

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 30. to Monday April 3. 1682.

Vienna, March 18.

Several Consultations have of late been held here, concerning the Affairs of Hungary; and it is said, that the Emperor is sending the Count of Saponara to Court Teckelej, to divert him from entering into any Engagements with the Turks. The Duke of Lorraine has been very ill since our last, and his Fever is returned upon him with so much violence, that he seems to be in much Danger. The Emperor has appointed a general review of his Forces at Egra in the Month of April, at which he will be himself present; and we are told that the Elector of Bavaria will be likewise there, and that his Electoral Highness has given out Commissions for the Raising of Five new Regiments.

Cologne, April 3. The First Instant dy'd here Egon de Furstemberg, Bishop of Strasburg, after a sickness of fifteen days; by his death several great Benefices are become vacant. The States of the Circle of Westphalia are still Assembled at Duisburg, and it's not doubted but before they separate, they will provide for the security of this City; The Magistrates thereof hasten what they can, the new Leavies, that they may perform the obligation that lies upon them, of having 2000 Men at their charge in Garrison here: though since the Advice we had of the raising the Blockade of Luxemburg, there are some, who seem to be of opinion, that the State of things is very much changed, and that there is now no much need as there was before, of putting a great Garrison into this place. From Frankfort there are Letters which say, That the Troops of the Circle of Franconia, and especially those of Bamberg and Wurtsburg, had received Orders to March, under the command of the Baron de Leye; and that it was believed they were designed for the relief of Luxemburg; if so, the raising of the Blockade will put a stop to their March.

Hamburg, April 3. Our Northern Letters tell us, that the Kings of Sweden and Denmark intend each of them to have a good Squadron of Men of War at Sea this next Summer, but speak not of any particular design they are to be employed in. It is the general belief, that some important Matters are Treating between the Courts of Denmark and France, for that several Expresses have of late passed to and fro; And that the King of Denmark and the Elector of Brandenburg do embrace one Interest. The King of Denmark has Commanded 2000 Men of his Troops that are quartered in Holslein, to march into the County of Oldenburg.

Liege, April 6. On Friday last arrived here the Prince of Parma, late Governor of the Spanish Netherlands; he was some hours after his arrival Complimented by our Magistrates. His Highness intends to stay six or seven days here, to expect his Servants and Equipage that are to follow him from Brussels. We have an account of the death of the Bishop of Strasburg, and many think it will be followed with some change in Affairs in the Court of the Elector of Cologne, which is believed to have been very much influenced by the said Bishop. We are told that the differences between his Electoral Highness and this City are composed; and that our Magistrates have thereupon resolved to discharge the Troops they had raised.

Hague, April 7. The States of Holland meet again next Wednesday, against which time we expect his Highness the Prince of Orange here. The States-General have communicated their Resolutions, in answer to the late Memorials of the French Ambassador, and of the Spanish Envoye, to the Foreign Ministers residing here. There is a report that a Treaty is lately concluded between the French King and the King of Denmark, and that by virtue thereof, the latter is to receive considerable Subsidies. Our Letters from Brussels give us an account, That the Marquis de Grana had taken upon him the Government of the Spanish-Netherlands; and that his Predecessor the Prince of Parma had, the day before his Commission was publicly Declared, privately left Brussels, and taken his journey for Germany, intending to go that way for Italy; That this sudden change had very much surprized many persons, and particularly those, who had raised considerable sums of Money at his Highnesses desire.

Brussels, April 3. In our last, you had an account of the arrival of the Marquis de Grana, whose Commission, by which he is constituted Governor-General of these Provinces, has been since declared. On Wednesday last, the Prince of Parma parted from hence very privately, being only accompanied with his Son, and the Count de Vigolini; He lay that night at Louvain, the next at St. Tron, and will be this night at Liege, where he resolved to stay some Days to expect his Servants, and then to continue his Journey by the way of Germany, for Italy. Immediately after the Prince of Parma's departure, the Marquis de Grana took upon him the Government, and was Complimented by all the Generals, Ministers of State, and the several Councils, as also by the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Quality. Some days since arrived here an Officer, sent by the Prince of Chimay Governor of Luxemburg with an account that the French Troops were withdrawn from before that Place. From Cologne we have advice, that the Bishop of Strasburg was very ill, and that there were hardly any hopes of his recovery.

Brussels, April 7. On Sunday last, the Marquis de Grana, Governor-General of the Spanish-Netherlands, went to the Cathedral, where Te Deum was sung: He was accompanied thither, and back from thence to the Palace, with all the Solemnity usual on such occasions; and afterwards received the Complements of the whole Court. Yesterday his Excellency entered upon Publick Business, and gave Audience.

Audience. He has continued the Captains of the Guards, that were before: Has sent Orders to the Governors of the several Provinces, to send him exact Lists of the Troops within their respective Governments. And it is said that his Excellency will make a great Reform in the Army, intending to keep on foot no more Troops, than he can well and regularly Pay. The last Orders from Spain, brought the Prince of Barbançon, Governor of Namur, the Order of the Golden Fleece, but the Day for performing the Ceremony of his Insalment, is not yet appointed. From Liege we hear, that the Differences between the Elector of Cologne, and that City, are finally Composed. The Bishop of Strasburg is Dead.

Newmarket, April 1. The following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty, who received them very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury for the County of Suffex, at the Assizes held at East-Gristed, the 20th day of March, Anno Dom. 1681. Who humbly recommend the same to the Honourable Bench, for their concurrence therein.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County aforesaid, being truly sensible of the great Blessings we have ever enjoyed under your Majesties most Gracious Reign over us, and of the Mischiefs, Troubles, and Confusions we constantly laboured under, before your happy Restauration; cannot but embrace all publique opportunities, wherein we may Declare and Publish to the whole World, our firm and establish'd Resolutions, cordially and unanimously to lay down our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence and Preservation of your Majesties most Sacred Person, and lawful Successor, and the Government, as it is now established by Law, both in Church and State; And in order thereunto, we do apprehend it a most necessary part of our Duty, publicly to Declare to the whole World, our utmost Hatred and Detestation of that late Paper of Association, produced at the proceedings of the Earl of Shaftesbury, and of all Associations, Confederacies, and Contrivances, which tend to the alteration or disturbance of this Blessed Government, we now happily live under; being fully satisfied that such Designs will as certainly destroy the present Government, and your Majesties Sacred Person, as that accursed Solemn League and Covenant did the Government, and Person of that Royal Martyr your Father, of our Blessed Memory. We are,

Dread SIR,

Your Majesties most Obedient Subjects,

We whose Names are herunto Subscribed, Justices of the Peace of the said County, do concur with the Grand Jury in this Address.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesties ancient Burrough of Derby, reflecting upon the late discovered rebellious and detestable Association; and considering that it is the common practice of all Rebels, Conspirators, and Traitors, to enter into Leagues, Covenants, and Associations, to carry on, promote, and uphold their Treasonable and rebellious Designs and Practices; which to the end they may the better deceive and corrupt the common sort of People, are always-cloaked with pretence of Religion and Liberty; the only things pretended to, and least designed: We could not choose, out of our deep sense, but believe that this Association was contrived and endeavoured to be carried on by Men of the same Principles with those that Murdered your Royal Father, and brought us into those Confusions and Slavery, that nothing but your Majesties happy Restauration could have delivered us from. To the end therefore that we may clear our selves from having any hand in the contrivance, carrying on, or encouragement of the said Association; We do hereby humbly and heartily Declare to Your Sacred Majesty, That we do utterly Abhor and Detest the same; and do hereby assure your Majesty, that we will with our Lives and Fortunes, Defend your Royal Person, and lawful Heirs and Successors, the Government of the Church and State, as the same is established by Law, against all Traiterous Associations, Leagues, Covenants, Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever.

Given under our Common Seal the Sixth day of March, in the Thirty fourth year of Your Majesties happy Reign over us. Sealed at a Common Hall the 6th of March

Edward Walker, Mayor.

John Bagnold, Town-Clerk.

Subscribed by near 400.

Advertisements.

This is to give Notice, that one Mr. Edward Harrison, a tall luffy raw-bon'd Man, thin pale Face'd, Squint Eyed, hook No'd, Sandy curl'd short Hair, a lichte Grey loose Coat; he is ran away with a good sum of Money from the Right Honourable the Lady Darri, in Newport Street near St. Martins in the Fields, London. Whoever can seize and secure the said Edward Harrison, and bring word to Mr. Pearson at the said Ladies House; or to Mr. Richard Littleton a Stationer, on the backside of the Royal Exchange, shall have five pounds for his pains.

All manner of Persons that have not yet Signed the Articles, proposed by Mr. John Saley, late of Court-Garden, Goldsmith, for satisfying his Creditors, are hereby desired to take notice, that the greatest part of the dissenting Creditors, that have wot as yet Signed and Sealed the said Articles, at the request and sure promise of Mr. Saley's making good performance of the said Articles, have appointed to Signe and Seal the said Articles, on Monday the 10th of this instant April, at the Red Tavern in Court-Garden, between the hours of Two and Six in the Afternoon of the same day, where such Dissenters as have any objection for not doing thereof, will have satisfaction against such their Objections.

Lost from a Gentlemans Lodgings at St. James's, a black and white Bitch made exactly like a Greyhound, but very hard, being scarce a Foot high, one of her fore-Feet a little crooked, having been broke and not well set. Whoever gives notice of her to the Porter of St. James's Gate, shall have two Quinias reward.

There are to give notice to all Horsemen, that Mr. John Cook of Fawley in Oxfordshire, hath lately invented a Spring Snaffle, that Commandeth with the greatest ease imaginable, all hard-mouthed Run-away Horses, stumbling, or starting Horses, and those that ride heavy in hadd, and is useful for Running, Hunting, and Travel, and are to be sold by Mr. B. Noel, at the White Lyon near the Exchange in the Strand, Mr. Figer, at the White Horse in Fleetstreet, Mr. Lintley at the Black Horse in Gracious Street, Mr. Aldwin in Finsbury-Felds, Mr. Pinner against the Red Lyon Inn in Ho Lane, and Mr. Golden at the White Horse in Whitechapel Street in Southwark.

Lost out of a Yard at Hamsted, the 28th of March last, a Bay Gelding, four years old, 14 hands high, marked on the near side with an R and on the far side with a B some white Hairs in his Forehead, and a Whiske Tail. Whoever gives notice of the said Horse, to Mr. Morgan, Barber, next door to the Cock and Dolphin in Gray-Inn-Lane, shall have a Quinias reward.