By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, amongst other things, appoint and declare that, with the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there should be borne, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany, ensigned with the electoral bonnet; and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as were therein declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence thereon, therein before described; and that the arms or ensigns armorial aforesaid should be used thenceforth, as far as conveniently might be, on all occasions wherein His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial ought to be used: and whereas His Majesty having substituted to His antient title of Elector of the Holy Roman Empire, the title of King of Hanover, it is fit that an alteration should be made in His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, We have therefore thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to appoint and declare that, instead of the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany, ensigned with the electoral bonnet, as directed by His Majesty's Proclamation above mentioned, there shall henceforth be used and borne, with the arms or ensigns armorial of His Majesty's said United Kingdom, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany, ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown; and that the standard of the said United Kingdom shall be the same quarterings as by His Majesty's said Proclamation were declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence, ensigned with the said Hanoverian royal crown, instead of the electoral bonnet: but, nevertheless, it is Our will and pleasure, that all such gold, silver, and copper monies, as on the day before this eighth day of this instant June were current and lawful monies of Great Britain, and all such gold, silver, and copper monies, as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful monies of the said United Kingdom in Great Britain; and that all such gold, silver, and copper monies, as on the day before this eighth day of this instant June were current and lawful monies of Ireland, and all such gold and silver, and copper monies, as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful monies of the said United Kingdom in Ireland; and all such monies as shall have been coined for and issued in any of the dominions of the said United Kingdom, and declared by Our Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dominions respectively, bearing His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any part or parts thereof; and all monies which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamation, shall continue to be lawful and current money of such dominions respectively, notwithstanding such change in His Majesty's arms or armorial bearings respectively as aforesaid, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon; and all and every such monies as aforesaid shall be received and taken in payment in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in the dominions thereunto belonging, after the date of this Proclamation, in such manner and as of the like value and denomination as the same were received and taken before the date hereof: and it is also Our will and pleasure that the several dies and marks which have been used to denote the stamp duties, and all other stamps and marks and instruments, which before the issuing of this Proclamation shall have been in actual use for any public purpose, and in which His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any parts or part thereof respectively may be expressed, shall not, by reason of this Proclamation or any thing therein contained, be changed or altered, until the same may be conveniently so changed or altered, or until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereon; but that all such dies, stamps, marks, and instruments respectively, bearing His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, used before this eighth day of June instant, or any parts or part of such arms or ensigns armorial, shall have the like force and effect, as the same had before the said eighth day of June instant.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled, presume to offer to your Royal Highness our most fervent congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold George Frederick of Saxe Cobourg.

While we feel deeply interested in an event of such vital importance to the prosperity of this kingdom, and so intimately connected with the happiness of your Royal House, we rejoice that the personal felicity of Her Royal Highness is so eminently secured by the many exalted virtues of Her chosen consort, and the country blessed with increased stability to the paternal sway of the House of Brunswick.

REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Scarborough, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer our cordial and sincere congratulations on the auspicious event of the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

Firmly attached as we are to the illustrious family of our revered Sovereign, whose paternal Government and excellencies of heart will ever be cherished in the sweetest recollection, we feel a lively interest in the recent alliance which promises so much felicity to an accomplished Princess and her amiable Consort, such high gratification to the parental feelings of your Royal Highness, and an additional stability to the House of Brunswick, a line of Princes who have ever proved the zealous friends and guardians of our civil and religious privileges.

We cannot conceal the pleasing reflections we entertain, when we consider that the Prince Leopold is descended from a House of illustrious Princes, who, like those of the House of Brunswick, have ever been conspicuous in the support of the Protestant cause, and the defence of religious liberty.

With sentiments of the purest gratitude and devotion, we fervently pray that the Almighty may crown with his choicest blessings the happy union which is the pleasing subject of our congratulations, and that the descendants of your august family may be perpetuated to the latest generations to sway the British sceptre, and to reign in the hearts of a free, loyal, and happy people.

Given under our common seal, at the Borough of Scarborough aforesaid, the 22d day of June, in the 56th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.

By order,

John Travis, Common Clerk of the said Borough.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Landholders, Justices of Peace, and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Bute, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on the auspicious matrimonial union which lately took place between Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte and His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg. From the virtue and universally acknowledged high accomplishments of the illustrious pair, we fondly augur the most happy results to this great empire.

While we deplore the cause which has for some time past made it necessary that the weighty affairs of Government should be devolved upon your Royal Highness, we desire to express our high sense of the wisdom, firmness, and true policy with which, under the auspices of your Royal Highness, the public business, in a period of unexampled danger and difficulty, has been conducted.

Our allegiance to our beloved and venerable Sovereign, and our attachment to your Royal Highness, are complete; yet there is one circumstance which we may be permitted to add, as attaching us more closely to our beloved Prince, namely, the Scots ducal title borne by your Royal Highness, which was the first, in that degree of peerage, bestowed in Scotland, and which was conferred by one of your royal predecessors after he had taken up his residence in the castle situated within our county town, where he spent some of the last years of his life.

This, at desire of a general meeting, held at Rothesay the 12th day of June 1816, signed by the Most Honourable the Marquess of Bute, Lord Lieutenant of the County.

Bute and Dumfries.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Town and Neighbourhood of South Shields, in the County of Durham.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of South Shields, feel the sincerest pleasure in approaching your Royal Highness with our most ardent and heartfelt congratulations on the late happy event of the marriage of your royal daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold George Frederick of Saxe Cobourg, Saalfeld, &c. While we remember with gratitude the great blessings this empire has enjoyed under your royal ancestors for so many years, the wisdom of His Majesty's Government, and also that of your Royal Highness while you have directed the Government as Prince Regent of this empire, during so long a period of unexampled difficulty and danger, we are filled with the greatest admiration and gratitude; and we now have those feelings much increased, by the late marriage so happily concluded with a Protestant Prince of such high expectation and noble descent, whom we trust will be destined to continue to this realm the happiness we now enjoy, for many years to come.

We also beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the increase this happy event affords to your own domestic comfort, and entertain a sincere and pleasing hope, that your Royal Highness may, many years, partake of the pleasure of seeing their offspring confirm every expectation a parent can entertain; and we trust your Royal Highness may be spared many years to this grateful country, and leave a successor to tread in the same steps which your Royal Highness has always done, and we think that, such being the case, this country would have no more to wish.

Robt. Green, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg: Deeply impressed with sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Royal House, we cannot but cordially participate in the gratification which your Royal Highness, as a Father and as a Prince must receive from this auspicious union, while at the same time highly sensible of the inestimable benefits which the subjects of these realms have enjoyed under the mild and benign influence of the House of Brunswick, and particularly of His present Majesty; we feel the highest satisfaction at an event, which, whether we consider the virtues and acquirements of Her Royal Highness and Her Consort, the principles in which they have been bred, or the lustre of the ancestry from which they spring, promises to us a continuance of those blessings which we have derived from our inestimable Constitution, as it has been administered by the Princes of your illustrious House. To a Princess descended from that race, nurtured in the principles of the British Constitution, and imbued with every moral and religious virtue, and to a Prince descended from a line of Monarchs, to whose wise laws we owe the foundation of our glorious Constitution, and of a family long distinguished for its attachment to the Protestant cause, we may confidently look to that support of our Constitution in Church and State; to that continued protection of our liberties, and equal administration of our laws, which have heretofore characterised the Princes of your Royal House, and established their rule over these realms, on the firmest basis of all human power, the hearts of a loyal and enlightened people.

It is our ardent prayer, that this propitious and important event may be attended with all the happiness to Her Royal and His Serene Highnesses; to which their personal merits so justly entitle them, and with all that benefit to the nation which we are confident it was the object of your Royal Highness's paternal and beneficent intention to secure to us.

Signed, at the request, and on behalf of the County of Surrey, at a public meeting held at Epsom, the 10th day of June 1816, of the several Contributory Boroughs of Cow-bridge, Swansea, Avon, Neath, Kenfig, Lougher and Lantrissant, humbly request permission to offer our sincere congratulations to your Royal Highness on the late auspicious marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with a Prince eminently distinguished for personal qualifications, and for both public and private virtues, and we beg leave further to assure your Royal Highness of the zealous and unalterable attachment of these Boroughs, praying likewise, that the Almighty will please to grant us the continuance of a race of Princes who will ever adorn the Throne, and equally protect the civil and religious liberties of these Kingdoms.

[Presented by the Hon. Mr. Stuart.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common-Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness, most gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, ever happy to testify our respectful attachment to your royal person and family, feel peculiarly so on the present occasion, when, participating in the general joy, we offer to your Royal Highness our ardent congratulations upon the marriage of your illustrious daughter with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We hail this auspicious union with an exultation proportioned to our sense of the signal blessings which this Country has enjoyed under the mild, paternal rule of your Royal House; confident that, whenever in the course of human events Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte shall be called to the Sovereignty of these realms, it will be her highest ambition to emulate her beloved father; and our revered Monarch, in that unceasing solicitude which they have ever manifested for the welfare of their people, and that while, like them, she upholds in undiminished glory the exalted character of England, by the exercise of every domestic virtue, she will shed a lustre around the throne.

May the happiness which we implore for Her Royal Highness and her august Consort, be rendered complete by their being blessed with offspring which shall inherit the personal and regal virtues they themselves derive from their illustrious ancestors; and thus, amid the glories of that Peace which has been consolidated by the transcendent achievement of your heroic army at Waterloo under the direction of their unconquered Commander, may the individual happiness of your Royal Highness, both as a Sovereign and as a Father, receive its proudest consummation.

Given under our seal, the 4th day of May in the year of our Lord 1816.

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE of WALES, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth; impressed with a grateful sense of the many blessings we have enjoyed under the Government of your illustrious family, beg leave, in the most dutiful manner, to congratulate your Royal Highness on the auspicious marriage of your illustrious daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg. An union, we trust, fraught with permanent advantage to this Nation, and in which the sanction of your Royal Highness has received the cordial and warm approbation of all ranks of His Majesty's loyal subjects.

In expressing our sense of gratitude for this distinguished mark of your Royal Highness's paternal care, we humbly acknowledge the regard you have shewn for our religion, laws and liberties; and the determination evinced to preserve the constitution of the United Kingdom, so happily settled in Church and State, as well as the full enjoyment to a free and enlightened people of all their religious and civil rights.

Such goodness and concern for the happiness and welfare of His Majesty's subjects, call upon us for the highest returns of duty, zeal and affection; and when we consider the character of the Princess and her illustrious consort, and the happiness which must necessarily result to the people from their Princely virtues, we cannot but hope, that to complete their domestic comforts, a numerous offspring will arise, who will prove a lasting pledge and security to our happy establishment.

That the Crown may descend with increased glory in a long line of Princes of your Royal Highness's House, and that when Providence shall please to call your Royal Highness to the Throne you may long continue to reign over a free, virtuous and happy people, is the ardent prayer of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Freemen and Inhabitants of this Borough.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The address of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Magistrates, Clergy and other Gentlemen of the Town and County of Nairn, assembled at their annual celebration of His Majesty's birth-day.

Whilst from the wonderful exertions of His Majesty's arms, terminating in the glorious battle of Waterloo, not only these Islands, and their dependencies, but the whole of Europe, have every cause to look forward to a long period of peace, so anxiously wished for, we, along with the rest of His Majesty's subjects, most sincerely congratulate your Royal Highness on the marriage of your amiable daughter to the Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg: an event in which every Briton must rejoice, and every nation feel an interest.

That they may be long happy in their domestic concerns, and whilst drawing the attention of the whole Empire, may secure the imitation, and command the admiration of all ranks in society, we most earnestly pray.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, at Nairn, the 4th day of June 1816.
