SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1816.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgess of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, beg leave most respectfully to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned and heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, a Prince distinguished by so many excellent qualities and personal accomplishments, as give the fairest promise, not only of engaging the affections of your royal daughter, but of consolidating the respect and esteem of the British nation.

Allow us also to express to your Royal Highness, the deep sense we entertain of the regard which your Royal Highness has manifested on this occasion for the welfare of His Majesty's subjects, and to assure your Royal Highness that, in the union of your illustrious daughter with a Protestant Prince of so high a character, we have the strongest pledge for the security of our dearest rights, and for the preservation of our excellent Constitution both in Church and State.

May it please the Supreme Disposer of all Events to grant, that the union of this illustrious pair may prove the source of mutual happiness to themselves, and of great and lasting benefit to these kingdoms; and that your Royal Highness may long live to be a witness of these blessings.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, the 24th day of May, in the 56th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third.

Edward Robert Travers, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, beg to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere congratulations on the nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

Fully sensible of the many blessings which have been experienced by our ancestors and ourselves under the auspicious Government of the Princes of the House of Brunswick, we are anxious to express to your Royal Highness the cordial satisfaction with which we, in common with the rest of His Majesty's faithful subjects, view an event which gives the best security for a continuance of these invaluable blessings, at the same time that it augments the domestic felicity of your Royal Highness.

That the full enjoyment of public prosperity and private happiness may uninterruptedly await your Royal Highness, is our fervent prayer to an allwise and bountiful Providence.

Given under our common seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 4th day of June, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We particularly rejoice at an event so highly gratifying to your Royal Highness's paternal feelings; and at the same time we beg permission to express our satisfaction at the prospect which this happy event affords of the sceptre of these kingdoms being continued in the line of that illustrious House which has so long and so happily reigned over us.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Smelt, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the homage of our sincerest congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfeld; an auspicious event, shedding lustre even upon this the brightest period of our annals, in which the arduous contest we have long maintained against an inveterate enemy, has, by the councils of your Royal Highness, been brought to a triumphant close—an event, moreover, which opens to us the prospect of transmitting to our posterity a continuance of those blessings which we are proud to acknowledge that we have at all times derived from the establishment of the House of Brunswick on the throne.

At this moment, in which our national character commands universal admiration abroad, we indulge a fond hope that our national prosperity also will be placed, through the means of this high union, upon its firmest basis at home; and we trust, that by the favour of Providence, we may look forward to the succession of a line of Princes, who shall emulate their ancestors in the happy art of ruling a loyal people with equal laws, and preserving with impartial care the dignity of the Crown and the liberties of the subjects.

Matthew Bell, Sheriff.

[Delivered to Lord Sidmouth by Mr. Bell, the High Sheriff, and Sir C. Monck, one of the Representatives of the County of Northumberland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; and we fervently pray, that this union may be productive, not only of private happiness to the august personages themselves, and of satisfaction to your Royal Highness, but of public prosperity, by perpetuating that line of succession, and giving additional security to those constitutional principles in Church and State, from which this nation has derived so many blessings.

In thus offering our unfeigned homage on the present auspicious occasion, we gratefully call to mind the many franchises and immunities which this Borough has received from the favour of former Sovereigns, who for ages honoured its vicinity with their residence, and which have left impressions still justly and deeply felt, of devotion and attachment to the throne, and of veneration for the established laws of this realm.

That your Royal Highness may long enjoy paternal comfort, private felicity, and public gratulation, shall ever continue to be among the first wishes of our hearts.

Given under our common seal, this 3d day of June 1816.

W. Mayor, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Lord Churchill, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Recorder, Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, beg leave to approach the throne with the most lively sentiments of respect and duty, and to congratulate your Royal Highness on the auspicious nuptials of your illustrious daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg Saalfeld.

We participate most loyally and sensibly with the feelings of your Royal Highness on an event so agreeable to your Royal House, so eminently calculated to strengthen and preserve the power, the unrivalled fame, and the clearest interests of the British empire.

May your Royal Highness have the felicity of seeing every wish of your heart realized by this propitious event, and may your personal happiness and the happiness of the royal pair, with the welfare and prosperity of these realms, be confirmed by it, equal to the exalted promise which has diffused such universal joy amongst His Majesty's loyal and happy subjects.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Essex, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen, which Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, with hearts elated by joy, and warmed with the most lively sentiments of duty, respect, and affection towards your Majesty and your illustrious descendants, hasten to express their satisfaction at the happy union which has taken place between ~~our~~ ^{our} royal grand-daughter the Princess Charlotte of Wales, and the Serene Highness Leopold, George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

That illustrious princess, with your Majesty's great and glorious example before you, should be gracious to the people, the time past hath so that throne which your Majesty has so long dignified by your virtues, shall not fail to follow your steps in the path which leads to honour and to happiness; and when we reflect that her royal consort emanates from the same country that produced our glorious Constitution, and gave birth to the Protestant religion, we entertain a confident hope that our civil and religious rights will be maintained with the same industry, and defended with the same ardour, that they have been during the long and auspicious reign of our beloved monarch, and the accompanying of our excellent son, our beloved and renowned Prince Regent.

In testimony whereof the common seal of said City is hereto affixed, the 13th day of May 1846.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

[illegible]

the United Kingdom.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

It is with unfeigned joy that we, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, do presume to offer to your Majesty our congratulations on the nuptials of the Princess Charlotte with

2A

His Serene Highness Leopold, Prince of Saxe-Coburg, an event that brings to the nation at large delight and satisfaction.

Interested as we are in every accession that is made to your Royal House and its domestic happiness, we cannot but regard with peculiar pleasure an union so consonant to the wishes of the royal consort of our excellent and venerable Sovereign, whose eminent virtues are deeply impressed on the hearts of this faithful people.

hearts of this faithful people.
It has been the happiness of that people to see displayed, in your Majesty's character, the highest example of religion and virtue, with every amiable and estimable quality that can adorn the pre-eminent station which Divine Providence hath allotted to your Majesty.

to your Majesty.

5. The auspicious influence of such virtues, we trust, will ever incite to imitation ; we cling with fond affection to the hope of its inspiring future Queens, with virtuous and noble minds, and a true affection to our King and Country.

We are not ignorant how much the security and permanent prosperity of our country will depend upon the maintenance of our Constitution in Church and State—a Constitution that has protected our liberties and essentially promoted our happiness. An entire yearning to transmit to posterity a true idea of the inestimable blessings of it, we are fully assured of your Majesty's most gracious support and co-operation, and we humbly trust that it will please the Almighty Disposer of Events to bless and preserve your Majesty to see all illustrious progeny of this happy marriage emulating such excellence, and to witness the greatness and felicity of your people.

Given under official seal, 1st of Guildhall, this 23d day of May 1862 to the undersigned J. R. Goulding, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty:

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City and Burghs of London, to the Honourable the Judges of the Court of Chancery, in the Year of our Lord

It is worth of especially mention and it will be found in the number of the 1st of May.

WE. His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal Officers of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg to congratulate the auspicious event—the birth of a Prince of Royal Highness, the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg, born August 2.

We rejoice, Madam, to observe that every circumstance attending this union tends to so fair a prospect of increased satisfaction and employment to the Royal Family, and of well-founded confidence to His Majesty's subjects in His Government; those blessings undid our religious and civil establishments which have been enjoyed since the accession of the House of Hanover to the Throne of these kingdoms, and which to us are thus added.

Scarcely ever, we believe, does the public feeling in these kingdoms... so justly reflected in this happy country: do testify of a more successful and happy participation in a fortunate result, than in the present.

May your Majesty, who have ever so warmly and honourably interested yourself in the welfare of your royal descendants, long live to witness their prosperity and happiness.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to present our sincere congratulations to your Majesty on the union of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, an event which we confidently hope will not only promote your Majesty's domestic happiness, but will diffuse general joy and satisfaction amongst all classes of the community in the United Kingdom.

We offer to your Majesty our sincere and ardent wishes that the blessings and comforts to arise from this happy union may long be experienced by your Majesty; and that the effects of those virtues, which adorn your Majesty's public and private life, may be transmitted to our remotest posterity.

Given under our common seal, the 15th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1816.

Witnessed by William Barton, Mayor.

[Presented by William Barton, Esq. Mayor; and Richard Dalton and Jonathan Blundell Hollinshead, Esqrs. Bailiffs.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, intreat your Majesty graciously to accept the affectionate sincerity of our congratulations upon the happy marriage of your illustrious grand daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.

The joy with which we approach your Majesty on this interesting occasion, would have been unmingled and unalloyed, if we could have carried it to the throne of the Father of His People, and assured Him of our full participation in the happy prospects which are opening upon that beloved Princess, for whose early welfare He laboured with such unremitted tenderness and anxiety; but while His virtues live in our hearts, and His name mingles with our prayers, we sincerely rejoice that your Majesty is still permitted to recommend the grace and beauty of those domestic virtues, which your Majesty and our beloved Monarch have heretofore so invariably exemplified.

Most fervently do we wish (and the devotedness of loyalty can wish no more), that the august pair, in whose future welfare your Majesty and the nation are so deeply interested, may emulate those excellencies which have added lustre and dignity to the exaltation of your Majesty's rank, and given your Majesty a sovereignty over the affections, as well as over the obedience, of an admiring people.

On behalf of the meeting,

William Barton, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by William Barton, Esq. Mayor; and John Bridge Aspinall and John Bourne, Esqrs.]

May it please your Majesty,

WITH feelings of profound veneration, we, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled, beg to lay at your Majesty's feet our warmest congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

To an union, in which the happiness of Her Royal Highness and the best interests of all His Majesty's subjects are so deeply involved, we look with confident hopes, that, in the renewal of the brilliant example of conjugal affection, of domestic virtue, and of devotion to the public weal, which for more than half a century has graced the throne of these realms, the fondest wishes of a grateful people may be realised.

That your Majesty may long live to participate in the blessings of this auspicious event, is our earnest prayer.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, in the Council Chamber of the same Borough, the 4th day of June, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

Thomas Tylee, Mayor.
