And seventeen private Acts.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, beg permission to offer our respectful congratulations to your Royal Highness on the recent marriage of your illustrious daughter with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg, an event which has given universal satisfaction to His Majesty's subjects, and which we sanguinely hope will be succeeded by many years of continued happiness to their Royal and Serene Highnesses, as well as to your Royal Highness and to every branch of your illustrious family.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our warmest sentiments of loyalty to His Majesty, and of attachment and gratitude to your Royal Highness for the wisdom and energy of your Royal Highness's Government, which, under the guidance of Divine Providence, and the gallantry of British arms, have brought to a happy and glorious termination the late sanguinary and eventful contest, and restored to us the blessings of peace.

That your Royal Highness, and the illustrious personages in whose union we feel the most lively interest, may long enjoy every earthly happiness and prosperity, is our fervent prayer.

John Halcomb, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Major-General the Honourable Sir E. Stopford, K. C. B. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall, approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, with His Serene Highness Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, a Prince distinguished alike by his valour and his virtues; and we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our warmest wishes that this union, so auspiciously contracted, may be attended with long continued happiness to the exalted parties, and contribute to the welfare and prosperity of His Majesty's dominions. L. C. Daubuz, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Viscount Falmouth, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses they were pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg, and to His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

May it please your Royal and Serene Highnesses,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey, beg leave to offer to your Royal and Serene Highnesses our very hearty congratulations upon your recent nuptials.

Your illustrious alliance, of so much interest and importance to these realms, could not fail to afford the highest satisfaction to all His Majesty's subjects; and we most cordially rejoice in an union which holds out so fair a prospect of permanent felicity.

At the same time that we unite with all our fellow-subjects in exultation, we also join with equal sincerity in most ardent wishes that every happiness, which this auspicious union in its commencement promises to produce, may unceasingly attend your Royal and Serene Highnesses, and that Divine Providence may ever bestow upon you both the choicest blessings.

Given under our common seal, in the Guildhall of our said Town, the 28th day of May, in the 36th year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1816.

[Presented by Thomas Evance, Esq. Recorder, and the Earl of Liverpool, High Steward.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"Gentlemen,

"We are assured of the loyalty and attachment of the Corporation of Kingston; and we receive their Address and Congratulations with the greatest pleasure."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, embrace this joyful occasion of approaching your Royal Highness with our warmest and most sincere congratulations on the happy event of your marriage with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We have firm assurance that your Royal Highness's union with a Prince already eminent for his bravery, and universally esteemed for his urbanity, will prove a source of connubial happiness; and that your Royal Highness's amiable disposition, splendid accomplishments and elegance of manners, will secure lasting affection, which can only flow from pure and disinterested regard.

May your Royal Highness long live most happy in the Society of the Prince, a pattern of virtue and conjugal felicity; and may Providence grant that your descendants may prove a blessing to a prosperous, united and loyal people.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the 17th day of May 1816.

[Presented by Mr. Courtenay and Mr. Gattie.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

May it please your Serene Highness,

TO accept the most cordial congratulations of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, on the recent event of your marriage with Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

This with high satisfaction that we have to pay this mark of our respect to a Prince descended from one of the most illustrious Houses in Germany; famous for various braves in the history of that empire, and rendered peculiarly dear to this and every Protestant country, by being the first and firm supporters of the reformed religion.

The proof your Serene Highness hath already given of your distinguished conduct in the late arduous but successful contest against the enemy of Europe and of social order, is a pledge for us to be assured that your Serene Highness will ever meet the best wishes and feelings of the British empire.

May every degree of conjugal happiness attend your Serene Highness and your illustrious consort.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the 17th day of May 1816.

[Presented by Mr. Courtenay and Mr. Gaittè.]

To which Addresses Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

" Gentlemen,
" We thank you for this proof of the regard and attachment of the Corporation of Exeter; and we receive their Congratulations and Address with the sincerest pleasure."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg.

Madam,
WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Council assembled, entreat permission to present our ardent congratulations upon the happy marriage of your Royal Highness with His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

On whom could the heart and hand of an illustrious and much beloved Princess be conferred with better hopes than on a young, virtuous, and valiant Prince, whose ancestors were highly distinguished among the first defenders of the Reformation and the Protestant faith; and who has himself lately dared to bleed and to partake in those decisive battles which, after many reverses, have at length secured the sacred cause, by giving to Europe the blessings of a general peace.

The Corporation of Harwich hasten to acknowledge the joy which they feel on this happy event, and fervently pray, that your domestic happiness may be uninterrupted and permanent; and that your Royal Highness may live to maintain the glory and prosperity of this United Kingdom.

John Hopkins, Mayor.

Answer.

To John Hopkins, Esq. Mayor of Harwich.

" SIR, June 3, 1816.
" I am commanded by Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, to acknowledge Her receipt of the Address from the borough of Harwich, and to request you will make known Her Royal Highnesses pleasure in receiving these congratulations, and that you will express how fully Her Royal Highness is assured of their attachment and regard.

" I have the honour to be, &c.

" Robert Gardiner."

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to testify our joy, and to offer your Serene Highness our most respectful compliments of congratulation, on the auspicious and happy occasion of your union with the virtuous, amiable, and accomplished Princess Charlotte Augusta, presumptive Heiress to the Throne of this United Kingdom.

The transcendent fame of your illustrious ancestors, your own exalted military character, and your admirable personal qualities; at once impress us with feelings of esteem for your Serene Highness, and present to our view the most enlivening prospect of the best possible results from such an alliance, both as to the individual happiness of yourself and your royal consort, and the future prosperity of His Majesty's dominions.

May you both long live to experience the blessings of Providence, and may you, by your royal progeny, transmit your names and excellence to the latest posterity.

John Hopkins, Mayor.

Answer.

To John Hopkins, Esq. Mayor of Harwich.

" SIR, June 3, 1816.

" I am commanded by His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold, to acknowledge the receipt of the Address from the borough of Harwich, and, in his commands to me, to request you will make known his great pleasure in receiving their congratulations. His Serene Highness has directed me particularly to advert to, and express in his name, the great satisfaction he feels in their assurance of regard, and their personal welcome and attachment to himself.

" I have the honour to be, &c.

" Robert Gardiner."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on your marriage with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

We feel, in common with the other loyal subjects of our beloved Sovereign, the greatest joy upon this happy occasion, and anticipate with confidence the national benefits and advantages that will result from a union so auspiciously began, and which we implore the Great Disposer of all events to crown with His Almighty blessings to the latest posterity.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled beg leave most respectfully to congratulate your Serene Highness on your nuptials with a Princess so eminently distinguished by birth and amiable qualities, and whose august family has ever distinguished themselves by unwearied zeal in the cause of religion and civil liberty.

Permit us to assure your Serene Highness of our sincere joy upon this happy occasion, and to express our heartfelt wishes that your Serene Highness and your illustrious consort may long enjoy every earthly blessing, both public and domestic.

[Presented by the Mayor of Bristol, Sir William Struth; the Sheriffs of Bristol, Mr. George and Mr. Bickley; the Town Clerk, Mr. Wurrell; attended by the Lord Chief Justice, Sir Vicary Gibbs, and the Members for Bristol, Mr. Hunt Davis, sen. and Mr. Protheroe.]

To which Addresses Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following answer:

"Gentlemen,

"We receive the Address from the Corporation of Bristol with the greatest pleasure, and we are much gratified in their assurances of attachment."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg.

May it please your Royal and Serene Highnesses,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, participating in the joy which your happy union has diffused throughout this mighty empire, respectfully offer our affectionate congratulations upon that happy event; and our earnest prayer, that it may be as fruitful in domestic blessing to yourselves, as it must be auspicious to the people of these realms.

Grateful as we ought to be for any union which would promise that best security for our liberty and prosperity, the perpetual succession in the House of Brunswick, our illustrious Princess has given us new cause of gratitude and admiration, by selecting from the birth-place of our free Constitution and of the Protestant Religion, a Prince, who has himself witnessed the miseries of ambitious war—who, in youth, stood gallantly in arms against the oppressor of mankind, and has grown to manhood contributing by brave exertion to the emancipation of Europe, and the pacification of the world.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the common seal of said City to be hereto affixed, the 13th day of May 1816.

Answer.

"MY LORD, Camelford House, June 4, 1816.

"I am commanded by Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, to acknowledge the receipt of the Address from the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Sheriffs, the Commons, and the Citizens of Dublin, on the happy event of Her Royal Highness's marriage with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold.

"I am directed, my Lord, to acknowledge to you the peculiar satisfaction Her Royal Highness has experienced in receiving these congratulations. And in expressing to the Sheriffs and the Citizens of Dublin these sentiments in Her Royal Highness's name, it is Her Royal Highness's desire, that they will receive Her assurances of confidence in all the regards and the affectionate attachment they have manifested on the occasion of their present Address.

"Her Royal Highness considers, with a constant interest, the happiness and the welfare of the Citizens of Dublin. And adverting to the present period, in which their efforts, in common with His Majesty's subjects, have raised the name and character of these realms to unexampled splendour and greatness, Her Royal Highness shares with them in all the just and high exultation with which they have closed a conflict so arduous and so sacred in its cause, and which has brought to their country and to Europe, the benefits and the blessing of a general peace.

"I have the honour to be, &c.

Robert Gardiner."

To the Lord Mayor of Dublin, &c. &c. &c.

Answer.

"MY LORD, Camelford House, June 4, 1816.

"I am commanded by His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold, to acknowledge the receipt of the Address from the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Sheriffs, the Commons, and the Citizens of Dublin, on the happy event of His Serene Highness's marriage with Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

"It is with the most lively and heartfelt satisfaction, that His Serene Highness receives the welcome of the Citizens of Dublin, and their assurance of attachment, so earnestly expressed in their present Address and Congratulations. I have it in command, my Lord, to request you will make these sentiments known to the Citizens of Dublin, in the name of the Prince Leopold. His Serene Highness shares with them entirely in all the ardent hopes they express for the happiness and the prosperity of His Majesty's dominions, and feels their just exultation, in seeing their constancy and efforts against a most unjust and ambitious war, at length rewarded and closed in general peace and repose to Europe.

"I have the honour to be, &c.

Robert Gardiner."

To the Lord Mayor of Dublin, &c. &c. &c.

To their Royal Highnesses the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, and Prince of Cobourg Saalfeld.

May it please your Royal Highnesses,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Recorder, Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and In-

Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, humbly beg leave to offer our ardent and sincere congratulations on your late auspicious marriage.

We beg leave also to add our anxious wishes, to those of the nation in general, that your illustrious union may be as productive of every domestic felicity to your Royal Highnesses, as it is eminently calculated to strengthen and preserve those principles which constitute the power and happiness of the British Empire.

Essex, High Steward.

Answer.

I am commanded by their Royal and Serene Highnesses, the Prince Leopold and the Princess Charlotte, to acknowledge the receipt of the Address from the High Steward, the Recorder, Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominster, on the happy event of their Royal Highnesses marriage.

In directing me to make this communication to your Lordship, their Royal Highnesses have further commanded me to request you will make known to the inhabitants of Leominster, with what satisfaction they receive these loyal and affectionate congratulations; and how fully their Royal Highnesses are assured, as well of the attachment of the inhabitants of Leominster to His Majesty's family, as of their regard and interest in the occasion of their present Address and Congratulations.

“ I have the honour to be, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.”

To the Earl of Essex.

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex, beg leave to offer our humble yet sincere congratulations upon your Royal and Serene Highnesses recent auspicious nuptials.

Whilst, in concurrence with the general voice, we join with joy and satisfaction a union, from which we venture to anticipate many successive years of domestic happiness and comfort to your Royal and Serene Highnesses, we feel justified in indulging confident hopes, that this United Kingdom will eventually derive that share of permanent advantage and prosperity which a union, formed under such favourable circumstances, seems calculated to produce.

Nics. Pearse, High Sheriff, of and in behalf of the County of Essex.

Answer.

“ SIR, Camelford-House, June 12, 1816.

I am commanded by their Royal and Serene Highnesses the Princess Charlotte and the Prince Leopold, to acknowledge the receipt of the Address from the Nobility, the Gentry, the Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Essex; to request you will make known their Royal Highnesses' pleasure in receiving their congratulations; and that you will express, in their Royal and Serene Highnesses' name, the great satisfaction with which they feel assured of the attachment of the Freeholders of Essex, and of their interest and participation in the general happiness and expression of joy, that the occasion of their Address gives rise to.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.”

To N. Pearse, Esq. High Sheriff of the County of Essex.

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, and to His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, Duke of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled, beg leave to tender our sincere and ardent congratulations to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, and to His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, Duke of Saxe Cobourg, on the joyful and auspicious event of their recent nuptials; an event so interesting to the domestic happiness of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and so important to the future welfare of His Majesty's United Kingdom; and to assure the illustrious personages of our most dutiful and zealous attachment to the august family of our revered and beloved King, the benignant Sovereign of a free, a loyal, and an affectionate people.

Given under our common seal, at our Guildhall, the 4th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1816.

[Presented by the Earl of Orford Lord Walpole, and Sir Martin Brown Helkès, Bart.]

Answer.

“ Camelford House, June 14, 1816.

“ My Lord,

I am commanded by their Royal and Serene Highnesses, the Prince Leopold and the Princess Charlotte, to acknowledge the receipt of the address from the Mayor, the Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in Council assembled, on the happy event of their Royal Highnesses marriage: and in begging your Lordship will communicate to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn, the interest their Royal and Serene Highnesses feel in their attachment and congratulations. I am further commanded to request you will make known, the pleasure their Royal and Serene Highnesses experience in receiving the present address and wishes of the Borough of King's Lynn for their continued and mutual happiness.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.”

To Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Chancellor, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our warmest congratulations on your union with a Prince, whose virtues merit all your Royal Highness's affection, and cannot fail to command the respect and esteem of the British nation.

We shall constantly pray, that your Royal Highness may long continue to enjoy all the bliss of conjugal felicity, and exhibit a bright example of conjugal virtue to a people, not less distinguished by their loyalty and generosity, than jealously tenacious of their moral and religious character.

To His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Chancellor, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, beg leave most respectfully to convey to your Serene Highness our cordial congratulations on your marriage with the amiable Princess, who is the presumptive heiress of the British Crown.

The estimable qualities by which your Serene Highness is so eminently distinguished, leave us no room to doubt of your Serene Highness soon possessing, in an unbounded degree, the love and attachment of the British people, or of the happiness of your august consort being realized to the full extent of our most sanguine wishes.

Answer.

Camelford House, June 15, 1816.

My Lord,

I am commanded by their Royal and Serene Highnesses, the Princess Charlotte and the Prince Leopold, to acknowledge the receipt of the address from the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor and Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, on the happy event of their Royal and Serene Highnesses marriage.

I am to make known to your Lordship, the peculiar satisfaction it affords their Royal and Serene Highnesses to receive assurances of such earnest and such affectionate interest in their happiness.

In the name of the Prince Leopold, my Lord, I am commanded to express His Serene Highness's sense and ardent feeling of those hopes that unite for his personal happiness, with all that can be considered prosperous and great, in the career of our most gracious Princess, Charlotte; and in the interest, the name, and continued welfare of His Majesty's dominions.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Robert Gardiner.

The Reverend Lord Bishop of Salisbury.

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, and to His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfeld.

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, beg leave to offer to your Royal and Serene Highnesses the expression of our fervent congratulation on your late auspicious marriage.

It is with just and joyful confidence that, in the virtues of your Royal Highness, we recognise another strong security for the continuance of those blessings which we owe to the wise and paternal government of the Sovereigns of the House of Brunswick. It is also with the sincerest gratification that we see adopted into that most illustrious house, a Prince not less distinguished by his own high qualities, than by the splendour of that ancestry, which numbers in its line the earliest and most renowned protector of the reformed religion.

May an union formed under so bright auspices, and big with such high hopes, be as full of happiness to your Royal and Serene Highness, as it is the subject of cordial exultation to the people of this United Kingdom.

W. Hutchinson, High Sheriff.

Answer.

Sir, Camelford House, June 18, 1816.

I am commanded by their Royal and Serene Highnesses, the Prince Leopold and the Princess Charlotte, to acknowledge the receipt of the address from the Gentry, the Clergy, and the Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, on the happy event of their Royal and Serene Highnesses marriage.

I am directed to request you will express to the Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, in their Royal Highnesses name, their great satisfaction in the perfect assurance they feel of the attachment of the inhabitants of the County Palatine of Durham; and that you will make known, also, the pleasure with which their Royal Highnesses receive their address and congratulations.

I have the honour to be, &c.

The humble address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, in the Town Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal and Serene Highnesses,

WE, your most affectionate servants, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, beg leave to offer your Royal and Serene Highnesses our warmest and most sincere congratulations, on your auspicious marriage, and to observe to you, that a union like yours, founded on the affections of the heart, is well calculated to insure the domestic felicity of your Royal and Serene Highnesses, and is in every view a source of satisfactory reflection to the British Empire.

We also rejoice in the opportunity afforded us, of addressing a Prince for whom we entertain the highest respect, and to assure your Serene Highness, how fully we participate in every happiness you can experience, and particularly in your union with so illustrious a Princess as the presumptive Heiress of these realms.

May these nuptials, so pleasing to the Country, be productive of permanent felicity, to yourselves and of prosperity to the nation, and may both you and your posterity ever live in the esteem and affection of a free and loyal people.

Martin Annesley, Chairman.

SIR, Camelford-House, June 20, 1816.

"I am to request you will make known to the Inhabitants of Reading, with what satisfaction their Royal and Serene Highnesses receive their address; and that you will communicate, in their Royal and Serene Highnesses names, both their confidence, and their sincere pleasure, in all the attachment and the interest expressed in their affectionate and earnest congratulations.

"I have the honour, &c.

"Robert Gardiner."

To Martin Annesley, Bart. Reading.

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

WE, the Dean and Canons of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within his Castle of Windsor, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your late marriage with a Prince, whose distinguished accomplishments and virtues are so well calculated to secure the entire affection of your Royal Highness, and to command the esteem of the whole British nation.

It is our earnest prayer, that a kind Providence will continue to shower down its choicest blessings upon this auspicious union to the latest period of your lives.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Dean and Canons of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, within his Castle of Windsor, request permission most respectfully to address our congratulations to your Serene Highness on your recent marriage with an august and amiable Princess, respecting whose happiness we cannot but feel interested, in common with the whole British empire, in the most sensible degree; and we trust that we shall not be suspected of flattery when we say, that we entertain a confident hope, that by entering into the connubial state with a Prince distinguished by so many estimable qualities, Her Royal Highness will not fail to attain that happiness.

We trust, also, that we shall be allowed, as an ecclesiastical body, to express our great satisfaction at the union of two Houses, which have ever been renowned, from the first dawn of the Reformation, as the most strenuous assertors and the firmest bulwarks of the Protestant Religion.

Answer.

"SIR, Camelford House, June 20, 1816.

"I am commanded by the Prince Leopold and the Princess Charlotte, to acknowledge the receipt of the address from the Dean and Canons of His Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George, of Windsor, on the happy occasion of their Royal and Serene Highnesses marriage.

"I am to make known to you, Sir, with what pleasure their Royal and Serene Highnesses receive this address; and their full assurance in the attachment and the interest of the Dean and Canons of Windsor, in their mutual and continued happiness, and looking forward to that result, anticipated in the occasion of the present address, the Prince Leopold commands me to say, how earnestly he joins in every ardent and continued hope, united either with the happiness, the greatness, or the prosperity of His Majesty's Kingdom.

"I have the honour, &c.

"Robert Gardiner."

The Rev. the Honourable the Dean of Windsor.

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Landgrave of Meissen, Margrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c. &c.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, assembled in Common Council, beg leave humbly to offer our congratulations to your Royal Highness and to your Serene Highness upon your marriage; an union which, we trust, under Providence, will equally tend to promote your own personal happiness, as also to preserve to the nation the blessings of our Constitution, by continuing the succession to the Throne of these realms in the House of Brunswick, to the remotest period of time.

Given under our common seal, the 29th day of May 1816.

[Presented by the Marquess of Worcester.]

To which Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following answer:

"We receive the congratulations of the Town and Borough of Monmouth with the greatest satisfaction; and we are highly gratified in their earnest assurances of regard."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal, dutiful and faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Island of Portland, beg leave to present our humble and sincere congratulations, on your marriage with His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg. In thus presuming to convey and express our heartfelt pleasure on this most auspicious circumstance, we submissively implore your Royal Highness will be graciously pleased kindly to accept our fullest participation, in sentiments of those warm expressions of loyalty, affection and regard, which have been so recently presented to your Royal Highness from our near and good neighbours of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis. Although our situation is naturally insulated, yet your Royal Highness may be confidently assured we are not inferior in possessing equal fervency of zeal, loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness, as well as to every branch of your illustrious Family.

That your Royal Highness may long experience every domestic blessing and comfort from this happy union, and that your royal and august husband may long live in mutual fidelity, is, and will be our constant prayer.

[Presented by John Penn, Esq.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Duke of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Island of Portland, beg permission to offer your Serene Highness our warm congratulations on your recent nuptials with our amiable and beloved Princess Charlotte Augusta. In thus presuming to present our humble and sincere congratulations, and heartfelt pleasure, arising from this most happy event, we submissively implore your Serene Highness will be graciously pleased kindly to accept our fullest participation, in sentiments of those warm expressions of loyalty, affection and regard, which have been so recently presented to your Serene Highness from our near and good neighbours of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis. Although our situation is naturally insulated, yet your Serene Highness may be confidently assured, we are not inferior in possessing equal fervency of zeal, loyalty and attachment to the person of your Serene Highness.

That your Serene Highness may long enjoy every domestic blessing and comfort, from this happy alliance, and may live a blessing to each other, is, and will be our constant invocation.

[Presented by John Penn, Esq.]

To which Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following answer.

We are much gratified in this proof of attention and regard in the Inhabitants of Portland; and we accept their congratulations with sincere pleasure.
