Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of the 28th instant, a barn, belonging to Mr. Grigby, at Drimston, near Woolpit, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Grigby to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, May 14, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday the 4th instant, between the hours of eleven and twelve at night, a fire broke out in a barn belonging to Mr. Thomas Nottage, at Henham, in the county of Essex, which consumed all the outhouses and communicated to the dwelling-house; and it being supposed that the same has been wilfully and maliciously set on fire, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Nottage abovementioned.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

May 21, 1816.

PUrsuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £61 and under £62 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Exchequer Bill Office, May 20, 1816.

TO BE PAID OFF.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of June 1815, Supply 1815, £12,500,000, 55 Geo. 3. cap. 4; on Aids 1815, 55 Geo. 3. cap. 5.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Wednesday the 12th day of June 1816, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Friday the 7th of June, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount, being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 12th day of June inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 12th day of June, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Friday the 7th of June, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of three pence farthing by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 12th day of June, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Thursday the 13th day of June, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as abovementioned, may be either transferred by endorsement or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to June 1815, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

By virtue of an appointment from the Honorable Court of Chief Justice of this Colony, dated the 27th January last, given upon a petition presented by W. Katz, in quality as the attorney of Samuel and Elizabeth James, of Barbadoes; Notice is hereby given to the public, that by the undersigned, as the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale, in the month of February 1817, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this Colony, the western two thirds of Lot No. 11, Correntine Coast, being a cotton estate, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and fixtures appurtenances thereto belonging, the property of Richard Harris, deceased, in order to recover from the proceeds of said estate such sum of money as wherefore the said estate has been taken in execution.

Should therefore any person think himself entitled to oppose this intended execution sale, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this Colony, declaring their reasons for so doing in due time and, further, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive in opposition every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein as the law directs.

This first proclamation published, as customary.—Berbice,
New Amsterdam, this 17th day of March 1813.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

OYSTER-STREET, AND WHITE HART-ROW, PORTSMOUTH.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Garnett, on Friday the 31st day of May instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, precisely, at the Star and Garter Inn, Broad Street, Portsmouth, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Clement Cox, in two lots;

Lpt 1. All that roomy and convenient freehold messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, with the kitchen, yard, and outlet thereunto belonging, situate and being No. 24, in Oyster-Street, Portsmouth, late in the possession of the said Bankrupt, but now unoccupied, admeasuring in front eighteen feet and two inches, and in the rear, including a passage, twenty-one feet and six inches, and in depth, on the north side, seventy-one feet and nine inches, and on the south side sixty-five feet and eight inches; the dwelling-house contains a shop, sitting room behind, back parlour, drawing-room, best bedchamber, and three good attics, fitted up with convenient closets.

Lot 2. All that freehold messuage or tenement, used as a Painter and Glazier's shop, situate in White Hart-Row, in Portsmouth aforesaid, lately occupied by Mr. William Banting, but now unoccupied, containing in front ten feet and nine inches, and in the rear nineteen feet and two inches.

The above premises are desirably situated in the very centre of Portsmouth, and a purchaser will be accommodated with possession on the completion of his purchase.

May be viewed by applying at Mr. Rodick's Store, No. 16, Oyster-Street, Portsmouth; and further particulars known of the Auctioneer, No. 77, Queen-Street, or Mr. Snook, Solicitor, Portsea, Hants.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Butler, of Prescot, in the County of Lancaster, Nurseryman, Seedsmen and Fruiterer, at Mr. Bates's, the Legs of Man Inn, in Prescot, on Monday the 10th of June next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced;

The above premises are subject to a lease granted by the late Basil Thomas Eccleston, Esq. to Richard Sephton, for 99 years, one of whom only, aged about 56 years, is now in being, and at the annual rent of £1.

Let it be: All that messuage and tenement, in Eccleston aforesaid, called the 1. and the several closes or parcels of land, called Widdow's, Widdow's, by the names of the Great-Field, the Little-Field, the Middle-Field, and the Furrier-Field, containing, by admeasurement, six acres, or thereabouts, statute measure, and 40. the present occupation of —.

These premises are also subject to a lease granted by the said Basil Thomas Eccleston, to Richard Pye, for three lives, two of whom, aged about 62 and 54 years, are now living, at the yearly rent of 10s.

The above lots are freehold of inheritance; and the purchasers of the same will be entitled to the respective Lord's rents before-mentioned, during the continuance of the leases.

There is a considerable quantity of healthy young timber upon these estates, which are situated in a fine sporting country, abounding with game, which is preserved with the greatest strictness.

Lot 3. The copyhold inheritance of and in all that messuage or dwelling-house, stables, coach-house, out-buildings, and appurtenances, thereto belonging, situate at the bottom of the Fall-Lane, in Prescot aforesaid, and late in the occupation of the said William Butler.

Lot 4. Also of and in all that message or dwelling-house, adjoining the last mentioned lot, and in the possession of Mr. Heyes.

Lot 5. Also of and in all that well accustomed public-house, situate in Fall-Lane aforesaid, commonly called or known by the sign of the Derby Arms, and now in the possession of John Foster.

Lot 6. Also of and in two messuages or dwelling-houses.

adjoining the last lot, and in the several possessions of Mr. Mollins and Mr. J. Hörnby."

Lot 7. The fee-simple and inheritance of and in all that close or parcel of land, situate, lying, and being near the Portico-Chapel, in Eccleston aforesaid, commonly called or known by the name of the Middle-Field, and containing three roods and thirty-six perches, of the large measure, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, and late in the occupation of the said William Butler.

The remainder of the stock of forest, fruit, and other trees, in the grounds lately occupied by the said William Butler, will shortly be disposed of by auction, of which due notice will be given.

For further particulars, as to the first two lots, apply to Messrs. Avison and Wheeler, Solicitors, Hanover-Street, Liverpool; and, as to the whole, to Mr. Leather, Solicitor, Lord-Street, Liverpool; or to Messrs. Sherratt, Heyes, and Orrell, Solicitors, Prescott.

Notice to the Creditors of Stewart, Primerose, and Company, Merchants, in Leith, and of George Primerose, of Ramoir, David Bartlet Stewart, Merchant, in Leith, and Hamilton Watson, Merchant there, the surviving Partners of that Company.

Edinburgh, May 17, 1816.

UPON the application of the said Stewart, Primerose, and Company, and of the said George Primerose, David Bartlet Stewart, and Hamilton Watson, as individuals, with concurrence of Creditors to the extent required by law, the Lords of Council and Session (First Division thereof) this day sequestrated the whole estates, heritable and moveable, real and personal, belonging to the said Stewart, Primerose, and Company, as a Company, and the said George Primerose, and David Bartlet Stewart, and Hamilton Watson, as individuals, in terms of the Statute, and appointed their Creditors to meet within the Exchange Coffee-House, Leith, on Monday the 27th May current, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to name an Interim Factor on the said sequestrated estates; and further, appointed the Creditors to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Monday the 10th of June next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee or Trustees in succession on the said sequestrated estates, in terms of the Statute; whereof intimation is hereby made to all concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of Andrew Crawford, lately residing at Port Glasgow, a Partner of the Company carrying on trade at Port Glasgow, under the firm of John Crawford and Co; at Lisbon, under the firm of Joseph F. Crawford and Co., and at Newfoundland, under the firm of Crawford and Co.

Glasgow, May 16, 1816.

WILLIAM BENNETT, Insurance-Broker, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been appointed and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Andrew Crawford, as an individual; and that upon his application the Sheriff-substitute of Renfrewshire has appointed Tuesday the 28th current, and Tuesday the 11th day of June next, at One o'Clock on each of these days, within Fleck's Inn, Port Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupt upon the state of his affairs, and others connected therewith; and that upon Wednesday the 12th day of June next, at One o'Clock, a meeting of the said Creditors is to be held within the Writing-Office of M'Grigor and Murray, Writers, in Glasgow, for the purposes mentioned in the statute; and that another meeting of the said Creditors is to be held upon Wednesday the 26th day of June next, at One o'Clock, within the Office of M'Grigor and Murray foresaid, for the purpose of examining the state of the Bankrupt's affairs, electing Commissioners, and giving directions for the recovery and disposal of the Bankrupt estate.

And, in the meantime, the Creditors foresaid are required to produce in the Trustee's hands their claims and vouchers, or grounds of debt, with their oaths to the verity thereof, at or previous to the said first meeting; and unless the said productions are made between and the 29th of November next, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration of the estate of the said Andrew Crawford, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estate.

Notice to the Creditors of John Bodden and Thomas Williamson, Merchants or Shopkeepers, in Kirkcudbright, carrying on business under the firm of Bodden and Williamson, and of the said John Bodden and Thomas Williamson, the only Partners of the said Firm, as Individuals.

AT a meeting of the said Creditors held in the King's Arms Inn, Kirkcudbright, on the 29th day of April last, the Bankrupts offered to find caution for payment of a composition on the debts due by them at the date of the sequestration as a company, and the said John Bodden also offered to find caution for payment of a composition on the debts due by him as an individual, the said Thomas Williamson having stated that he had no funds nor estate separate from those of the company, and no separate Creditors.

The meeting, accordingly, appointed another meeting of the Creditors to be held in the said King's Arms Inn, Kirkcudbright, on Saturday the 25th of May current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of deciding upon the said offers of composition.

The Trustee, therefore, hereby requires the Creditors to meet, at the time and place last mentioned, for the purposes above explained.
