Carlton-House, April 20, 1816.

THIS day His Excellency the Duke de la Chartre, Ambassador from His Most Christian Majesty, had his audience of leave of the Prince Regent; and His Excellency the Marquis D'Orsini, his successor in the same character, had his first private audience of His Royal Highness:

Also the Prince de Castelcicala, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies, being deputed by His Sicilian Majesty to invest the Prince Regent with the Illustrious and Most Distinguished Orders of Saint Januarius and of Saint Ferdinand and Merit, had audience of His Royal Highness for that purpose:

Likewise the Count de Beroldengin, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Württemberg, had an audience of His Royal Highness to deliver a letter from His Sovereign, announcing the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince Royal of Württemberg with Her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess Catherine of Russia:

And the Baron de Just, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Saxony, had his first private audience of His Royal Highness to deliver his credentials:

To which several audiences they were respectively introduced; by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Carlton-House, April 20, 1816.

This day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to invest Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Tyler with the ensigns of a Knight-Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Prince Regent, Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Tyler was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Naylor (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to the Prince Regent, and Sir Charles Tyler, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand.

Then His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight-Commander, was pleased to invest Sir Charles Tyler with the same.

The Vice-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, and having received from His Royal Highness the star of a Knight-Commander, retired.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was also pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon the following Officers, Knights-Commanders of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath:

Captain Sir Michael Seymour, Bart. Royal Navy.
Colonel Sir Robert Barclay, of the East India Company's Service.
