SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1816.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 15, 1816.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday next the 21st instant, at two o'clock.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of the appointment of Henry Thomas Howard Molyneux, Esq. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the city of Gloucester, brother to the Most Noble Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal and Hereditary Marshal of England, to be Deputy Earl Marshal of England.

Crown-Office, March 16, 1816.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of West Looe.

The Honourable Henry William Fitzgerald De Roos, of Boyle-Farm, in the county of Surrey, in the room of Charles Buller, Esq. who has accepted the office of Steward of His Majesty's Manor of East Hendred, in the county of Berks.

Charles Hulse, of Breamore, in the county of Southampton, Esq. in the room of Antony Buller, Esq. who has accepted the office of one of His Majesty's Justices at Bombay.

City of Carlisle.

John Christian Curwen, Esq. in the room of Henry Fawcett, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, March 5, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Ashe à Court, late Adjutant-General of His Majesty's Forces serving in Sicily, and Major in the Greek Light Infantry Regiment, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Commander of the Royal Sicilian Military Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, and the insignia of the Royal Piedmontese Order of St. Maurice and St. Lazare, which their Majesties the King of the Two Sicilies and the King of Sardinia have been respectively pleased to confer upon that Officer, in testimony of the sense which those Sovereigns entertain of the distinguished services rendered by him at the period of the landing of the French division in Sicily, and at the reduction of Genoa; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Henry Trant, Esq. only surviving son of Dominick Trant, late of Easingwold, in the county of York, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and permission that, as co-heir to the estates of his late great uncle John Dillon, of Belgarde, in the county of Dublin, Esq. he may take and use the surname of Dillon, in addition to and before that of Trant, and bear the arms of Dillon quarterly with those of Trant; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 16, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Earl of Chichester and the Marquess of Salisbury to the Office of Postmaster-General.

In consequence of an error committed in the advertisement of the sale of Plantation Dankbaarheid, and part of Plantation Ruimzigt, under date of 2d July 1815, the following Proclamation is now made, in order officially to notify the sale of the said estates.

FOURTH PROCLAMATION.

In consequence of an opposition by Albert Jan Glasius, N. U. to the intended sale by execution, as advertised, of the coffee estates Dankbaarheid and Ruimzigt, as the property of said A. J. Glasius, at the instance of the representative of Johannes van den Broek; notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of authority given by the Honourable Court of Civil Justice, under date of the 18th day of May 1815, on a petition presented by George Pauels, as the attorney of J. van den Broek, the execution sale of the coffee estate Dankbaarheid, with all its cultivation, buildings, and further appurtenances, and all the right, title, and interest of said A. J. Glasius in the coffee estate Ruimzigt, as cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, inasmuch as the same has been taken in execution for behoof of said J. van den Broek, will take place on the 15th June 1816, due inventory thereof being for inspection at this Office, in order to recover the proceeds of said sale, such sum of money for which said estates have been taken in execution, or such part thereof as shall remain unpaid at the time of such sale.

This fourth proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, 23d July 1815.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

By virtue of an appointment, dated the 30th October 1815, given by His Excellency H. W. Bentinck, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor of the Colony, Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. upon a petition presented by Robert Grant, in capacity as Curator to the estate of John Richardson, deceased.

I the undersigned, at the request of aforesaid Curator, do hereby summon by edict all known and unknown creditors against the estate of John Richardson, deceased, to appear before the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony; on Monday the 17th April 1816, and following days, there render in their claims, to verify the same, and to hear the objections made thereunto, if need, and further to proceed according to law.

This summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, December 11, 1815. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Capital Iron-Mills, Steel-Works, and Estates.

To be sold by auction by Mr. Williams, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt against Thomas Pearsall, of Willsbridge Iron-Works, in the Parish of Bieton, in the County of Gloucester; Iron-Mill-Manufacturer and Steel-Maker, at the Commercial Rooms, Corn-Street, Bristol; on Thursday the 10th day of May next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely.

The following valuable estates in lots, viz.
 Lot 1. All those powerful and convenient iron-mills, situate at Willsbridge aforesaid, in which the business of slitting and rolling iron into hoops, and converting iron into steel has been carried on for forty years; with an extensive mill-pond, and a steam-engine of thirty-five horse power to be used when short of water; also a capital dwelling-house for the residence of the Proprietor or Manager, with about eleven acres of pasture land, gardens, orchard, coach-houses, stable, &c. &c.

The premises are freehold, and situate about midway on the upper road from Bristol to Bath, surrounded by collicies; from which the works are supplied with coals on the cheapest terms; and the River Avon, nearly adjoining the mills, affords an easy water-carriage to London and all other parts of England: the works may be easily converted into copper, wire, edge-tool, paper, log-wood, snuff, or flour-mills.

Note.—The utensils may be taken at a valuation, and possession delivered on completing the purchase.

Lot 2. A capital well-built dwelling-house, with coach-house, stable, and convenient offices and garden, situate at Willsbridge aforesaid, in the occupation of Miss Lock.

The house is freehold: the coach-house and stable are held for the remainder of a term of 2000 years; and a small part of the garden for about three years; at one guinea per annum.—Possession on completing the purchase.

Lot 3. A neat, convenient freehold dwelling-house, with suitable offices, and a large garden well stocked with choice fruit trees, in Willsbridge aforesaid, in the occupation of Mr. Wasbrough, Solicitor.—Possession on the 29th September next. A small part of the garden is leasehold, for years determinable with two lives, at a quit rent of 11. 10s. with covenant for perpetual renewal without fine, and a small slip is held on sufferance.

Lot 4. A policy of insurance on the whole life of Mr. Pearsall, aged about fifty-eight years, for 3000l. on which the premium has been paid for six years.

Also, in sundry lots, several small pieces of arable, meadow, and pasture ground, mostly lying dispersed in the common fields at and near Willsbridge; the particulars whereof will be specified at the time of sale.

For a view of the premises apply to Mr. John Winwood, Iron-Founder, Bristol, of whom printed particulars may be had fourteen days before the sale; and also of Mr. Isaac Cooke, and Messrs. Biddulph, Hare, and Winwood, Solicitors, Bristol; or Messrs. Lamberts, Taylor, and Deane, No. 2, Gray's-Inn-Square; or Messrs. Brydges and Co., Red Lion-Square, London.

CAPITAL Leasehold Premises, Marshal-Street, Golden-Square, in the immediate vicinity of the new Street, opening from Pall-Mall to Portland-Place, which will be sold by auction, by Mr. Thornton, on Thursday the 21st day of March 1816, at the Auction-Mart, near the Bank of England, by direction of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankruptcy against Mr. Thorogood, Brush-Manufacturer, and with the consent of the Mortgagee.

The capital premises situate as above, consist of a range of spacious light warehouses, of four floors, with a large yard, stabling, dwelling-house adjoining, with private entrance thereto, together about ninety feet in depth and thirty-eight in breadth, lately occupied as a brush-manufactory, and in which a considerable business has been carried on; the premises are well calculated for a coach-maker, timber-merchant, or any extensive concern, rendered desirable by the highly important improvements now carrying on in the neighbourhood; are held on lease for an unexpired term of seventeen years, from the 10th of April next (wanting ten days) at a low rent: immediate possession may be had on taking the usual fixtures at a fair valuation.

The premises may be viewed between the hours of Ten and Four, when descriptive particulars may be had on the premises, of Messrs. Fisher and Snyglov, Solicitors, Gough-Square, Fleet-Street; Messrs. Hale and Higley, Salters-Hall, Cannon-Street; and of Mr. Thornton, 23, Fenchurch-Street.

RYE, SUSSEX.

To be let, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, a very desirable estate, called the School Farm, situate at Udimore, in the County of Sussex, within two miles of the Town of Rye, now in the occupation of Mr. William Prosser, who will quit at Lady-Day next.

Consisting of a timber, plaster, and tiled farm-house, with a boarded and thatched barn and other outbuildings, and several closes of meadow, arable, and pasture land and hog ground, containing together 50 A. 1 R. 4 P.

All persons desirous of taking the said estate are to leave proposals in writing at the Office of John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in Southamptoo-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 25th day of March instant; and such proposals are to contain the term of years, rents, and conditions upon which they are willing to take the said estate.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Richard Whitton, Solicitor, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row, London; Mr. Gatty, Exchequer-Office, Temple; and Mr. Proctor, Towns Clerk, Rye aforesaid.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 2d day of June 1815, made in a Cause wherein Robert Griffin and others are plaintiffs, and the Honourable Catherine Tyler, widow, and others, are defendants, the Creditors of Francis Henry Tyler, late of Bedford-Street, Bedford-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, are, on or before the 8th of April 1816, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The following information was obtained from the records of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Reclamation, regarding the project of the Colorado River Compact, which was signed on September 17, 1922, between the seven riparian states of the Colorado River Basin and the United States.
The compact provides for the equitable distribution of the water of the Colorado River among the riparian states, and for the development of the water resources of the basin in a manner which will be beneficial to the people of the United States. The compact also provides for the construction of dams and other works for the control and distribution of the water of the river, and for the reclamation of the lands which are irrigated by the water of the river. The compact is one of the most important documents in the history of the United States, and it has played a major role in the development of the Colorado River Basin. The compact is the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1922, and it is the basis of the Colorado River Compact Commission, which was established in 1922 to administer the compact. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1929, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1929, and it is the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1956, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1956.
The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1962, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1962. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1975, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1975. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1980, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1980. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1985, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1985. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1990, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1990. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 1995, which was passed by the United States Congress in 1995. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 2000, which was passed by the United States Congress in 2000. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 2005, which was passed by the United States Congress in 2005. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 2010, which was passed by the United States Congress in 2010. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact Act of 2015, which was passed by the United States Congress in 2015. The compact is also the basis of the Colorado River Compact
Act of 2020, which was passed by the United States Congress in 2020.
