And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 30, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Calverley Bewicke Anderson, of Close-House, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and take the surname of Bewicke only, and also bear the arms of Bewicke, in compliance with the last will and testament of his maternal uncle Calverley Bewicke, late of Close-House aforesaid, Esq. deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect :

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Notice is hereby given, that, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the common and open fields, meadows, commonable lands, and waste grounds, in the parish of Uffington, in the county of Lincoln;" I the Reverend Brownlow Villiers Layard, Rector of Uffington aforesaid, do intend to apply at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the division of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or otherwise, as in the said Act is directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the period of ten years then last past.—Dated this 1st day of January 1816

B. V. Layard, Rector of Uffington.

I The Reverend Peter Lieve, Clerk, Vicar of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester, do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, common meadows, common pastures, and other commonable lands and grounds, in the parish of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester," I intend to apply to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, on Tuesday the 23d day of April next, being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county, in the week next after the close of the Feast of Easter, next after the expiration of twenty-one years after the making of the award of the Commissioners appointed by the said Act for the said inclosure, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the ten years then last past.—Dated this 21st day of December 1815.

P. Lieve.

I The Reverend George Foxton, Clerk, A. M. Vicar and Incumbent of the vicarage and parish church of Queneborough, in the county of Leicester, do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the power and authority given to me in this behalf in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, "for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open fields, meadows, and commonable grounds, in the parish or lordship of Queneborough, in the county of Leicester," I shall, in the manner prescribed in the said Act, apply to the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, in the week after the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the mode and in the manner prescribed in the said Act, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the ten years then last past; and for the purpose of ascertaining, as in the said Act mentioned, whether any or what variation in the amount of the yearly rent or sum now payable to me as Vicar of the said vicarage and parish church, in lieu of tythes and other payments by virtue of the said Act, shall be declared by the order of the Court of Quarter Sessions, to be held in the first week after the Feast of the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr next ensuing, in consequence of the directions for variation contained in the said Act of Parliament.—Dated this 15th day of December 1815.

George Foxton.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

January 2, 1816.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £59 and under £60 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.
