NOTICE.

The late WILLIAM BYRE's Creditors.

ALL persons having any claims or demands against the estate of William Eyre, late of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, Merchant, deceased, are requested to transmit an account, with the nature and extent thereof, to the Office of Mr. George Capes, Solicitor to the Assignee of the said William Eyre, in Epworth, in the County of Lincoln, on or before the 1st day of December next, in order that the same may be liquidated; and all persons neglecting to transmit such accounts, verified upon oath before a Master, or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, will be excluded the benefit arising from the sale of the said estates; and all persons who stand indebted to the said William Eyre or his estate, are desired to pay their respective debts to the said George Capes without delay, otherwise actions will be commenced for the recovery thereof.

WHEREAS by indenture, bearing date the 22d day of February 1815, John Hewitt, late of the City of Chester, but then of Manchester, Linen-Draper, did assign all his personal estate and effects unto a Trustee therein named, in trust for the equal benefit of all his creditors, who should execute the same as therein mentioned; notice is hereby given, that the said deed of assignment is now lying at the Office of Mr. Heslop, Solicitor, Manchester; and that unless the Creditors of the said John Hewitt, who have not already executed the said deed, do execute the same, within the period of one month from the date hereof, they will be excluded from all benefit arising therefrom.—Dated this 2d day of October 1815.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of said Court and the subsequent execution, expose and sell at public execution sale, in the month of August 1816, the cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, with all their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, both situated in a bay on the east coast of Demerary, in behalf of William Austin, qq. Davidson, and Graham, of London, as also in behalf of Johnson, Dyett, McGarel, and Co., versus John Sutherland.

The inventory of the above named plantations is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Underwood, Hall, and Co. Copthall-Chambers, London.

The judgment of the præ and concurrence on the net proceeds of the sale of said cotton plantations Dundee and Guyana Grove, will be held by the Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantations, or otherwise, are herewith by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Court of Justice, summoned to appear in person, or by their attorney, on the first day appointed for hearing, which will be holden here in the month of Oc-
