

of the ancient Town and Borough of Bedford, penetrated with the truest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and Family, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our offerings of sincere congratulation on the auspicious event which has united, under the fairest prospects of happiness to themselves and benefit to the country, the hope of the House of Brunswick with His Serene Highness the Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

We further venture to indulge a hope, that the Almighty will so crown with His blessing this union of domestic happiness in the times of public tranquillity, that it may have the effect of producing a long perspective of splendour to your august House, of inspiring the confidence of the people, and of establishing to the latest posterity the security of the British empire.

Thos. Kidman, Mayor.

[Presented by Captain Waldegrave, R.N.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

Duly sensible of the blessings and benefits which flow from an hereditary Monarchy, we cannot but derive the highest satisfaction from this auspicious event, as best calculated to perpetuate those blessings and benefits which this kingdom has so long enjoyed under the mild and free Government of the illustrious House of Hanover, to increase the happiness of your Royal Highness and all the Royal Family, and to add to the security and welfare of His Majesty's dominions.

Given under our common seal, at Beverley, aforesaid, the 20th of May, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign. Robt. Ramsey, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Forbes, Esq. M.P.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, present, with the most lively satisfaction, our congratulations to your Royal Highness on the marriage of your amiable and illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, to His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

Firmly attached to His Majesty's Person and Family, we most sincerely rejoice in an alliance which affords the most gratifying prospect of perpetuating our national prosperity, and the many invaluable blessings we have enjoyed under the mild sway of the Princes of the House of Brunswick.

Ardently hoping, indeed confidently assured, that this auspicious event will be equally productive of future comfort to the paternal feelings of your Royal Highness, and of lasting advantage to a loyal, a generous, and an affectionate people, we beg leave to tender to your Royal Highness a renewal of our respectful homage and devoted attachment.

Given under the common seal of the said City, the 17th day of May, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

[Presented by the Marquess Camden, Recorder, and Lord John Thynne and Colonel Palmer, Members for the City of Bath]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to join with the general voice of the British Empire, in offering to your Royal Highness our sincere and cordial congratulations on the recent marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

Deeply sensible of the many true and substantial blessings which this country has enjoyed under the successive Princes of your Royal Highness's illustrious House, we hail with the most heartfelt satisfaction an event which is calculated to continue those blessings to our posterity, and we sincerely hope that it may contribute to your Royal Highness's happiness, and to the future peace and welfare of these kingdoms.

Given under our common seal the 15th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1816.

Wm. Barton, Mayor.

[Presented by William Barton, Esq. Mayor, and Richard Bullin and Jonathan Blundell Hollinshead, Bailiffs.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

The dutiful Address of the Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and affectionate subjects, the Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our sincere and cordial congratulation upon the happy marriage of your illustrious daughter Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.