THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Renfrew, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with every sentiment of veneration for the King, and of duty and respectful attachment towards your Royal Highness.

From an union, which gives the fairest promises of felicity to the illustrious persons themselves, may your Royal Highness derive every blessing of domestic happiness, more gratifying to the heart and feelings, than all the splendour that surrounds your exalted situation.

We entreat your Royal Highness graciously to accept this tribute of duty and affection to your person and family, on an occasion so interesting and so gratifying to the wishes of your faithful
