TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1815.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of November next: And whereas by Our Order in Council of the nineteenth of this instant October, it was ordered, that the said Parliament should be prorogued on the said second day of November to Thursday the first day of February next; and that the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, should prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And whereas by Our Proclamation of the said nineteenth of this instant October, We did, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, publish and declare, that the said Parliament should, on the said first day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And whereas We, taking the premises into Our consideration, have, for divers reasons, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, ordered and declared, that the aforesaid Order in Council and Proclamation should be discharged and recalled, and that the said Parliament be prorogued from the said Thursday the second day of November to Wednesday the seventeenth day of January next; We do therefore hereby publish and declare, that the said Order in Council and Proclamation are discharged and recalled accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS REWARD.

Whitehall, October 23, 1815.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about midnight of the 18th of this month, the brig Rebecca, George Moore Gleng, owner, laying moored at the gates of Messrs. Laing's dock, in South Shields, was discovered to be on fire, and was very materially damaged; and whereas there is strong ground for suspecting that the said fire was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the vessel abovementioned) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the persons guilty of the said felony, so that they may be fully convicted thereof.

The above reward of five hundred guineas to be paid by the General Committee of the Shipping Interest of the Port of Tyne.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

November 14, 1815.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £60 and under £61 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Exchequer Bill Office, November 13, 1815.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of November 1814, viz. on Aids 1814, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 53; Supply 1814, for £6,000,000, 54 Geo. 3. cap. 79.

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office, in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Monday the 4th day of December next, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Tuesday the 28th instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 4th of December inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 4th day of December, they may be accommodated in computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Tuesday the 28th instant, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 4th day of December, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Tuesday the 5th day of December, and the following days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to November 1814, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Navy-Office, November 8, 1815.

To Mechanists and others.

Improved Signal Lanterns wanted.

AS it would be much to the advantage of His Majesty's service, to obtain Signal Lanterns of such an improved construction as would exhibit a better light than the lanterns at present in use in His Majesty's Navy; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that they will receive at their Office, in Somerset-Place, all such specimens of improved Signal Lanterns, either for oil or candle, as shall be left for inspection and trial on or before the 1st day of February 1816. And as a reward to the persons who shall produce the best constructed lanterns, a premium of fifty guineas will be paid by the said Principal Officers and Commissioners for the best specimen, and twenty-five guineas will be paid by them for the second best specimen, upon such lanterns being approved of after a trial having been made of them.

And every person who may leave a lantern at the Navy-Office, Somerset-Place, for inspection and trial, is requested to mark on such lantern his name and place of abode, in order that such lanterns as shall not be approved of by the said Commissioners, may be returned to the party who shall have left the same as aforesaid. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, November 2, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 22d instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Hammocks, Haversacks, Hoses, Colours with Tabling, Fearnought, Junk and Rope in Paper-Stuff, &c. &c. &c.

All lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, October 31, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 23d of November next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-Place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned, and which are lying at the Yards against the same expressed, viz.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Edward Budge, of Crewkerne, in the County of Somerset, Flax-Dealer, at the George Inn, in Crewkerne aforesaid, on Saturday the 25th day of November instant, between the hours of Four and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon;

Lot 1. The reversion in fee expectant on the decease of Mr. Wm. Budge, aged 70 years, of an undivided fourth part of a messuage or dwelling house, barn, stable, outhouses, court-lage, cottage, flax-works, and 84 acres (more or less) of excellent arable, meadow and orchard ground, situate at Crewkerne aforesaid, called Severalls Farm, now or late in the occupation of the said Edward Budge.

2. The reversion of three undivided fourth parts of the said messuage or dwelling-house, barn, stable, outhouses, court-lage, cottage, flax-works, and 84 acres of arable, meadow and orchard ground, two of the whole and entirety of one acre (more or less) of meadow or pasture land, and of two acres and a quarter (more or less) of arable land, situate at Crewkerne aforesaid, part of the said farm; and also of a yearly quit rent of 40s. for the life of the said Edward Budge, aged 40 years, expectant on the decease of the said William Budge with an ultimate remainder; and also the interest of 1000l. for the life of the said Edward Budge, after the decease of the said William Budge.

3. All that close of arable land called Cleeves, containing by estimation 8 acres (more or less) situate in Crewkerne aforesaid, for a term of 99 years, to commence after the decease of Ann Munford, aged 68 years, and to be determinable on the deaths of three lives, with the privilege of adding three new lives, gratis; after the decease of the said Ann Munford.

4. An undivided fourth part of a close of meadow or pasture land called Westcumbes, containing by estimation 6 acres (more or less) situate at Westerton, in the County of Dorset, for the life of the said Edward Budge, now in the possession of Mrs. Grace Palmer.

5. The beneficial interest in a lease of the above farm and close called Cleeves, for three years and half certain, from Michaelmas last, under the yearly rent of 140l.; landlord paying all taxes.

The first lot is subject to a contingent interest therein for the life of John Budge, aged 64 years, in the event of his surviving the said William Budge and Edward Budge, and the second lot is subject to the payment of a clear annual sum of 50l. after the decease of the said William Budge; during the joint lives of the said Edward Budge and Elizabeth his wife.

N.B. The interest of the said William Budge in lot 1, who is entitled to the same for life, if the said John Budge shall so long live, will also be sold, as will his interest for the life of Ann Munford in lot 3, so that the purchasers may have immediate possession.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Beard, Solicitor, Crewkerne, who will direct a person to shew the premises.
