THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Dean and Canons of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within His Castle of Windsor, beg leave humbly to present our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the recent marriage of His Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, in whose acknowledged virtues and religious principles we trust, that we have a sure pledge for the conjugal happiness of your adorable and illustrious daughter; and for the transmission to our posterity of those blessings, which a happy nation has long enjoyed under the mild and paternal Government of the House of Brunswick.

May we be permitted to add, that we should have justly to reproach ourselves, if we neglected the opportunity afforded by the present occasion, of expressing to your Royal Highness our admiration of that magnanimous perseverance through which (under the blessing of God upon your Royal Highness's Counsels at home, and the gallant efforts of His Majesty's fleets and armies abroad) a warfare of almost unexampled duration and difficulty has at length been brought to a successful and most glorious termination.

[Transmitted by the Honourable and very Reverend the Dean of Windsor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our fervent congratulation on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfeld.

Deeply sensible of the inestimable benefits which have redounded to this country from the wise and paternal Government of the Sovereigns of your Royal Highness's most illustrious House, we cannot but hail with heartfelt gladness an event which promises to perpetuate these blessings; and from the same hoarded stock to raise up to our children's children ever-watchful guardians of their dearest interests.

May this auspicious union, which dates its origin from the proudest period of our country's history, form an epoch to which posterity shall look back with feelings of joy and gratitude; and may a long succeeding line of Princes emulate the glory of your Royal Highness, and of your august and ever-honoured Father, in seeking to rest the stability of the throne on the hearts of the people, and to insure their heroic efforts against every foe, by preserving to them the full exercise of their rights and liberties.

H. Hutchinson, High Sheriff.
[Transmitted by J. G. Lubbock, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, beg leave to present to your Majesty our humble and sincere congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte Augusta to His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The influence of your Majesty's exalted rank has been uniformly exerted to encourage those domestic virtues, which are not only the brightest ornaments of private life, but reflect additional lustre on a crown.

We shall not fail to address our fervent prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty's virtues may be emulated by your dependants, and that your Majesty may long live to enjoy the gratification of witnessing in your children's children, the beneficial effects of your own instructive example.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex, beg leave humbly and dutifully to congratulate your Majesty upon the recent marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

An union in all respects so desirable will, we trust, afford to your Majesty, and to every branch of your Majesty's august Family, the highest pleasure and satisfaction; nor can we contemplate with indifference those eventual and lasting advantages which we, in common with every subject of our revered and venerable King, have a fair prospect of deriving from these auspicious nuptials.

Nics. Pease, High Sheriff, and in behalf of the County of Essex.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the homage of our sincerest congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, Saalfeld, an auspicious event, shedding lustre even upon this the brightest period of our annals, an event, moreover, which opens to us the prospect of transmitting to our posterity a continuance of those blessings, which we are proud to acknowledge that we have at all times derived from the establishment of the House of Brunswick on the throne.

At this moment, in which our national character commands universal admiration abroad, we indulge a fond hope that our national prosperity also will be placed, through the means of this high union, upon its firmest basis at home; and we trust that, by the favour of Providence, we may look forward to the succession of a line of Princes who shall emulate their ancestors in the happy art of ruling a loyal people with equal laws, and preserving with impartial care the dignity of the Crown, and the liberties of the subject.

Matthew Bell, Sheriff.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys, of the Isle of Man, in Tynwald assembled, beg leave to present our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty, on the happy and auspicious event of the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We particularly rejoice in an event which must prove so highly gratifying to your Majesty's maternal feelings, and we beg permission to express our satisfaction in the prospect which this happy union affords, of the sceptre of these kingdoms being continued in the line of that illustrious House, which has so long and so happily reigned over us.

May it descend from generation to generation, and be ever swayed with the same justice and beneficence which we have experienced under the reign of our beloved Sovereign.

Corvelius Smith, Lieutenant-Governor.

28th of May 1816.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Marlborough.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, humbly request your Majesty's gracious acceptance of our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg, an event which must be highly gratifying to your Majesty, not only in the prospect it affords of promoting the happiness of Her Royal and Serene Highnesses, and the prosperity of the House of Brunswick, but also of continuing the blessings and increasing the security which this empire has so long enjoyed, under His Majesty's benign and most gracious reign.

We humbly beg permission to repeat the assurances we have heretofore been graciously allowed the honour to offer to your Majesty, of our unalterable attachment and affection to our gracious Sovereign, to your Majesty, and to your august Family, and to add the expressions of our fervent wishes that the union, so auspiciously formed, may be blessed with a long and continued series of happiness and prosperity.

John Halcumb, Mayor.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Bedford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Bedford, penetrated with the truest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and Family, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the offerings of sincere congratulations on the nuptials which has united, under the patronage and auspices of happiness to themselves and benefit to the country, the hope of the House of Brunswick with His Serene Highness the Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

We further venture to indulge a hope that the Almighty will be crown with His blessing this union of ~~states~~ ~~happiness~~ ~~in the hands~~ of public tranquillity, ~~that it may~~ ~~therein~~ ~~effect~~ of producing a long perspective of splendour to your august House, of inspiring the confidence of the people, and of establishing to the latest posterity the security of the British Empire.

Thos. Kidman, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty;

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, embrace this happy occasion to lay at your Majesty's feet our warmest congratulations on the marriage of your illustrious grand-daughter with Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg. Influenced by sentiments of the most fervent affection for your august Family, we sincerely participate in the satisfaction and the joy which fill your royal heart on so desirable an union. The character of the Prince whom she has selected to be the partner of her life, in combination with her own excelling virtues and accomplishments, presents to the illustrious pair the fairest prospect of conjugal and domestic happiness; and to this nation, over whom the beloved Princess, in the source of nature, is apparently destined to reign, that security and protection of its rights and liberties which it has enjoyed under the mild and just Government of our venerable and venerated Monarch. They have, before their eyes a perfect model in his conduct, and in that of your Majesty, whose strict discharge of the religious, social, and relative duties has reflected the brightest glory on that high station, in which the Divine Providence has placed you; and communicating its impulse from that pre-eminence to all ranks and orders, among the subjects of this kingdom, has, under God, been a main cause of confirming the stability of the throne, and preserving the independence of our country, during the violence of that tremendous revolution by which Europe was so long afflicted and laid waste.

That a long continuance of health, and every other blessing, may attend your Majesty, and every branch of the Royal Family, is our most sincere and ardent prayer.

Jas. Bower, Mayor.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Dean and Canon of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within His Castle of Windsor, beg leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and respectful congratulations on the union of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

It has been our peculiar felicity to have the opportunity of more immediately observing those domestic virtues, which, while they have commanded the admiration of the world, have drawn down to your Majesty the affections, and improved the hearts of His Majesty's subjects.

When we consider the attractive point of view in which the public and private duties have been placed by your Majesty, and the virtues which Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta has already evinced, shall we be deemed presumptuous in expressing that your Majesty will be rewarded in the manner most gratifying to your immortal feelings, by seeing your illustrious descendant exhibiting another bright example of all the duties of her station to an admiring and devoted people. That your Majesty may long enjoy this happy fruit of your virtuous and exemplary conduct, shall be our fervent and unremitting prayer.

[Presented by the Dean and Chapter of Windsor.]

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates, the Clergy, and the other Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley.

Most gracious Queen,

WE, His Majesty's ever loyal and faithful subjects, the Magistrates, the Clergy, and the other Inhabitants of the ancient and Royal Town of Dudley, humbly beg permission to express to your Majesty our cordial congratulations on the joyful and happy occasion of the nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

An union so congenial with the principles of the British Constitution, adorned and cemented by so many virtues and by such natural excellence, cannot fail, with the blessing of Divine Providence, to be happy in itself and a blessing to the nation.

May it be blessed with felicity so universal and unmingled as the joy which it produces is universal.

May your Majesty long live to witness that felicity; and may the Imperial Crown of this Realm be worn with undiminished lustre by the descendants (inheriting the private as well as public virtues) of our beloved Sovereign and your Majesty, till time shall be no more.
