloucester.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, with the rest of the Gentlemen and Freeholders, Met at the Assizes, and Goal Delivery, holden for the County aforesaid, at Gloucester, the 17th Day of March, 1681. Having taken notice of a Paper last published by Your Majesties special Command, setting forth the Endeavours of some Factious and Seditious Persons, to engage Your Majesties Subjects, contrary to their Duty, and Allegiance, to join in a Traiterous Association, Association, which though wail'd with the specious pretences of preserving Your Majesties Person, defending the Protestant Religion, and securing our Property, tends to nothing but a Commonwealth Confusion. which black Design, had it succeeded, we might ere this time, have seen the fatal Period of our now Established Government, in Church and State; our Selves enslav'd to a handful of Men, another monstrous Rump of a Parliament, and our Property expos'd to Rapine and Violence, as it was by Men of like Principles, in the late dreadful Rebellion, who made use of as large and specious pretences of Religion, and Loyalty, as these can pretend to; and yet having gained the Power into their own Hands, Murdered the best of Princes, almost Extinguish'd the true Protestant Religion, and Rooted the very being of Property out of the Nation. We Your Majesties laid Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects, do with all Sincerity protest, and declare against that, and all other Associations, Combinations, and Covenants, whatsoever, and by whomsoever made and carried on (to which Your Majesties Royal Assent shall not be first Legally had) as Treasonable and Seditious, and tending to the Overthrow of Your Majesties most happy Government. And We are firmly Resolved, with the hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to assist Your Majesty, Your Heirs, and Lawful Successors, in the defence of Your Royal Persons, and Prerogative, and in support of the Laws of this Your Kingdom, as now Established both in Church and State, against any Popish and Paganick Associations, or Actings whatsoever.

May it please Your most Gracious Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most Truly Loyal, and Dutiful Subjects, the Grand Jury impannell'd for the County of Lincoln, being the Representative Body thereof, with all Humility prostrate our Selves at Your Majesties Royal Feet; and conceiving our Selves in Duty oblig'd to offer to your Sacred Majesty, our Sense of that Seditious Paper, containing the Form of a Treasonable ASSOCIATION, discovered and produced at the late Proceedings against the Earl of Shelburne, do unanimously Declare our Abhorrency of those gross and manifested Treasons therein contained, as tending to the Subversion of this Ancient Happy, Monarchical Government, and to the scandal of the true Orthodox Protestant Religion, and the enslaving all Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, under that insupportable Yoke, which they too long groaned under, during your Majesties Exile, till eas'd by Your happy Re-establisment.

We humbly beg Your Majesties acceptance of this unfeign'd Testimony of our Allegiance, Declaring before God and the World, that we will at all times use the utmost of our Endeavours (as by repeated Oaths, as well as other Obligations we stand bound,) even with the hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to Defend Your Sacred Majesties Person, Crown and Dignity, your Heirs and lawful Successors, against all Rebels, Traitors, and Conspirators whatsoever, that shall at any time attempt the alteration of this happy established Government, both in Church and State, which we now enjoy under your Sacred Majesty; for whose long and prosperous Reign we shall ever pray.

From the General Assizes held at the Castle in the County of Lincoln, the Thirteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred eighty and one.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects the Grand Juries of the Assizes for the County of Wiltshire, together with the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace for the said County, being highly sensible of our Duty to Your Majesty, and also of the manifold Blessings which we enjoy by Your Gracious Reign over us; do most heartily joy with other of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects in Declaring to the World our Abhorrency of a late pernicious Paper, expos'd in Print; wherein a most Traiterous Association was drawn up in form, the Contents of it tending to the Subversion of this ancient and flourishing Monarchy, and to bring in Anarchy and Confusion. We are greatly grieved at the restless attempts of ill-designing Men against the Government, who (notwithstanding that the Remembrance of the fatal Consequences of the late Rebellion is even almost yet fresh and bleeding) would use the old Methods to embroil both Church and State, and to Involve us in the like Miseries again. And whereas the close Machinations of Seditious and Traiterous Men do still come more to light, we think our Selves bound in Duty to present to Your Sacred Majesty our unfeign'd Detestation of all such Treasonable Confederacies as by the Contrivers of the said Association have been attempted, to occasion a difference between Your Majesty and Your Royal Brother, whose Safe Return we do, with all joy imaginable, heartily Congratulate; further repeating our most sincere Professions of Loyalty and Allegiance to Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and of Obedience to the Government both in Church and State, as it is now Established by Law: Humbly assuring Your Majesty, that You have our Hearts and Prayers, and that, with our Lives and Fortunes, we are ever ready for Your Majesties Service.

Whitehal, March 23. The Lords of the Council appointed by His Majesty, to Treat with the Ambassador from the King of Fez and Morocco: having after several Meetings, concluded a Treaty of perpetual Peace between His Majesty and the King of Morocco; their Lordships and the said Ambassador met this Afternoon, and Signed the same.

Advertisements.

There was Stolen by some Persons that pretended to Assist at the Removing of Goods, at the Fire which happened at St. Jameses, on Thursday the 16th Instant, from the Lodgings of Mr. Emanuel Dyas, in St. James's-Court, near the Queens-Chappell, two Boxes, containing two Trimmings for Mens Cloths, of rich Ribbond; the one Blew and Gold, the other Yellow, Gold, and Silver: and a Box with several Pieces of Silver Ribbond, and Gold and Silver Lace in it, several Parcels of Silk-stockings, and several Laced Crevats, with divers other things. Whoever gives Notice of these or any other things, stolen from the Houle, to the said Mr. Dyas, or to the Porter of St. James's-Houle, so that they may be recovered, shall be well Rewarded, according to the Value of what they Discover.

One Thomas Viner, aged about 16 or 17 years, of a low stature, thick Lips, full Eyes, a Hyb-German, speaks very good French, but little English, in a dark coloured Periwig, his own Hair being short and white, Ran away from his Master Mr. Francis Terrell, the Resident of Tuscan, on Wednesday the 22 Instant, after Nine at night; having broken open a scrutore, and taken out one large Candlestick and Socket, one hand Candlestick, Snuff-pan, and Snuffers, four Spoons, two Forks, two Knives, all Plate; two Sets of Burtons, one Quilt, the other Silver, a Silver Box, a Gold Chain Ring, twenty Pounds in Silver, and five or six Spanish Pistols in Gold. He is in a White Cloth Livery, with yellow and black Lace, his wearing Cloaths being a dark grey Cloth Suit, and a Campaign Coat of mixt Camlet, a Gold Twist Edging about his Hat. Whoever stays him, and gives Notice to his Master, in Leicester-fields, shall have Ten Pounds Reward.

Lost in St. James's-Street, near St. James's, on Saturday last, a little white Spaniel Dog, of a Foot high, thus marked, his Ears both Yellow, some spots on his Nose one on his Shoulder, and another near his Tail of the same colour. Whosoever has found, or taken up the said Dog, if they bring him to the Lord Bodens in St. James's-Street, shall be very well rewarded for their pains.

There is now in Hersford-Goal, a short well-sett, Brown-Complexioned young Man in lad colour Cloaths, with Plate Buttons; in his Portmantle were found six Keys, supposed to be pick-Locks, and two remnants of new Holland, and a new black Hood, and a little Common-Prayer-Book with Pictures, and in the blank Leaf, Printed, Mrs Ann Kitchinman, January the Fifth, 1682, and other things. If these Goods were illegally taken from any Person, they may prosecute for the recovery of them, and the service of their Countre.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Sarvy, 1682.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 23. to Monday March 27. 1682.

Vienna, March 15.

THe 10th Instant, Count Mansfeldt, the Emperors late Envoy in France, arrived here, and has since, given his Imperial Majesty an Account of the Success of his Negotiation. The Duke of Neuburg will be here after Easter, to assist at a Council the Emperor intends to hold, concerning the present Affairs. The new Levies are making with good success.

Franckfort, March 20. The Differences that have hitherto taken up the time of the Ambassadors and other Ministers here, being now Adjusted; it is not doubted but we shall very suddenly be able to give you an account of the opening of the Conferences.

Strasburg March 20. The French work with an incredible Diligence on the new Fortifications they are making here, which will now in a short time be finished. The Troops that were ordered to March to Luxemburg, are still here. From Ratisbonne, we have advice that Monsieur Verjus, the French Minister, had by a Memorial, assured the Diet of the King, his Masters desire to continue in Peace and Friendship with the Empire; and that he had made some Proposals to the Diet, which the French Ambassador made at Franckfort, upon their first arrival there.

Cologne, March 21. The States of this Archbishoprick, in their late Assembly at Boinne, gave our Elector 200000 Crowns, with a promise farther to supply his Electoral Highness, as his occasions shall require. We are told that his Electoral Highness intends to employ these Moneys in the raising of several new Troops. The Levies that are making for the service of this City, go on very well, and people think there is the more reason to hasten them, and to make what other Provision we can for our Defence, because of the motions of the French so near us; but when we have done all, our chief reliance must be upon the assistance we expect, and are assured of from the Circle of Westphalia. The French Minister at Ratisbonne has made the same Proposals to the Dyet, that were some time since by the French Ambassador at Franckfort; and we are told that several Princes of the Empire incline to a composition, and think it more advisable in the present state of things, than a War, of which they have so lately seen the sad and calamitous effects.

Brussels, March 27. Yesterday we received a very considerable piece of News, which was, that Monsieur Pelletier, the first of the French Commissioners, at the Conferences at Contra, had acquainted those of Spain, That the King his Master, (that he might leave the Emperor, and the Princes of the Empire at liberty, to employ their Forces against the Turks, who he had Advice, were preparing to fall into Hungary.) had resolved to raise the Blockade of Luxemburg; and this day arrived here an Express from Luxemburg, with an Account, that the French Troops were actually withdrawn from before that Place. Whereupon the Orders which the Prince of Parma had issued for the bringing together 600 Waggons, to carry Provisions to Luxemburg, are countermanded: But at the same time we are not at all pleased with the account we have, that the French Troops are marching towards the Rhine (a considerable Body of them having past the Meuse at Dinant;) while others are drawing down from Lorraine and Alsace and we are informed, that the French Envoy, Monsieur Tambonneau has very much pressed the Elector of Trier, to grant them passage over the Rhine and the Moselle, but what success he has had we know not. From Cologne they write, that the Magistrates of that City have consented to receive the Troops of his Electoral Highness into their City, to strengthen their Garrison. The Marquis de Grana is hourly expected here.

Paris, March 28: The Deputies of the Clergy have Declared their Opinion in four very important Points. The First, That the King is Independent in things Temporal; That he cannot be Deposed, nor his Subjects Absolved of their Allegiance for any Cause whatever. Secondly, That a General Council is above the Pope, pursuant to the Decrees of the Council of Constance. Thirdly, That the Power of the Pope is to be limited by the ancient Canons; and that he cannot do any thing to the prejudice of the ancient usages, and the Liberties of the Gallican Church. Fourthly, That the Decisions of the Pope in points of Faith, are not Infallible, without the consent of the Church. These Articles having been presented to the King by the Archbishop of this City, and other Deputies of the Clergy, his Majesty has by a perpetual, and irrevocable Edict (which was Registered in Parliament the 23 Instant) Approved and Confirmed the same, and Commanded that these Doctrines shall be taught in all the Universities of this Kingdom.

The King is sending the Sieur Amsant, Captain at Sea, his Ambassador to the King of Morocco. From Brittany we have an Account, that the Ambassadors of the King of Liam were arrived at Port-Louis. Monsieur de Croix, Lieutenant-General of the Kings Maritime Forces, is going to Sea with five Men of War, and eight more are fitting out to joyn Monsieur du Quesne. The Marquis de Termes, who was a Prisoner in the Bastille, is now restored to his Liberty.

Whitehal, March 24. We told you in our last, that Addresses had been presented to His Majesty, from the