Navy-Office, February 5, 1816.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers from the 30th September to the 31st December 1815, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 12th, Tuesday the 13th, and Wednesday the 14th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Thursday the 15th, Friday the 16th, Monday the 19th, and Tuesday the 20th instant, to Lieutenants, Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On Wednesday the 21st and Thursday the 22d instant, to Masters, Pursers, and Surgeons, and their Attornies.

After which the list will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st December 1815, will commence paying on the 12th instant; and all persons desirous of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

MRS. HOLWORTHY, late of St. Mary's, Southampton, having, by Deed of Assignment, transferred all her effects to Trustees, for the benefit of her Creditors, which Deed is now lying at the Office of Mr. Marett, Attorney, Southampton, for the signatures of all Creditors who intend to take the benefit thereof.—All claims on the estate are requested to be sent to Mr. Edward Lucas, No. 157, High-Street, Southampton; and all persons who stand indebted to the estate are requested to pay the same to the said Edward Lucas, one of the Trustees, who is duly authorised to receive the same, and give a discharge.

FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS REWARD.—FORGERY.

Whereas a true Bill of Indictment was preferred to and found by the Grand Jury at the last General Sessions of Oyer and Terminer for the City of London against James Cuddihy, of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in Ireland, Butter-Merchant, for forging and counterfeiting, or causing to be forged and counterfeited, a certain Bill of Lading, purporting that 330 firkins of butter had been shipped by the said James Cuddihy on board the ship Larke, of Exeter, Edward Hallahan, Master, and for fraudulently procuring advances on such forged Bill of Lading from Messrs. Isaac and John Collimore the younger, of Church-Court, Clement's-Lane, London, Provision and Insurance-Agents and Merchants, and other persons, to which Indictment the said James Cuddihy hath not appeared or pleaded.

And whereas the said James Cuddihy also stands charged upon oath before the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of the City of London with forging and counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged and counterfeited, other Bills of Lading and documents, purporting that very considerable quantities of butter had been shipped on board the said ship Larke, and also another ship called the Neiley, whereof Samuel Carlile is Master, whereby the said James Cuddihy hath obtained money to the amount of 20,000*l.* and upwards, upon which charge the said Lord Mayor hath issued his warrants for the apprehension of the said James Cuddihy.

This is therefore to give notice, that whoever will legally apprehend, or cause to be legally apprehended, the said James Cuddihy, and lodge or so cause him to be lodged in safe custody in any of His Majesty's prisons in England or Ireland, so that he may be brought to justice to answer for the aforesaid offence, shall, upon conviction, receive a reward of 500 Guineas, on applying at the Office of Messrs. Tomlinsons, Thomson, and Baker, Solicitors, in Coptball-Court, London, or to Messrs. Carter and Rooke, Solicitors, Dawson-Street, Dublin.

The abovementioned James Cuddihy appears to be about twenty-five years of age, is about five feet seven inches high, rather broad shouldered, thick made and bony, but not fat, stoops a little, has a broad face, sharpening towards the chin, which is rather prominent, winks with both eyes, and frowns while speaking, has a down look, is cool and quiet in his manner, and speaks illiterately, with much of the Irish accent.

TOMLINSONS, THOMSON, AND BAKER.

costs and expences incurred, with a view to the adjustment of the affairs of the said Bankrupt, previous to the issuing of the said Commission, by a conveyance and assignment for the benefit of the Creditors; and other proceedings had under the sanction of the major part of the Creditors, and for business done incident thereto. Also, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying any sum or sums of money, due to any person or persons from the said Bankrupt, and for which such person or persons have or hath any deeds, relating to the said Bankrupt's estate, in his, her, or their hands or power, as a security or lien. Also, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or defence of any of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or otherwise relating thereto, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto. Also, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees fulfilling certain contracts entered into by the said Bankrupt with certain persons trading under the firm of the Penner Colliery Company, bearing date respectively 18th May, 1815, for letting to them certain collieries and premises in the County of Monmouth, and to their granting leases thereon, and paying and discharging the costs and expences already incurred and to be incurred in, about, and attending such contracts and leases to be granted in pursuance thereof. Also, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees retaining the freehold, copyhold, or leasehold estates of the said Bankrupt in their hands, instead of proceeding to the sale thereof, and to their receiving the annual income and proceeds arising therefrom, and dividing the same among the Creditors in proportion to their respective debts, till the whole of the said Bankrupt's debts shall be discharged; and to use and take the like course in respect of the same, as was intended to have been used and taken under the said conveyance and assignment, in case the same had proceeded, or as near thereto as the alteration of circumstances will permit, and the said Assignees may deem advisable. Also, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to settle and adjust the accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to allow him such compensation out of the said Bankrupt's estate as the said Assignees may think proper; and on other special affairs.
