By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION.

For a Public Thanksgiving.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great goodness, to put an end to the war in which We were engaged against France; We, therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly considering, that the great and public blessings of peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His mercies, be observed throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Thursday the eighteenth day of January next; and for the better and more devout solemnization of the same, We have given directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer, suitable to this occasion, to be used in all churches and chapels, and other places of public worship, and to take care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective dioceses; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of suffering such punishment as may be justly inflicted upon all such as contemn or neglect the same.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign;

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION.

For a Public Thanksgiving.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great goodness, to put an end to the war in which We were engaged against France; We, therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly considering, that the great and public blessings of peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His mercies, be observed throughout that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the eighteenth day of January next; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects in Scotland, on the said eighteenth day of January next, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as may be justly inflicted on all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so religious a duty: Our will and pleasure is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in His Majesty's name and authority, make publication thereof, that none pretend ignorance: and Our will and pleasure is, that His Majesty's Solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several shires, Stewards of stewartries, and Bailiffs of regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send copies thereof to the several parish churches within their bounds, that, upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

Commission in the West Essex Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Essex.

Hugh George Gibson, Gent. to be Ensign. Dated November 18, 1815.

Whitehall, December 21, 1815.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Casson, of the town and county of the town of Southampton, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 22, 1815.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Daniels, of Witham, in the county of Essex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 15, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about eleven o'clock in the night of Saturday the 25th ultimo, a large newly-erected shed, belonging to Messrs. Provis, in the town of Warminster, was discovered to be on fire, and that the same, together with three waggons, laden with unthreshed beans, were entirely consumed; and that there is every reason to suppose, that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire, by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said shed on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Messrs. Provins; and a further sum of FIFTY GUINEAS by the inhabitants of the said town, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
November 4, 1815.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salters'-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 8th day of May next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undernamed farm, will be let on lease, to commence upon the 12th day of May next, for the term of fourteen years, that is to say, Rawgreen Farm, in the parish of Hexham, in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Tuesday the 7th day of May next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenant being at the expense of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expense of the leases.

Mr. William Sample, of Brunton, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Forster and Wiles, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.
