

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Royal Highness's most affectionate and devoted servants, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Magistrates, and approved Men, together with the other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Guildford, in the County of Surrey, beg leave to present our most sincere and hearty congratulations to your Royal Highness on the marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

We, fully participating in every event affecting the interest and happiness of your Royal Highness, beg to express our peculiar satisfaction at a union so universally approved.

May your Royal Highness enjoy a lasting satisfaction from these Nuptials, and may every comfort and happiness be experienced by the illustrious personages, who, in imitating your Royal Highness's virtues, will not fail to ensure to themselves that affection, esteem, and veneration of the people of this kingdom, so long and deservedly enjoyed by your Royal Highness.

Signed, by order and on behalf of the Mayor, &c.
Joseph Hockley, Jun. Town Clerk.
 [Presented by the High Steward, the Recorder, and Members for the Borough.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; &c. &c.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the undersigned Members, on behalf of the Highland Society of London.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Members of the Highland Society of London have unanimously thought it their duty to express, by a Deputation from their Body, the deep sense which they entertain of your Royal Highness's gracious condescension, in affording them your Royal countenance and support, by placing yourself at their head.

The objects which the Society endeavours to accomplish are, the preservation of the language and antiquities of the Caledonians, and of the remains of Celtic Poetry and Literature; the establishment and support of Gaelic Schools in the Highlands of Scotland; the relieving of distressed Highlanders at a distance from their homes, and promoting the improvement and general welfare of the northern parts of the kingdom. They have also in view the preservation of such of the habits and principles of their ancestors as must be beneficial to the community in all times, and under all circumstances. They hope, Sir, by their efforts to encourage and maintain a spirit of industry, accompanied by probity of enterprise, controuled by prudence, a firm adherence to the law and constitution of the realm, a love of order, morality, and religion, and that zeal for their Sovereign, for which they have ever been distinguished, and which has even characterised their errors.

They also conceive, Sir, that they cannot more effectually promote the military ardour of their countrymen, than by diffusing among them the means of well understanding that wholesome constitution, and that mild and temperate religion which they may be called upon to defend. It is obvious, that where such objects are in view, the countenance which your Royal Highness is graciously pleased to afford to the Society, must add materially to the efficacy of their endeavours, and stimulate its Members to further exertions.

They presume, Sir, to present to your Royal Highness a Medal, intended to preserve, as far as in them lies, a grateful remembrance of the glorious victory at Alexandria, purchased in part by the blood of their brave countrymen, and by the blood of the victorious General who commanded on that day; a day which the Highland Society annually commemorates. Vouchsafe, Sir, to accept it as an humble token of the grateful sense which our Society entertains of the gracious manner in which your Royal Highness has been pleased to countenance their endeavours, and as a pledge of attachment to their Chief, which has ever been found fervent in the breast of the Highlander.

London, March 20, 1816.

[Presented by Lord James Murray, Sir A. Macdonald, Sir George Beclwith, Vice-Presidents, Duke of Argyll, Duke of Atholl, Earl of Aboyne, Lord John Campbell, Viscount Kirkwall, and Colonel Christie.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful address, of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Council assembled, beg permission to approach your Royal Highness with the most lively feelings of joy, to offer our sincere congratulations on the occasion of the Nuptials of your illustrious daughter, Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

The exalted rank of Her Royal Highness not only makes her union an object of anxious hope to your Royal Family, but to every family in this loyal nation; and from the importance of this United Kingdom, an event of great consequence to every nation of the civilized world.

At this season of the year, when the rigours of winter are fled, all nature appears to join in congratulation with an affectionate and loyal people, who will joyfully present their hearty prayer to the God of Nature and Preserver of Nations, that with the fruits of this auspicious union, every blessing of Heaven may descend on your Royal Highness, your Royal Family, and the happy subjects of this United Kingdom.

John Hopkins, Mayor.
 [Presented by Mr. H. Adlington, and Mr. Vanstene.]