WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about three o'clock of the afternoon of Tuesday the 8th August, a smuggling boat, with thirteen men, full of goods, and armed, run on board the eight-oared boat belonging to the Fox cutter, in the service of the Revenue of Excise on the coast of Kent; and that the crew of the smugglers shot four of the boatmen, and, in the most brutal manner, threw them overboard, and beat, bruised, and wounded the other boatmen, and left them for dead on the wreck of their boat;

His Royal Highness, in order to bring these atrocious offenders to justice, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person having the command or direction of the said smuggling boat), who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

SIDMOUTH.

And the Commissioners of Excise do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person making such discovery of any of the offenders as aforesaid, which will be paid by their Secretary upon conviction, together with a further sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, which they likewise hereby offer in the name and by direction of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

By order of the Board,
Thomas Burton, Secretary.

Whitehall, October 2, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil disposed person or persons did on the evening of Thursday the 21st ultimo, between the hours of seven and eight, set fire to various ricks of corn, the property of Mr. John Hole, of Saunton-Court, within the parish of Braunton, in the county of Devon, which totally destroyed the same;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said corn ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered, viz. ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the West of England Fire and Life Insurance Company, the sum of FIFTY POUNDS by J. Cleveland, Esq. Lord of the Manor of Saunton, and a further sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the said Mr. John Hole, and TEN POUNDS by the Braunton Association, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

HIS Majesty's Honourable Board of Ordnance have been pleased to appoint Mr. Charles Hodgkin, of No. 21, Old City-Chambers, London, Anticorrosion Powder-Manufacturer to the Board, and have ordered him in future to be employed in the provision of that article, and other stores, as they may be required for the service of that department.

Interior Surveyor's-Office, September 29, 1815.
Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of His Majesty's Royal Letters Patent, granted to John Fisher, of Oundle, for a Patent Smoke Conductor, the said Patentee hath transferred and assigned the whole and sole management and disposal of the said articles in London, and its vicinity, unto Mr. Gregson, Charles-Street, Grosvenor-Square, Interior-Surveyor of Houses, where alone they may be had on the following terms:

The smoke-conductors, 2l. 2s each, to be paid for on delivery.

If fixed up under the direction of Mr. Gregson, then two months will be allowed for trial; and if not found to answer they may be returned, on payment of all expences incurred for fixing, and 10s. 6d. for cleaning, excepting when they may have been made purposely to order.

The charges for attending at any place, not exceeding the distance of five miles, to advise on the best methods of remedying smoky chimnies, two guineas, for which a report of the work necessary to be executed will be given.

All accounts for the remedying of these and all other defects in buildings, dependant on the properties of air, are expected to be settled within three months.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of said Court and the subsequent execution, expose and sell at public execution sale, in the month of August 1816, the cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, with all their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, both situated in a bary on the east coast of Demerary, in behalf of William Austin, qq. Davidson, and Graham, of London, as also in behalf of Johnson, Dyett, M'Garel, and Co., versus John Sutherland.

The inventory of the above named plantations is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Underwood, Hall, and Co. Copthall-Chambers, London.

The judicium of the præ and concurrence on the net proceeds of the sale of said cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, will be held by the Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantations, or otherwise, are herewith by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Court of Justice, summoned to appear in person, or by their attorney, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be holden here in the month of October 1816, in order to lay their claims in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.—Rio Demerary, this 19th July 1815.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold by auction (before the Deputy Registrar of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, in pursuance of a Decree obtained in the said Court, in a suit wherein Betty Chadwick and another are complainants, and John Critchley and others defendants), at Betty Chadwick's, the sign of the Rose and Crown, in Much Hoole, in the County of Lancaster, on Thursday the 12th day of October instant, at Five o'Clock in the Evening precisely (in such lots as are now advertised);
