HIS Majesty's Honourable Board of Ordnance have been pleased to appoint Mr. Charles Hodgkin, of No. 21, Old City-Chambers, London, Anticorrosion Powder-Manufacturer to the Board, and have ordered him in future to be employed in the provision of that article, and other stores, as they may be required for the service of that department.

Interior Surveyor's-Office, September 29, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of His Majesty's Royal Letters Patent, granted to John Fisher, of Oundle, for a Patent Smoke Conductor, the said Patentee hath transferred and assigned the whole and sole management and disposal of the said articles in London, and its vicinity, unto Mr. Gregson, Charles-Street, Grosvenor-Square, Interior-Surveyor of Houses, where alone they may be had on the following terms:

The smoke-conductors, 2l. 2s each, to be paid for on delivery.

If fixed up under the direction of Mr. Gregson, then two months will be allowed for trial; and if not found to answer they may be returned, on payment of all expences incurred for fixing, and 10s. 6d. for cleaning, excepting when they may have been made purposely to order.

The charges for attending at any place, not exceeding the distance of five miles, to advise on the best methods of remedying smoky chimnies, two guineas, for which a report of the work necessary to be executed will be given.

All accounts for the remedying of these and all other defects in buildings, dependant on the properties of air, are expected to be settled within three months.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of said Court and the subsequent execution, expose and sell at public execution sale, in the month of August 1816, the cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, with all their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, both situated in a bary on the east coast of Demerary, in behalf of William Austin, qq. Davidson, and Graham, of London, as also in behalf of Johnson, Dyett, M'Garel, and Co., versus John Sutherland.

The inventory of the above named plantations is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Underwood, Hall, and Co. Copthall-Chambers, London.

The judicium of the præ and concurrence on the net proceeds of the sale of said cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, will be held by the Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantations, or otherwise, are herewith by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Court of Justice, summoned to appear in person, or by their attorney, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be holden here in the month of October 1816, in order to lay their claims in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appearsers will be proceeded as the law directs.—Rio Demerary, this 19th July 1815.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.
