TUESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1816.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable William Pitt Lord Amherst was, by command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Public Thanksgiving.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great goodness, to put an end to the war in which We were engaged against France; We, therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly considering, that the great and public blessings of peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding,
that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His mercies, be observed throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Thursday the eighteenth day of January next; and for the better and more devout solemnization of the same, We have given directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right

Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer, suitable to this occasion, to be used in all churches and chapels, and other places of public worship, and to take care for the timely dispensing of the same throughout their respective dioceses; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of suffering such punishment as may be justly inflicted upon all such as contemn or neglect the same.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Public Thanksgiving.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great goodness, to put an end to the war in which We were engaged against France; We,
therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly
considering, that the great and public blessings of
peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, in the name and on the
behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding,
that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His mercies, be observed throughout that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the eighteenth day of January next; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects in Scotland, on the said eighteenth day of January next, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as may be justly inflicted on all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so religious a duty: Our will and pleasure is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in His Majesty's name and authority, make publication thereof; that none pretend ignorance: and Our will and pleasure is, that His Majesty's Solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several shires, Stewarts of stewartries, and Bailiffs of regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send copies thereof to the several parish churches within their bounds, that, upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Wednesday the seventeenth day of January next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said seventeenth day of January to Thursday the first day of February next; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the first day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said first day of February next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, December 30, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto William Alers, of the city of London, and of Hackney, in the county of Middlesex, Banker, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Hankey, in addition to that of Alers, and bear the arms of Hankey only; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 30, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Calverley Bewicke Anderson, of Close-House, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and take the surname of Bewicke only, and also bear the arms of Bewicke, in compliance with the last will and testament of his maternal uncle Calverley Bewicke, late of Close-House aforesaid, Esq. deceased ; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Notice is hereby given, that, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the common and open fields, meadows, commonable lands, and waste grounds, in the parish of Uffington, in the county of Lincoln ;" I the Reverend Brownlow Villiers Layard, Rector of Uffington aforesaid, do intend to apply at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the division of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or otherwise, as in the said Act is directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the period of ten years then last past.—Dated this 1st day of January 1816

B. V. Layard, Rector of Uffington.

In the Reverend Peter Lieve, Clerk, Vicar of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester, do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, common meadows, common pastures, and other commonable lands and grounds, in the parish of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester," I intend to apply to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, on Tuesday the 23d day of April next, being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county, in the week next after the close of the Feast of Easter, next after the expiration of twenty-one years after the making of the award of the Commissioners appointed by the said Act for the said inclosure, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the ten years then last past.—Dated this 21st day of December 1815.

P. Lieve.

In the Reverend George Foxton, Clerk, A. M. Vicar and Incumbent of the vicarage and parish church of Queneborough, in the county of Leicester, do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the power and authority given to me in this behalf in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, "for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open fields, meadows, and commonable grounds, in the parish or lordship of Queneborough, in the county of Leicester," I shall, in the manner prescribed in the said Act, apply to the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the mode and in the manner prescribed in the said Act, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the ten years then last past ; and for the purpose of ascertaining, as in the said Act mentioned, whether any or what variation in the amount of the yearly rent or sum now payable to me as Vicar of the said vicarage and parish church, in lieu of tythes and other payments by virtue of the said Act, shall be declared by the order of the Court of Quarter Sessions, to be held in the first week after the Feast of the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr next ensuing, in consequence of the directions for variation contained in the said Act of Parliament.—Dated this 15th day of December 1815.

George Foxton.
