

in several actions with the enemy during the Peninsular war:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 17, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Thomas Theobald (late Thomas Poole), of Kingsgate-Street, near the city of Winchester, in the county of Hants, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may from henceforth continue to assume and take the surname of Theobald, instead of that of Poole, and also bear and use the arms of Theobald, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of his cousin, the late James Theobald, of Grays, in the county of Essex, Esq. deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 7, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of the 28th instant, a barn, belonging to Mr. Grigby, at Drimston, near Woolpit, in the county of Suffolk, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Grigby to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, May 14, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday the 4th instant, between the hours of eleven and twelve at night, a fire broke out in a barn belonging to Mr. Thomas Nottage, at Henham, in the county of Essex, which consumed all the outhouses and communicated to the dwelling-house; and it being supposed that the same has been wilfully and maliciously set on fire, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Mr. Thomas Nottage abovementioned.
