And twenty private Acts.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte of Wales to His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

Sensibly alive to, and deeply participating in, every event connected with the august Family of your Royal Highness, we regard with sincere pleasure the union which has been celebrated, as allowing the true grounds of securing the happiness of a Nation, whose fate this nation is so feelingly interested in.

That His Royal Highness, and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg, His illustrious consort, may enjoy the blessings of mutual and increasing happiness, will ever be the ardent wish of our hearts; and we ardently pray, that Providence, whose dispensations have been so sensibly felt in the late happy events in Europe, may long preserve your Royal Highness to reign in the affections of a free, loyal, and united people.

Guildhall, Hartlepool, May 11, 1816.

Transmitted by the Earl of Ely, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Devon.

May it please your Royal Highness, WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Devon, beg leave to approach the throne with our most fervent congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe-Cobourg.

We rejoice on all occasions which contribute to the happiness of your Royal Highness, and every branch of your august Family; and we hail this auspicious alliance as an event which, from the high character and distinguished qualities of His Serene Highness, and the estimable and varied virtues of His Royal Brother, affords the most presage of domestic felicity to the illustrious pair.

We contemplate this propitious union, as beneficial to the best interest of the British empire. Whatever tends to secure to our country the Protestant succession of your illustrious race on the throne of their ancestors, must always form a material portion of the happiness of His Majesty's loyal subjects.

That His Serene Highness and His Royal Consort may enjoy for many years all the blessings of the connubial state, and that your Royal Highness may long live to witness and participate their happiness, are our fervent wish and prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in a general meeting held at Bath, this 27th day of May, in the year 1816.

Ely, Preses.

Transmitted by the Earl of Ely, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council, of the City of Glasgow, humbly approach the Throne, with our mutual congratulations, in the recent suspension of your illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness, Leopold George, Prince of Cobourg...

On such a joyful occasion we feel peculiar satisfaction in rendering, along with our fellow subjects, the assurances of our loyal zeal; and of our firm attachment to our venerable King, to your Royal Highness, and to the other branches of the House of Hanover...

[ Presented by Richard Hart Danks, Esq. M.P. for the County of Northampton ]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, From the Minister and Elders of the Swiss Church in London.

Le Ministre et les Anciens de l'Eglise Suisse ont l'honneur d'adresser à votre Altesse Royale les assurances de leur respectueux attachement et de leur sincère félicitation pour la naissance de votre Altesse Royale Madame la Princesse Charlotte, Son Auguste Fille. Nous partageons vivement avec les habitants de ce Royaume l'attente et le vœu qui remplissent les Cœurs des plus dévoués Espérances...

Alexandre Sterky, Ministre et President. de Mai, 1816.

[ Presented by Alexandre Sterky, Pastor, and Jacques Samuel, Past. Minister, J. Perrin, D. Humbert, D. Rhan, Elders. ]

THE following Address was presented to the Queen, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer our most respectful congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte of Wales with a Prince of the illustrious House of Hanover...

[ Presented by Richard Hart Danks, Esq. M.P. for the County of Northampton ]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer our most respectful congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte of Wales with a Prince of the illustrious House of Hanover...

His Majesty's faithful subjects

Grateful for the many virtues which during a long period have been displayed by your Majesty in your exalted station, we are sensible ourselves, that your Majesty will graciously accept these congratulations, which we most ardently pray that your Majesty may long and happily enjoy the love and veneration of this great empire...

Given under our common seal at the City of New Sarum, the 26th day of May 1816.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, and Town Clerk of the ancient Borough and Corporation of New Sarum, in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer your Majesty our warmest and most respectful congratulations on the present marriage of your illustrious grand-daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Leopold George, Prince of Cobourg, a Prince of the most distinguished merit.

So desirable an event must afford your Majesty the highest satisfaction; and has likewise our minds, as well as the minds of other loyal subjects, of our revered and venerable King, in inexpressible joy; and we are sure in prospect of continued happiness and prosperity and life.

We sincerely hope that every conjugal felicity may accompany this auspicious alliance; that it may prove a source of lasting happiness to your royal breast, and to every branch of your august family; and that your Majesty may long and happily enjoy the love and veneration of this great empire.

enjoy the blessings consequent on this happy union, as our earnest prayer.

Given under the common seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the same Borough, this 16th day of May, in the year 1816. James Atkins, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty, the humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath.

Mudrin,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, approach your Majesty with the most profound respect to offer our congratulations on the union of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg; an event pre-eminently calculated to perpetuate the blessings received by all classes of His Majesty's subjects under the mild Government of the House of Brunswick; and from the amiable qualities and accomplishments of the illustrious bride, aided by the bright example of conjugal virtues exhibited on the throne of these realms, we confidently anticipate that this auspicious alliance will be productive of unalloyed happiness to the royal pair, and of permanent advantage to the best interests of an admiring and a loyal people.

Given under our common seal of the said City on the 17th day of May, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty, the humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

Wad it please your Majesty,
WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Exeter, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Prince of Cobourg and Saalfeld.

We participate in the joy this event must occasion to your Majesty and your illustrious House; and we humbly hope that this union will highly tend to promote your Majesty's domestic happiness. That the transcendent qualities for which your Majesty hath always been so eminently distinguished may be transmitted by the descendants of the amiable Princess on whom the hopes and wishes of the nation are fixed, is our most hearty and fervent prayer. Edw. Gattey, Town Clerk.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty, WE, your Majesty's most faithful servants, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Magistrates, and Approved Men, together with the other inhabitants of the town and Borough of Guildford, beg leave to approach your Majesty, with our sincerest congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg. The satisfaction your Majesty must experience, from this auspicious event, so consonant to your wishes and to those of this nation, is sensibly felt by your Majesty's loyal servants of the town and Borough of Guildford, who assure your Majesty, that whatever is conducive to your Majesty's happiness will at all times be the source of joy to them.

May this union prove a lasting comfort and satisfaction to your Majesty; may every felicity and happiness be enjoyed by the illustrious personages themselves, and may they enjoy that affection and esteem of the British nation which your Majesty has long possessed.

Signed, by order and on behalf of the Mayor, &c. Joseph Hockley, jun. Town Clerk.

Dundee, May 29, 1816.

ROBERT MILLAR, junior, Merchant, in Dundee, hereby intimates, that his appointment as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Abbot has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and that the Sheriff-Substitute of Forfarshire has fixed Saturday the 15th of June next for the examination of the Bankrupt, and others acquainted with his business, within the Sheriff Court-Room at Forfar, and Saturday the 29th of that month, for his examination, within Merchant's Inn at Dundee, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of each of those days.

The Trustee further intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Office of William Small, and John Henderson, Merchants, in Dundee, on Monday the 1st day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, on Monday the 15th day of July next, for electing Commissioners, and for the other purposes specified in the Statute.

The Creditors are also requested to lodge their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of the Trustee, at or previous to the said first meeting; and to produce the same to the said Trustee, who shall fail to make such productions, hereafter and the 6th February 1817 (being ten months from the date of the sequestration), they will receive no share of the first dividend.

Notice to the Creditors of John Howie, Farmer and Cattle-Dealer, in Bushay.

Kilmarnock, May 29, 1816.

JOHN M'CUBBIN, Accountant, in Kilmarnock, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Howie, has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and that the Sheriff of Ayrshire has fixed Wednesday the 12th and Wednesday the 26th days of June next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon on each day, within the Sheriff Clerk's Office, in Ayr, for the public examinations of the said Bankrupt and others connected with his business.

And the Trustee further intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the house of James Watling, Vintner, in Newton on Ayr, on Thursday the 27th day of June next, at Eleven in the Forenoon; and another meeting will be held within the house of Robert Rodger, innkeeper, in Kilmarnock, on Friday the 12th day of July next, for the purpose of electing Commissioners, and instructing the Trustee in the management of the estate.

And the Trustee hereby requires the said Creditors at or previous to the first mentioned meeting, to produce in his hands their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, certifying to those who fail to do so, hereafter and the 30th day of February next, being ten months after the date of the sequestration, they will have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estate; farther intimating, that at the meeting to be held at Ayr upon the 27th day of June next, there will come under the consideration of the Court of Session the question regarding the sale of the stock of the said Bankrupt, sold under the circumstances reported to the Creditors by the Interim Factor upon the estate.

Notice to the Creditors of James Easson, Ship-Owner and Coal-Broker, in Ferry-Port-on-Craig, Fife.

MR. ROBERT MILLER, junior, Merchant, in Dundee, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Easson has been confirmed by the Court of Session; that the Sheriff-Substitute has fixed Tuesday the 11th and Wednesday the 19th day of June next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Cupar, for the public examination of the Bankrupt, and others connected with his affairs; and that on Thursday the 27th June and Thursday the 11th day of July next, meetings of the said Creditors will be held within the Tontine Inn, Cupar, both at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the election of Commissioners, and the other purposes mentioned in the Statute.

Such of these Creditors as have not already produced their claims, grounds, and vouchers of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, are hereby required to lodge the same with the Trustee, or with David Smith, Writer, in Dundee, Agent in the sequestration, at or previous to the said first day of meeting; certifying hereby, that those who fail to do so within the period specified in the Statute, shall have no share of the first dividend.
