

Whitehall, October 28, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto William Henry Webley, Esq. a Post Captain in the Royal Navy, Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Swedish Military Order of the Sword, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his relation Frances Gwynne, formerly of Noyadd, in the county of Cardigan, and late of the city of Bath, in the county of Somerset, widow, deceased, daughter of David Parry, late of Noyadd aforesaid, Esq. also deceased, and relict of Marmaduke Gwynne, late of Garth, in the county of Brecon, Esq. he the said William Henry Webley and his issue may henceforward use, assume, and take the surname of Parry, in addition to and after that of Webley, and bear the arms of Parry quarterly with those of Webley; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 17, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about eleven o'clock on the night of Monday the 6th instant, a fire broke out in the rick-yard of Mr. John Denne, at Tewin Bury Farm, Welwyn, in the county of Hertford, and that there is every reason to suppose that the said ricks were set on fire by some malicious person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Mr. L. Frank, Agent to the Norwich Union Fire-Office, at Welwyn.

FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS REWARD.

Whitehall, October 23, 1815.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about midnight of the 18th of this month, the brig Renown, George Moor's Cleigh, owner, laying moored at the gates of Messrs. Laing's dock, in South Shields, was discovered to be on fire, and was very materially damaged; and whereas there is strong ground for suspecting that the said fire was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony abovementioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the vessel abovementioned) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the persons guilty of the said felony, so that they may be duly convicted thereof.

The above reward of five hundred guineas to be paid by the General Committee of the Shipping Interest of the Port of Tyne.

Whitehall, October 2, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil disposed person or persons did on the evening of Thursday the 21st ultimo, between the hours of seven and eight, set fire to various ricks of corn, the property of Mr. John Hole, of Saunton-Court, within the parish of Braunton, in the county of Devon, which totally destroyed the same;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said corn ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered, viz. ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the West of England Fire and Life Insurance Company, the sum of FIFTY POUNDS by J. Cleveland, Esq. Lord of the Manor of Saunton, and a further sum of FIFTY
