

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 20. to Monday April 24. 1682.

Argiers, Feb. 16.

THE 14th Instant, Admirak Herbert came before this Place with Six Frigates; and the next day a Saitea belonging to this Place, was taken by Captain Shouel. This Government has now abroad 4 Men of War, and 3 Saiteas; The 12th was brought in here the Martha and Mary of London, David Bastin Master, Laden with Oyls from Faro.

Cologne, April 24. On Tuesday last arrived here Prince Egon of Eurslemberg from France, and the next day had Audience of our Elector. The 800 Men which his Electoral Highness is to furnish in pursuance of his Treaty with these Magistrats, will enter the place the 28th Instant; and the Troops which the States of the Circle of Westphalia have resolved to send to our assistance, are ready to March in 24 Hours; they consist, as is said, in three Regiments of Foot, and two of Horse, of which, 1000 Men in case of actual Service, are to be maintained at the Charge of the City, and the rest at that of the said Circle. The Prince of Parma continues still here. The French Envoy, Monsieur Tambonneau, has not hitherto made any Progress, that we hear of, in his Negotiation at the Court of the Elector of Trier.

Hague, April 24. The Prince and Princess of Orange are gone for Dieren, where they will pass some time. Count Waldeck, who was some time since, chosen by the States Assembled at Ratisbonne, to be General of the Army of the Empire, has now accepted of that Command, and Complements have thereupon passed between his Highness the Prince of Orange and him. Our Northern Letters inform us, That a Defensive Alliance is concluded between the King of Sweden, and the Princes of Luxemburg; that the first has promised, whenever there shall be occasion for it, to bring 40000 Men into the Field, and a good Fleet to Sea; and the latter to have 20000 Men in readiness, to act as the State of things shall require.

Marseilles, April 21. This day arrived here a Bark in 15 days from Alicant, the Master whereof tells us, that Admiral Herbert was there some days before he came away; and that he was again gone over for Argiers. Monsieur Chusleau says, had been likewise at Alicant, with the Squadron under his Command, and was gone over for Argiers.

Paris, April 25. We are told that a Treaty is concluded between this Crown and the King of Denmark, by which the latter obliges himself to keep 10000 Men in the Country of Oldenburg, and in consideration thereof, is to have presently 400 thousand Livres, and 300 thousand yearly by way of Subsidy; and in case Denmark be Attacked by Sweden, our King is to assist the King of Denmark with 10000 Capital Men of War. We are likewise informed that our King has made a Treaty with the Princess Palatine, by which his Majesty in consideration of the Lands that have been seized by the French, gives his Electoral Highness 600000 Livres at present, and 300000 Livres Yearly. The Kings Envoy at Trier, is not able to do any good, that Elector adhering it seems very firmly to the Interests of the Empire. On Saturday last, the first President, accompanied with six Councillors, and the Attorney General, came into the Assembly of the University of this City, and caused the Kings Edict upon the late Declaration of the Clergy, to be there Registered; and next Saturday they will go to the saubonne, to have likewise Registered there.

Whitehall, April 22. His Majesty continues to receive with his accustomed Goodness, the Loyal Addresses that are presented to him from the several Counties and Corporations.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E Your Majesties most Loyal and most Obedient Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of Your Majesties City of Dublin, in Common Council Assembled, being deeply sensible of the great Happiness, Peace, Security, and Tranquility that we now enjoy under Your Majesties most Gracious Government, and of Your Majesties great Favour to us in Committing the Administration thereof, under Your Majesty, now the hands of his Grace the Duke of Ormonde Your Majesties Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, of whose prudent Conduct, and excellent Management of Affairs here, we have had long Experience; do think our selves, in all Duty, obliged to express our most humble and hearty Thankfulness for those many Blessings, under God, derived to us from Your Majesties most Just and equal Government; as also our Detestation of all those wicked Practices and Contingences that have been of late made use of by some Factions and Ill-minded Men, to alienate from Your Majesty the Affections of Your Subjects, and to seduce them from the Duty and Obedience that they owe unto Your Majesty. We therefore most humbly beg leave of Your most Sacred Majesty, hereby to Assure Your Majesty, That though others of Your Majesties Subjects may have been more early and more largely in Verbal Expressions of their Loyalty and Thankfulness to Your Majesty, yet none shall ever exceed us in any real Demonstrations thereof: And that we shall, upon all occasions, be ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend and preserve Your Majesties Royal Person and Prerogatives, the Loyal and Lawful descent of Your Imperial Crown, the true Protestant Religion, and the Government as it is now by Law Established in Church and State, against all Conspiracies, Attempts, and Aspersions whatsoever, that may be made or entered into, by either Papists or Fanatics, or other Disturbers of the Publick Peace. And as we are fully satisfied that no Subjects did ever live under a more Just and Gracious King; it shall be ever our Endeavours to make it appear, that the King did ever govern more Faithful and Loyal Subjects than we, who shall always pray for Your Majesties Long Life and happy Reign, and the utter disappointment of all Your Majesties Enemies. In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, in the Four and Thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jurors for the Body of the County of Corke, at an Assizes held at Corke, the Two and Twentieth Day of March, in the Four and Thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

W E Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being animated and encouraged by

Your Majesties most Gracious Acceptance of the many Addresses presented to Your Majesty by Your Loyal Subjects in all parts of your Kingdom of England, expressing their Loyalty and Readiness to perform their Duty; have presumed in the same manner to prostrate our selves before Your Majesty, with a Devotion next that we pay to the Supreme Power of Heaven and Earth; where from the bottom of our Hearts, and with most unfeigned Thankfulness, we acknowledge the great Happiness and many Blessings of Peace, Security, and a flourishing Trade, we have enjoyed under Your Majesties most Just, Wise, Benign, and Gracious Reign and Government over us, from the time of Your Happy and Miraculous Restauration, unto this Moment. So that although in these late times of Trouble, wherein many of Your Majesties Subjects have been disturbed with Fears and Jealousies, we have been thought by many to be most expos'd to danger, by the Situation of our County, or at least, more than Your Majesties other Subjects of this Kingdom; yet by Your Majesties great and extraordinary Providence and Wisdom in the Government of this Kingdom, we have been so secur'd in all our Enjoyments, that we have liv'd in the greatest Quietness and Safety, and without the least disturbance in our Estates or Commerce. We therefore (most Great and Gracious SIR) in a pure sense of our Duty, and that great Happiness we enjoy under Your Sacred Majesty, (the best of Kings) humbly return unto Your Sacred Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for our many Blessings, with an ample Protestation of our unalterable Loyalty and Readiness to Discharge our Duty: And that as heretofore, we have been as early and as zealous in the Demonstration hereof, as any other Tour Majesties Subjects in this Kingdom, in your Happy and Blessed Restauration, so we still continue in the same Zeal of Affection and Loyalty, beyond the Obligation of any other Tie. And therefore we do offer to Tour Majesty, with our greatest Sincerity, and most ardent Zeal and Duty, all our Lives and Fortunes, with whatever Interest we have, or possibly can make, to Defend Your Sacred Person, and Maintain Your Majesties Rights, and the Lawful Succession, and the Protestant Religion, now by Law Established among us, against all Your Enemies whatsoever. And that Tour Majesty may grow daily greater in the Hearts of all Tour Subjects, and enjoy a long, most Happy, and Glorious Reign, is the constant Prayer of Tour Majesties most Obedient, and most Dutiful Subjects.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury sworn as the Representatives of the Body of your Majesties County of Derby, at the Assizes held at Derby for the said County, the Twentieth day of March, in the Four and Thirtieth year of your Majesties most happy Reign; Being filled with Amazement as well as Detestation, at the restless Attempts of that Hellish Faction, who having made the Murder of your Royal Father the Glory (tho' 'twas the Infamy) of their Actions, and would Crown them with the destruction of your Royal Majesty, your Lawful Successors, and the very Monarchy of this Nation, by an Association which can have no less Intendment or Construction; cannot without Stupidity and Ingratitude (in this surprising Circumstance) omit the repeating of our Loyalty to your Majesty, in our just Abhorrence of this wicked Confederacy, and of all the Abettors of it; resolving, and humbly declaring to your Majesty, and the whole World, that we will always at the expence of our Lives and Fortunes, endeavour to Support, Preserve, and Defend your Royal Person, your Heirs and Successors, in the right Line, and the Government as now by Law established, against all Associations, Conspiracies, Attempts, and Pretensions whatsoever: And that no Person, who shall not have the same Loyal Sense with us, shall have any Suffrage, or Vote from us, for any Office, Employment, or Trust whatsoever.

Signed by us the Grand Jury, whose names are Subscribed.

We the Nobility, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Freeholders of this County of Derby, do unanimously Concur and Joyn with the Grand Jury in the same Loyal Sense; Abhorrence, and Detestation of the said Association, and of all other Traiterous Associations whatsoever.

Signed by above 2000 Freeholders.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Warwick, at the Assizes held this 27th of March, 1682. having been taught by sad Experience, That during the late Usurped Government, many Evil and Rebellious Principles were Diffused into the minds of the People of this Kingdom, by the means of some disaffected Persons; the Consideration whereof, as it cannot but at all times beget in our minds a just Jealousie against every dangerous Assertion that sounds in diminution of Your Majesties Royal Rights, (so at this time especially, when the Kingdom is in a kind of Fermentation through the heat of many Disloyal Opinions) we conceive our selves bound in Duty to declare our Abhorrence and Detestation to all Seditious and Treasonable Associations whatsoever, which under the old and specious Pretence of Defending your Majesties Person, are without doubt designed by the wicked Contrivers thereof, to Destroy Your Majesty, and Subvert the Government both in Church and State; which, as we can never sufficiently render our hearty Thanks to Almighty God for hitherto Defeating their black Designs, so we can never be so grateful as we ought for Your Majesties great Care of Your Subjects, so graciously manifested in Your late truly Royal Declaration, the Remembrance whereof, as it daily administers an inestimable Comfort to us against all Apprehensions, arising either from our open Enemies the Papists, or Intelline Familiars the Fanatics, so it gives us a just occasion at this time to declare, That we acknowledge ourselves to be bound, by the Laws of God and Man, to the Imperial Crown of this Realm; and being under a due sense of this our Allegiance, do now Protest and Declare, That we whose Names are Subscribed, will be at all times ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, against all Treasonable Seditious Practices and Attempts whatsoever; being firmly resolved to live and dye, Signed SIR, Your Majesties Faithful Loyal Subjects.

We the Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, and Deputy-Lieutenants of the same County, do, at the desire of the said Grand Jury, heartily and willingly concur with them in this humble Address to Your most sacred Majesty.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistant-Burgesses, of Your Majesties Ancient Burrough of Warwick.

HAVING seen a Paper, produced at the Old Bailey, in November last, and since published by Tour Majesties Command, and considered the terms of an Association therein contained; We conceive our selves, as well as all other Tour Majesties Subjects, obliged by our Duty to God and Tour Sacred Majesty, to Endeavour vow the vindication of our Religion from the Scandal, and of our Loyalty from the imputation of the least Conivance at the Seditious and Treasonable Matters therein expressed.

Hereupon we humbly pray Your Sacred Majesties Favour, in giving us leave to profess our just Abhorrency of what we find therein Descriptive of Your Majesties undoubted Right, of the known Laws of the Land, of the Liberties and Properties of Your Subjects; and which must inevitably place us under the utmost Slavery of an Arbitrary Power, in our fellow Subjects.

We cannot but declare to Your Majesty, and before the whole World, that nothing less then this can be the meaning of any, who as that Paper imports, shall take upon them in contradiction to Christianity it self, without any, and against all Authority, to engage themselves and other Subjects by voluntary Oaths, to forswear their Allegiance; to assume a power of taking Arms themselves, and opposing and pursuing all others to Destruction, who upon any Title (how just soever) shall oppose them, to subject themselves, and force others to receive a Law from private Persons, as all Members of Parliament are after a Dissolution: And lastly, to determine by force of Arms, who shall, or who shall not Succeed to the Crown of England, though Legally placed by an undoubted right of Inheritance; where from our Hearts, we pray the God of Heaven to continue it in all succeeding Generations.

We are our selves by the Royal Charters of Your Majesty, and Your Royal Ancestors, a legal Association, a Body united indeed, Name and Thing, and that Body animated with a Soul of Loyalty; and from our Souls profess our selves ready with our Lives and Fortunes, as we are in Duty bound, to stand by Your Majesty, in defence of all Your just Rights, the established Laws, the true Religion, of which, as God hath made You bere the Defender, so we beseech Him still to preserve Your Royal Person from all Force and Treachery, by whomsoever designed against You, howsoever carried on by this, or any other Traiterous and Seditious Combinations. In witness whereof, we have hereunto unanimously affixed our Common Seal.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Great SIR,

W E Your Majesties ever truly Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of Your Majesties Ancient Burrough of Stratford upon Avon, in the County of Warwick, do in all Humility prostrate our selves at Your Royal Feet, with the height of Gratitude for those great Benefits we have, and do receive in our Religion, Lives, and Fortunes, from Your most Gracious and August Government, and with all Admiration of Your Royal Care and Conduct, in Detecting as well the secret Jesuitical Machinations, as the frustrating the black and dismal Designs of those unreasonable Persons, that were so fatal to Your Royal Father, of ever blessed Memory, and the Government: We therefore do from our Souls detest and abhor the Association, which had it taken effect, would most certainly have Obstructed the Justice of the Nation, subverted our Laws, involv'd us in Blood, and made us Slaves to the Malice and Tyranny of our fellow Subjects, and destroyed the Monarchy it self; that Traiterous, Venenous, Insinuating and Trapaning Association, lately found in the Closet of the Earl of Shaftsbury, and all other Association, or Combination whatsoever; that shall be made without Your Royal Authority and Consent: And shall be ready with our Lives and Fortunes, to Protect and Defend Your Royal Person, Your Heirs, and Lawful Successors, the Religion and Government by Law established; and shall ever be incessant in our Prayers to our God of Heaven; to continue to Your Majesty a long, happy, and prosperous Reign over us.

From our Guild-Hall holden in Stratford aforesaid, the 15th of April, in the Four and Thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1681.

Molt Gracious Sovereign,

W E the Inhabitants of Carleton, Your Majesties most ancient Borough in the County of M Monmouth, Revolving in our minds, with deep Relethment, the undutiful Behaviour of some Malecontent, together with the Disloyal Affronts and Virulent Reflections lately Level'd against Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, by Men of Democratical Principles, do hold our selves obliged to rectify before God and the World, our utter Abhorrence of all such Practices, by the most Solemn Form of Renunciation imaginable; And therefore we beg leave with all Humility freely to speak out our Minds, and exempt our selves from any Suspicion of Compliance with that turbulent Faction, sith we conceive Silence, in the present Circumstances, would involve us in Guilt, and consequently be a Crime unpardonable: For we cannot, without extream Horror, reflect on that Seditious Paper, the ASSOCIATION, lately found in the Earl of Shaftsbury's Closet, as deeming it design'd for a Politick Engine, to undermine Monarchy, and a Project of exquisite Malignity, even in its best Interpretation Derogatory from the present Legal Constitution, by creating a Power in Parliaments Paramount to Your Majesty; which Opinion and Practice must needs seem ominous to any Man who duely weighs the dire effects of a like Combination, carried on by the same Methods against the Royal Marryr your Father of ever Glorious Memory: And as that was then the Fundamental Dilemper, which had most insidious Influences, for many years, both on our Polity and Religion, so we believe this to have been now intended for a means to ferment the Factious Un-examining Vulgar into Rebellious Heats, and Induce them to play the same Game over again, being won and secured to that side by such Wheedles and plausible Insinuations. But Praised be God who hath Defeated the Counsels of Achiemel, and Inspired Your Majesty with Prudence to obviate and confront, with vigorous and active Prosecution, all Republican Demagogues: And we declare to God and the World, That it causes equal wonder and trouble in us to think that any English Protestant Subject (for some will still be thought such, notwithstanding all their Prevarications) should own so much Impudence and Effrontery, as to abett or justify those Traiterous Confederacies, which tend directly to Unhinge the Government, and Re-inlave the Nation under Servitude and Anarchy. In opposition to which, Great SIR, be pleased to accept of our sincere Loyalty, and receive from us, the Subscribers hereof, this faithful Assurance, That we will constantly Adhere to Your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, against all your Enemies whatsoever; desiring, in the presence of God, to stand or fall, according to the Sincerity of our present Protestation.

To the Kings Most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Sovereign,

W E Your Majesties most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council, of Your Majesties Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, do for our selves, and on behalf of the said Town and County, with all Gratitude render our most humble Thanks, for those great Advantages enjoyed under Your most happy Reign over us, And having heard of a Model of an Association, set on foot by some designing Persons, no way agreeable to that Allegiance we owe Your Majesty by all Laws Divine and Humane, do assure Your Majesty we shall never engage engage in any Association not warranted by Your Royal Authority: and do utterly abhorst and abhor all Combinations against Your Majesties Person and Prerogative. We are joyned upon such a sure Foundation of Loyalty for the support of Your Majesties Sacred Person, the Religion by Law established, and the Municipal Laws of Your Kingdom, that no Insinuations, or specious Pretences shall divert us from those Resolutions: We shall be most ready to defend Your Majesties Person, Your Heirs and Lawfull Successors, with the outmost hazards of our Lives and Fortunes: The late unnatural Wars make us put a just value upon the Peace and Security to enjoy under Your Majesty, and do heartily pray for Your Majesties long Life and happy Reign over us.

To the Kings-most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of your Majesties Loyal and ancient City of Winchester, being deeply sensible of the great Benefits of Peace, Commerce, and Plenty, which we enjoy under your Majesties most Gracious and Legal Government; and of the true Care your Majesty hath taken for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion as by Law established, and the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, and for the Protection of them from any Arbitrary Government whatsoever, which are the greatest Blessings we can enjoy, do think our selves in Gratitude and Allegiance bound to testify publicly our Thanks to Almighty God, and your Majesty, for this our Happiness; and to make this our publick profession, that from our Souls, we detest and abhor that Treasonable and Abominable Paper lately produced at the Old Bailey, in the proceedings against the Earl of Shaftsbury, constituting a form of an Association. And we do assure your Majesty that we will serve you with our Lives and Fortunes, against any Person or Persons whatsoever combining in that, or any other the like illegal Association, that shall endeavour by Force and Contrivance, to deprive us of the unspeakable Benefits which we enjoy in the safety of your Majesties Person, and the excellent Temper of your Government. And this publick Protestation (which we make to your Sacred Majesty, against all such damnable Designs and Practices) we thought a most necessary part of our Duty, not being satisfied that we only bear in our Breasts, Loyal Hearts and Affections, unless we also with one Voice hereby express and declare the same. God grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign over us, and that there may never want one of the Royal Line to sway the Scepter of these your Kingdoms, till Time shall be no more. In testimony of our Fidelity and Allegiance, we have here to unanimously fixt our Common Seal, the Fourteenth Day of April, in the Four and Thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign over England, &c.

Plimouth, April 18. This day His Majesties Ship the Phoenix, Captain Bagoe Commander, came to an Anchor in the Soundings. The Antelope and the Pearl, will Sail with the first opportunity; the first to the Eastward, and the other to the West.

London, April 20. This day the Artillery Company kept their Annual Feast at Merchant-Tailors Hall, which His Royal Highness upon their humble Invitation, was pleased to honour with his Presence. In the Morning they met according to custom in the Guildhall and went to St Dunstons Church (where an excellent Sermon was preached by the Reverend Dr. Spry) and from thence to the Hall; the Brewards, which were the Right Honourable the Earl of Tenet, the Lord Viscount Lim'ey, the Lord Paston, the Lord Alington, Sir John Narborough, Philip Frowd Esq; John Shals Esq, and Captain Burden, marching first, with gilded Staves in their hands; then the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Recorder in their Scarlets, and the Assistants and the rest of the Artillery Company. About two a Clock his Royal Highness came into the City, being attended by a very great number of Nobility and other Persons of Quality, in their Coaches: In Cheap-side, Sir William Dodson's Company of the Yellow Regiment of the Trained-Bands, was drawn up, and Sir William at the Head of it, as his Royal Highness passed by. Being come to the Hall, his Royal Highness was received by the Stewards of the Artillery Company, and by the Master and Wardens of the Merchant-Tailors Company; a daffier the usual Compliments and Respects to his Royal Highness, as their Captain General, and that the Assistants and others had kissed his Hand, his Royal Highness went to Dinner at a Table at the upper end of the Hall, at which the Lord Mayor, the Nobility, and the Aldermen likewise sat, there being five other Tables for the rest of the Company, which was very numerous. The Entertainment was very Great and Splendid; and the new Stewards being chosen, who are his Grace the Duke of Albemarle, the Right Honourable the Earl of Arundel, the Earl of Oxford, the Lord Faulkland, Henry Gye Esq; William Leg Esq; Sir William Dodson, and Charles Duacomb Esq; his Royal Highness rose from Table, and retired to another Room, where a great many Persons had the Honour to kiss his Hand; after which, his Royal Highness returned to Whitehall, highly satisfied with his Entertainment, and the whole management of it.

Whitehall, April 2. This Morning their Majesties and his Royal Highness parted from hence for Windsor, to pass the Summer there.

Mr. Thomas Warren of London Apothecary, living at the Hart and Anchor in St. Lawrence-lane, having after many years Trial, with great Cost, found out a most curious and excellent way of preserving Dead Bodies from Putrefaction, change of Colour, or Complexion, without Disbowelling, Searcloathing, Mangling or Cutting any part thereof, to the great Approbation of several of His Majesties Physicians, and others of the Colledge; and having presented an Experiment to His Majesty of a Body so preserved, His Majesty was very much satisfied therewith; And that so useful an Invention may prove serviceable to such as have occasion to use it, and likewise beneficial to the Undertaker, This Notice is given thereof.

Advertisements.

Richard Ho'brink, about 17 years old, with light brown Rank Hair, in a Livery Coat of sad coloured Cloth, Laced with a Gold Giltloom, Lined with blew Serge, and a Watteau coat of the same, was sent from his Master, Mr. de m'curie's Houfe in Great Lane, London, into the Strand. Whoever gives Notice of the said Richard to his Master, so that he may have him again, shall be well Rewarded.

Two Bly Geldings, one of them with a Cuff Tail, with the Star leg (welled behind, had Ears, and bad Eyes, about 14 hands high: The other a Whisk Tail with a Star in his Fore-Head, and a white Spot on his Lip, about Fourteen hands high, were Lost the 15th Instant, out of the Fields by the Lord Mayors Banqueting-House, in Marybone Parish. Whoever brings Notice of them to Thomas Green, at Hat-Hill, on the Back-side of a Church-house shall have 40 Shillings.
