Whitehall, October 2, 1815.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil disposed person or persons did on the evening of Thursday the 21st ultimo, between the hours of seven and eight, set fire to various ricks of corn, the property of Mr. John Hole, of Saunton-Court, within the parish of Braunton, in the county of Devon, which totally destroyed the same;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said corn ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered, viz. ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the West of England Fire and Life Insurance Company, the sum of FIFTY POUNDS by J. Cleveland, Esq. Lord of the Manor of Saunton, and a further sum of FIFTY POUNDS by the said Mr. John Hole, and TEN POUNDS by the Braunton Association, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

IN obedience to an Order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 10th day of October 1815, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Ma-

His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two of the clock in the afternoon, on the 10th day of April next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them, by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled "An Act for the relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London," or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 10th day of April next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above-mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 10th day of April next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 10th day of April, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, pay to the said several persons the said principal sums, together with all interest as shall on the day, severally specified in such said declaration for the payment thereof, have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

October 17, 1815.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £60 and under £61 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Exchequer Bill Office, October 16, 1815.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of October 1814, Aids 1814, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 53; Supply 1814, £6,000,000, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 79; Vote of Credit 1814, £3,000,000, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 188.

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Wednesday the 8th day of November 1815, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Monday the 30th instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 8th of November inclusive, when the interest will cease, and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 8th day of November, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Monday the 30th instant, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 8th day of November, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Thursday the 9th day of November, and the following days.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to October 1814, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Custom-House, London, October 7, 1815.

From the Marshal's Office.
Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority from His Excellency H. W. Bentinck, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor of the Colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. given upon a petition presented for that purpose by the curators to the estate and effects of William Threlfall, deceased, under date of 2d August 1815;

I the undersigned, at the request of aforesaid Curators, do hereby summon by edict all known and unknown creditors of the estate of William Threlfall, deceased, both in his private capacity, and as having been Deputy Vendue-Master in this colony, to appear before the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their session which will be held in the month of January 1816, there to render in their claims and pretensions against aforesaid estate, to verify the same, and further to hear, after the fourth edictal summons, the Court's decision as to the preferent or concurrent right of claimants, on pain of perpetual silence to those who remain in default of rendering their claims.

This summons by edict made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this Colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 4th August 1815.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

GLAMORGANSHIRE.

To be sold, at the Ship and Castle Inn, in the Town of Neath, in the said County, on Friday the 10th day of November 1815, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, before and by order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Mr. Edward Gwyn;

A new grist mill, on an improved principle, with three pair of stones, and replete with necessary machinery and conveniences for the flour business, worked by Bolton and Watt's last improved condensing steam engine, and capable of manufacturing from one hundred to one hundred and fifty sacks of flour per week.

The mill is situate in the Town of Neath, close to the canal communicating with the collieries in the vale of Neath, and with the ironworks at Hirbain and Aberdare, near Merthyr. This situation is in every way eligible, being in a plentiful corn country, and where a ready sale will be found for the flour.

The premises are held under a lease for ninety-nine years, determinable on the decease of the survivor of three young lives, and for twenty-one years certain, commencing from the 25th March 1814.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Powell, Solicitor, Neath.
