TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1816.

Queen's-Palace, April 5, 1816.

HER Majesty has been pleased to make the following appointments on the establishment of Her Household, viz.

Hugh Bisschopp, Esq. to be Gentleman Usher Daily Waiter, and Henry Willoughby Rooke, Esq. to be Gentleman Usher Quarterly Waiter.

Whitehall, March 23, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Charles Count Alten, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Lieutenant-General in the Army, also Lieutenant-General in the Hanoverian service, Commander of the Hanoverian troops serving in the Netherlands and in France, Colonel of the 1st Light Battalion of the King's German Legion, and Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Imperial Russian Order of Saint Anne, of the First Class, of the Royal Order of Wilhelm of the Netherlands, of the Third Class, and of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which their Imperial and Royal Majesties the Emperor of Russia and the King of the Netherlands, and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, have been respectively pleased to confer upon the said Count Alten, in testimony of the high sense which they entertain of the highly distinguished intrepidity and conduct displayed by him throughout the Peninsular war, and at the memorable battles fought at Quatre Bras and Waterloo, on the 16th and 18th of June last:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's college of arms.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto William Fenwick, Esq. Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Governor of Pendennis-Castle, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured that officer, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by him in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula; provided nevertheless that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto William Henry Smyth, Esq. Commander in the Royal Navy, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Small Cross of the Royal Sicilian Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, which His Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies has conferred upon him, as a testimony of the high sense which that Sovereign entertains of his services, and of the valour displayed by him against the enemy off Messina, during the period in which he served in the combined fleet; provided nevertheless that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or
