Carlton-House, September 28, 1815.

This day His Excellency the Count de Funchal, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Prince Regent of Portugal, had his audience of leave of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; to which he was introduced by Earl Bathurst, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in the absence of Lord Viscount Castlereagh, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Carlton-House, September 29, 1815.

This day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to invest Rear-Admiral Sir William Johnstone Hope with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Prince Regent, Rear-Admiral Sir William Johnstone Hope was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to His Royal Highness by Admiral Lord Viscount Keith, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, and Sir William Johnstone Hope, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand.

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented them to the Prince Regent, who was pleased to invest Sir William Johnstone Hope with the same; the Rear-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, and having received from His Royal Highness the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

Whitehall, September 30, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant the dignities of Earl and Marquess of the United Kingdom of Great Britain
