SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1816.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with a Prince of illustrious family.

We are grateful for the many blessings which have been derived to the empire from the auspicious Government of His Majesty, and of the Sovereigns of His Royal Line. In common with all His Majesty's faithful subjects, we feel the most cordial satisfaction in an event which promises to gratify the domestic hopes of your Royal House, and thereby afford additional security to the enjoyment of those blessings by ourselves and our posterity.

Given under our common seal, at the City of New Sarum, the 8th day of May 1816.

[Presented by the Reverend C. Rigby Collins, Mayor of Salisbury, accompanied by the Earl of Pembroke and Viscount Folkstone.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Brecon (assembled at a meeting convened by the High Sheriff, and held in the town of Brecon, on the 16th day of May 1816), humbly approach your Royal Highness with the most sincere expressions of congratulation on the late auspicious marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg of Saxe-Cobourg.

We hail this event as promising a continuance of those blessings, which we have so long enjoyed under your Royal Highness's most illustrious and august House.

And we offer to your Royal Highness the humble sentiments of our profound respect for thus having selected, as a partner for your royal daughter, a Prince whose virtues are so eminently conspicuous.

Signed, at the request and on behalf of the Meeting, by Edward Kendall, High Sheriff of the County of Brecon.

[Presented by Edward Kendall, accompanied by Colonel Wood and Major-General Darling.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, most humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our fervent congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Cobourg, and to express to your Royal Highness the cordial satisfaction which we feel upon an event which promises to gratify the wishes of His Majesty's faithful subjects, by augmenting the domestic felicity of your Royal Highness, and, by affording the fairest prospect of securing to the inhabitants of the United Kingdom, a continuance of those blessings which they have so long experienced under the Government of your Royal Highness's most illustrious House.

Signed, on behalf of the Inhabitants,

H. Cramlington, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Matthew Ridley and Mr. Ellison.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Bedford.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, Freemen, and Inhabitants
