LONDON.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 11th of September, in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before Samuel Birch, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir Charles Price, Baronet, John Ansley, Esq. John Atkins, Esq. Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespasses, and other Misdemeanors committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or accounts of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rape-seed, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 8th day of May last, to the 5th day of August last, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a cornfactor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill, and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf: And the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.
