THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Dean and Canons of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within His Castle of Windsor, beg leave humbly to present our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the recent marriage of His Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, in whose acknowledged virtues and religious principles we trust, that we have a sure pledge for the conjugal happiness of your adorable and illustrious daughter; and for the transmission to our posterity of those blessings, which a happy nation has long enjoyed under the mild and paternal Government of the House of Brunswick.

May we be permitted to add, that we should have justly to reproach ourselves, if we neglected the opportunity afforded by the present occasion, of expressing to your Royal Highness our admiration of that magnanimous perseverance through which (under the blessing of God upon your Royal Highness's Counsels at home, and the gallant efforts of His Majesty's fleets and armies abroad) a warfare of almost unexampled duration and difficulty has at length been brought to a successful and most glorious termination.

[Transmitted by the Honourable and very Reverend the Dean of Windsor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our fervent congratulation on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfeld.

Deeply sensible of the inestimable benefits which have redounded to this country from the wise and paternal Government of the Sovereigns of your Royal Highness's most illustrious House, we cannot but hail with heartfelt gladness an event which promises to perpetuate these blessings; and from the same hoarded stock to raise up to our children's children ever-watchful guardians of their dearest interests.

May this auspicious union, which dates its origin from the proudest period of our country's history, form an epoch to which posterity shall look back with feelings of joy and gratitude; and may a long succeeding line of Princes emulate the glory of your Royal Highness, and of your august and ever-honoured Father, in seeking to rest the stability of the throne on the hearts of the people, and to insure their heroic efforts against every foe, by preserving to them the full exercise of their rights and liberties.

W. Hutchinson, High Sheriff.
[Transmitted by J. G. Lubbock, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Chancellor, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, beg leave to present to your Majesty our humble and sincere congratulations on the marriage of the Princess Charlotte Augusta to His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The influence of your Majesty's exalted rank has been uniformly exerted to encourage those domestic virtues, which are not only the brightest ornaments of private life, but reflect additional lustre on a crown.

We shall not fail to address our fervent prayers
