July 8, 1816.

[Transmitted by the Rev. John Skinner, Senior Bishop of the Episcopal Communion in Scotland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

THE Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Montgomery, assembled at Welsh Pool this 8th of July 1816, at a meeting appointed by the High Sheriff, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most dutiful and hearty congratulations on the alliance lately formed by Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg of Saalfeld.

We entreat your Royal Highness to believe that our wishes for the prosperity of every branch of your Royal House remain undiminished, and that every opportunity of testifying our loyalty will be embraced by this part of a principality ever eager to shew its attachment to our unrivalled Constitution and the reigning family, and that this alliance may be contributory to the stability of the one, and the prolongation of the other, is our sincere wish and our firm reliance.

Signed at the desire and on behalf of the Meeting,
Panton Corbett, Chairman.

[Transmitted by J. A. Lloyd, Esq. High Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Kent, humbly beg leave to offer our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe-Cobourg.

We participate in the joy this event must occasion to your Majesty and your illustrious House, and we humbly and anxiously hope that this union may tend in the highest degree to promote your Majesty's domestic happiness.

[Presented by the High Sheriff of the County, the two Members for the County, Lord Clifton, the Mover, and the Honourable Colonel Harris, the Seconder.]

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, most humbly beg to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe-Cobourg.

We participate in the joy this event must occasion to your Majesty and your illustrious House, and we humbly and anxiously hope that this union may tend in the highest degree to promote your Majesty's domestic happiness.

Given under the seal of our Corporation, at New Romney aforesaid, the 3d day of July 1816.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, humbly beg leave to offer our sincere congratulations on the recent marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg; and whilst we reflect with pleasure on the happy prospect this union presents to the illustrious pair, which we trust will tend to promote the domestic happiness of your Majesty and your Royal Family, we cannot but rejoice, in common with His Majesty's subjects, in an event which promises a continuation of the blessings we have hitherto enjoyed under the mild Government of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Done at a County Meeting, convened by the High Sheriff for the purpose, at the Castle of Exeter, the 25th day of June 1816.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,
Arthur Chichester, Sheriff.
