THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte of Wales to His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

Sensibly alive to, and deeply participating in, every event connected with the august Family of your Royal Highness, we regard with sincere pleasure the union which has been celebrated, as allowing the true grounds of securing the happiness of a Nation, whose fate this nation is so feelingly interested in.

That His Royal Highness, and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg, His illustrious consort, may enjoy the blessings of mutual and increasing happiness, will ever be the ardent wish of our hearts; and we ardently pray, that Providence, whose dispensations have been so sensibly felt in the late happy events in Europe, may long preserve your Royal Highness to reign in the affections of a free, loyal, and united people.

Guildhall, Hartlepool, May 11, 1816.

Transmitted by the Earl of Ely, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Devon.

May it please your Royal Highness, WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Lieutenants, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Devon, beg leave to approach the throne with our most fervent congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

We rejoice on all occasions which contribute to the happiness of your Royal Highness, and every branch of your august Family; and we hail this auspicious alliance as an event which, from the high character and distinguished qualities of His Serene Highness, and the estimable and varied virtues of His Royal Brother, affords the most presage of domestic felicity to the illustrious pair.

We contemplate this propitious union, as beneficial to the best interest of the British empire. Whatever tends to secure to our country the Protestant succession of your illustrious race on the throne of their ancestors, must always form a material portion of the happiness of His Majesty's loyal subjects.

That His Serene Highness and His Royal Consort may enjoy for many years all the blessings of the connubial state, and that your Royal Highness may long live to witness and participate their happiness, are our fervent wish and prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in a general meeting held at Bath, this 27th day of May, in the year 1816.

Ely, Preses. [Transmitted by the Earl of Ely, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most gracious Prince, WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council, of the City of Glasgow, humbly approach
