

cept as is before accepted), to be paid on the conviction of such offenders, by Messrs. Messiter, Wincanton.

Whitehall, December 2, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Saturday the 7th day of October last, an outhouse at Howick-Farm, belonging to William Curre, Esq of Itton-Court, near Chepstow, in which was a large thrashing machine, was discovered to be on fire, whereby the same, together with a quantity of grain and the machine were totally destroyed, and a poor man, who slept in the building, perished in the flames: And whereas, nearly about the same time, an outhouse at Itton-Court, about half a mile distant from Howick, in which was also a thrashing machine, was discovered to be on fire, and there is every reason to believe that both such buildings were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before accepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Messrs. Evans and Son, Solicitors, in Chepstow.

Admiralty-Office, December 11, 1815.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the brig Concorde, of Boulogne, of the burthen of ninety-five tons, whereof Mr. Moleux Crony was owner, and Jaques Francois Douzy, master, laden with wine and brandy, having sailed from Certe, bound to Antwerp, on the 28th September last, was wrecked off Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, on the 1st instant, and totally lost, together with her cargo; but that the whole of the crew were saved.

J. W. CROKER.

Admiralty-Office, November 20, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Tuesday the 19th of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

Prize-Money.—Revocation of a Licence.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
December 11, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the payment of navy prize-money, and the transmission of accounts and payment of balances into Greenwich-Hospital," I do hereby revoke the licence granted to Mr. John Woodham, late of No. 2, Golden-Lion-Lane, Portsmouth, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships

The revocation of which licence is on the ground of his having changed his place of abode without giving information thereof. GEORGE ROSE.
