

that message be sent from this House to congratulate Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, on the late solemnization of their marriages, and that the Lord President and the Lord Privy Seal do carry the said message.

George Rose, Cler. Parliamentory.
[Presented accordingly by the Barls of Harrowby and Westmorland.]

To which Her Royal Highness, and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer: We are much gratified by the proof of attention and regard which We have received upon this occasion from the House of Lords, and We return them many thanks for their congratulations.

Conradford House, May 13, 1816.
MESSAGE of Congratulation from the House of Commons to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

Luna, 6th May 1816.

Resolved, nemine contradicente, that a congratulatory message be sent to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, on the happy occasion of their nuptials.

Ordered, that the Marquess of Worcester, the Earl Gower, Lord Viscount Elmley, Lord Viscount Clive, Mr. Hill, Mr. Cecil Jenkinson, Mr. Law, and Sir Thomas Island, do attend the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness with the said message.
[Presented by the above Noblemen and Gentlemen accordingly.]

To which Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer: We receive with great satisfaction this proof of the attention and regard of the House of Commons, and return them many thanks for their congratulations.

Answer of the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.
Gentlemen,

I rejoice at the share the House of Commons, take in my happiness, and am sensible of their attention in making me these congratulations. I am very much obliged to them for their good wishes, and thank them for the assurance of their friendship, which I shall always try to deserve.

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, which Addresses, they were pleased to receive very graciously.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge your Serene Highness, by the direction of the Mayor and Corporation of Southampton, and to beg leave to congratulate your Serene Highness upon your marriage with Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and to acquaint your Serene Highness that the Mayor and Corporation, the Common Council assembled, have unanimously elected your Serene Highness an Honorary Burgess of their very ancient body, and in this regard to mention that your Serene Highness's acceptance of this nomination will add a lustre to the annals of this town, already graced with the names of His Majesty and of your illustrious consort's Royal Father the Prince Regent, and also of nearly all the Royal Dukes, and will be highly esteemed as a proof of your Serene Highness's condescension and favour towards this Town and Corporation.

I beg leave to subscribe myself, with the utmost respect, your Serene Highness's most obedient and devoted humble servant,
The Ridding Town Clerk,
His Serene Highness Leopold Duke of Saxe Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c. &c. &c.
Camelford-House, London.

SIB: Camelford House, May 19, 1816.

I am commanded by the Prince Leopold to acknowledge the receipt of the address and congratulations of the Mayor and Corporation of Southampton on the happy event of His Serene Highness's marriage with Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta; and to express to the Mayor and Corporation of Southampton His Serene Highness's satisfaction in receiving this mark of their attention and regard; and I have the further in command to make known to the Mayor and Corporation of Southampton, His Serene Highness's pleasure in accepting their vote in Common Council assembled, and their election as Honorary Burgess of their very ancient body.

I have the honour to be,
Robert Gardiner,
To The Ridding Town Clerk, Southampton.

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg, and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.

WE, your Royal and Serene Highnesses most affectionate and devoted servants, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Magistrates, and Approved Men, together with the other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Guildford, in the County of Surrey, beg leave to offer to your Royal and Serene Highnesses our warmest and most sincere congratulations on your auspicious union, and to assure you that a union so calculated to ensure the domestic felicity of your Royal and Serene Highnesses, is in