By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

For a Public Thanksgiving.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great goodness, to put an end to the war in which We were engaged against France; We, therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly considering, that the great and public blessings of peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His mercies, be observed throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Thursday the eighteenth day of January next, and for the better and more devout solemnization of the same, We have given directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer, suitable to this occasion, to be used in all churches and chapels, and other places of public worship, and to take care for the timely publication of the same throughout their respective dioceses; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of suffering such punishment as may be justly inflicted upon all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so religious a duty: Our will and pleasure is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in His Majesty's name and authority, make publication thereof, that none pretend ignorance: Our will and pleasure is, that His Majesty's Solitors do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several shires, Stewards of escheatries, and Bailiffs of regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send copies thereof to the several parish churches within their bounds, that, upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the

BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued until Wednesday the seventeenth day of January next; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great-Britain to procure a Commission for proctoring the same according to law. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the first day of February next, be held and sit for the discussion of matters urgent and important affairs: And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the first day of February next, be held and sit for the discussion of matters spiritual and temporal, and the Knights, Esquires, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Knights and Burgesses of the House of Commons; and His Majesty required and commanded to give their assent thereto accordingly, at Westminster, on the said first day of February next.

Given at the Court of Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, December 15, 1815.
By His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about eleven o'clock in the night of Saturday the 25th ultmo, a large newly-erected shed belonging to Messrs. Provis, in the town of Warrington, was discovered to be on fire, and that the stable together with three wagons, laden with unthreshed beasts, were entirely consumed; and that there is every reason to suppose, that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some supposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending, His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending, and rewarding, persons concerned in the said offence, has been pleased, in the name of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to promise His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to any one of them (except his own) who shall apprehend, his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending, and rewarding, persons concerned in the said offence, has been pleased, in the name of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to promise His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to any one of them (except his own) who shall apprehend, his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 12, 1815.

FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said MESSRS. PROVIS, and a further sum of FIFTEEN GUINEAS by the Inhabitants of the said town, to any person (except his, her, or their accomplice) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 12, 1815.
SIDMOUTH.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that during the night of Tuesday the 28th ultimo, a barge, loaded with loaf sugar, in being, was forcibly taken from alongside a ship at Hermitage-Station, and, after confining the water-mani, taken through Bridge and Punkefield off Hull sugar to the value of some hundreds of pounds;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Royal Highness, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of those who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, December 9, 1815;

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Saturday the 18th ultmo, between the hours of eleven and twelve at night, John Cox, a man in the employ of the Right Honourable the Earl of Chester and Sir Richard Colt Hoare, Bart.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending, was shot at and severely wounded by one of a party.

of three poachers, in Stavordale-Wood, in the County of Stafford.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who shot at and wounded the said poacher), who shall discover his accomplices thereto, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Earl of Ilchester and Sir Richard Colt Hoare to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of such offenders, by Messrs. Messiter, Wincanton.

Whitehall, December 2, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; that, in the night of Saturday the 7th day of October last, an outhouse at Howick-Farm, belonging to ~~William~~ Cunne, Esq of Itton-Court, near Chepstow, in which was a large threshing machine, was discovered to be on fire, whereby the same, together with a quantity of grain and the machine were totally destroyed, and a poor man, who slept in the building, perished in the flames: And whereas, nearly about the same time, an outhouse at Itton-Court, about half a mile distant from Howick, in which was also a threshing machine, was discovered to be on fire, and there is every reason to believe that both such buildings were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Messrs. Evans and Son, Solicitors, in Chepstow.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET PLACE,

December 23, 1815.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Cent in Reduced Shillings Admitting, sold and delivered by Bank of England daily, is 95 Shillings and 10 pence per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
December 26, 1815.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the first lottery 1815, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Friday the 12th day of January next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon until one o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets of the said lottery to be examined for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament that behalf.

And for better dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the benefit tickets, numbered from No. 1 to No. 10,000, at one seat, and the benefit tickets, numbered from No. 10,001 to No. 20,000, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, and adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the names and proper additions of the persons entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Friday the 12th day of January next; after which the Commissioners will take in and enter tickets on their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to take notice, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that tickets brought to the Office for payment, the checks of which are torn or destroyed, will not be entered for payment without a bond being given to indemnify the said Commissioners for granting certificates for the same.

Navy-Office, December 22, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 1st January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Robert Balfour will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard of Chatham, several lots of Xams.

All lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

NTHE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt, dated, the 15th day of April 1801, awarded, and published, forth against David Phillips, of Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex, & of St. James, Westminster, and Horse-Drawery, instead of the 16th day of January next, at 12 o'clock, noon.

Divided into the Positive and Negative parts from the former, it will be seen that the former is divided into two parts, the first of which is the "positive" part, and the second is the "negative" part. The first part consists of the "positive" propositions, and the second part consists of the "negative" propositions. The "positive" propositions are those which are true in all cases, and the "negative" propositions are those which are false in all cases.

THE Creditors of the Estate of John Smith, deceased, will meet at the office of the Sheriff, in London, on the 1st of January next (and not on the 16th of January, as is commonly thought), at 10 o'clock at Night, to consider the Settlement of the Estate and Effects of the said John Smith, and where the Creditors who have not already pro-will be exchanged for the benefit of the claimants not then pereor with the disallowance.

N.H.E. Commissioned Capt. F. Conant, of the Boston Engineering Department, to make a survey of the existing water system, and to propose a plan for the extension of the same. Captain Conant's report was submitted to the Board of Aldermen of the City of London, December 1st, 1845, and was adopted by them on the 4th, 1846. The work was begun in the February following, and completed in a period of about six months. The cost of the work, including the purchase of land, was $15,000.
The new reservoir, which stands on the hill above the old one, is situated on the site of the former one, and is connected with it by a pipe line. It is a large, circular stone structure, with a capacity of about 1,000,000 gallons. The water is raised from the reservoir by a pump, and is distributed throughout the city by a network of pipes.
